Christendom and monastic ideals could take root in a society with contrary religious values even in the realm of doctrinal belief

Jihadist Preachers of the End Times Bronislav Ostransky, 2019-08-28 Focusing on apocalyptic manifestations found in ISIS propaganda this book situates the group's agenda in the broader framework of contemporary Muslim thought and explains key topics in millennial thinking within the spiritual context of modern Islamic apocalypticism Based on the group's primary sources as well as medieval Muslim apocalyptic literature and its modern interpretations the book analyses the ways

ISIS presents its message concerning the Last Days as a meaningful inventive and frightening expression of collectively shared expectations relating to the supposedly approaching the End Times Gog and Magog Georges Tamer, Andrew Mein, Lutz Greisiger, 2023-12-31 The tale of a collective evil force known as Gog and Magog has occupied the imagination of Jews Christians and Muslims for millennia finding expression in literary and scholarly works and other cultural artifacts This book gathers the papers from two conferences at the University of Erlangen Nuremberg by scholars ranging from history to religious studies to art history and is the most thorough work on the subject to date Abraham Bar Hiyya on Time, History, Exile and Redemption Hannu Töyrylä, 2014-07-03 An analysis of Megillat ha Megalleh by Abraham Bar Hiyya 12th c as a complete text in its historical and cultural context showing that the work written at a time when Jews increasingly came under Christian influence and dominance presents a coherent argument for the continuing validity of the Jewish hope for redemption In his argument Bar Hiyya presents a view of history the course of which was planted by God in creation which runs inevitably towards the future redemption of the Jews Bar Hiyya uses philosophical scientific biblical and astrological material to support his argument and several times makes use of originally Christian ideas which he inverts to suit his argument The Living and the Dead in Islam: Epitaphs as texts Werner Diem, 2004 Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil, 2012-05-03 Can non Muslims be saved And can those who are damned to Hell ever be redeemed Mohammad Hassan Khalil examines the writings of influential medieval and modern Muslim scholars on the controversial question of non Muslim salvation Cultures of Eschatology Veronika Wieser, Vincent Eltschinger, Johann Heiss, 2020-07-20 In all religions in the medieval West as in the East ideas about the past the present and the future were shaped by expectations related to the End The volumes Cultures of Eschatology explore the many ways apocalyptic thought and visions of the end intersected with the development of pre modern religio political communities with social changes and with the emergence of new intellectual and literary traditions The two volumes present a wide variety of case studies from the early Christian communities of Antiquity through the times of the Islamic invasion and the Crusades and up to modern receptions from the Latin West to the Byzantine Empire from South Yemen to the Hidden Lands of Tibetan Buddhism Examining apocalypticism messianism and eschatology in medieval Christian Islamic Hindu and Buddhist communities the contributions paint a multi faceted picture of End Time scenarios and provide their readers with a broad array of source material from different historical contexts The first volume Empires and Scriptural Authorities examines the formation of literary and visual apocalyptic traditions and the role they played as vehicles for defining a community's religious and political enemies The second volume Time Death and Afterlife focuses on key topics of eschatology death judgment afterlife and the perception of time and its end It also analyses modern readings and interpretations of eschatological concepts The Resurrected God John L. Drury, 2014 An examination of the resurrection of Christ and its relationship to the doctrine of the Trinity in the mature work of Karl Barth particularly across the three parts of volume IV of the Church

Dogmatics It argues that for Barth the subject and basis of Christ's resurrection is the triune God Life Hereafter Paul Crittenden, 2020-10-24 In this book Paul Crittenden offers a critical guide to the problematic origins of biblical teaching about the afterlife and the way in which it was subsequently developed by Church authorities and theologians Origen Augustine and Thomas Aquinas in particular In the post Reformation era the focus falls on the challenges set by modern secularism The tradition encompasses a body of interconnected themes an apocalyptic war in which the Kingdom of God triumphs over Satan's powers of darkness salvation in Christ the immortality of the soul and finally the resurrection of the dead and the last judgment ratifying an afterlife of eternal bliss for the morally good and punishment in hell for wrongdoers The critique questions these beliefs on evidential ethical and philosophical grounds The argument overall is that what lies beyond death is beyond knowledge The one fundamental truth that can be distilled from the once compelling body of Christian eschatological belief for believers and unbelievers alike is the importance of living ethically Discussion Between Rev. John L. Shinn, of the Universalist Church and Elder Mark H. Forscutt Anonymous, 2023-11-21 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost The Naked State of Human Being Luis Ivan Martinez-Toledo, 2016-04-21 This book explains the image of nakedness gymnos taken by Paul in the Corinthian correspondence to refer to the state of human being during death Through an academic approach but simple language the author explains the biblical monist understanding of human being He takes the biblical experience of death and resurrection to point out his arguments This book uncovers the ancient problem of the continuation of personal identity from life prior to death on to resurrection It also provides a fresh biblical approach from an anthropological and biblical perspective to the problem of what being human really is Those who enjoy traveling through the Bible with an open mind and warm heart will find in this book a good experience Calvin James L. Codling, 2010-06-09 This study examines the influence of John Calvin in ethics eschatology and education as well as those influences that affected him It examines his writings to determine if his vision made him an innovator The research searched for reforms in the areas of ethics curriculum understanding of the teaching office and universal education It also looked at philosophy economics and labor A belief in the after life and end times was an ethical motivation for Calvin and education was a means by which the people that he worked with and wrote to could understand how they should live and why they should live like that Thus there is an important connection among ethics eschatology and education All people were to work to their potential at their job because in doing their job they would honor God Teachers were especially important Those who taught would affect the quality of education Calvin worked to provide teacher training and support He believed that all occupations could be a special calling from God and education was a means to prepare the young person for his or her calling Schools existed in Geneva before Calvin arrived in 1536 however they did not function in the way that Calvin would have liked Calvin provided the elementary students with a needed text when he prepared a catechism The students had written material that they could read and study and a systematic presentation of the basic doctrines of the Christian faith Calvin also wanted more appropriate facilities in which the students could learn Although his organization of the schools improved the atmosphere for learning the building of the Academy was his dream and became his major educational achievement in the city of Geneva Because 16th century students needed to be prepared for the new world there was a need for curriculum change The students were required to read many of the prominent Greek and Roman authors in the ancient languages but the student learned theology Hebrew poetry dialectic and rhetoric physics and mathematics as well Calvin wished to graduate a well rounded scholar who could take his or her place in society In this way the citizens of Geneva and all those of the Reformed belief would be better prepared for life on earth and the after life Faith Has Its Reasons Kenneth Boa, Robert M.
