Rethinking The Family Some Feminist Questions:

Rethinking the Family Barrie Thorne, Marilyn Yalom, 1992 Rethinking the Family Stanford University Center for Research on Women, 1982 The Changing American Family and Public Policy Andrew J. Cherlin, 1988 This book brings social science perspective to bear on family change and family policy identifies the determinants of change and analyzes the role that government has played and can play in affecting the course of family life Mothering Evelyn Nakano Glenn, Grace Chang, Linda Rennie Forcey, 2016-04-29 This volume presents a variety of unique perspectives on mothering as a socially constructed relationship assessing many of the political legal and cultural debates surrounding the issue Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 2008-11-19 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production Women in Families Monica McGoldrick, Carol M. Anderson, Froma Walsh, 1989 This comprehensive book ideal as a basic text in family therapy and women s studies addresses the question of how women experience family life from a variety of perspectives It covers gender issues in family therapy theory practice and training women in context ethnicity and life cycle issues marriage motherhood sisterhood women alone lesbian couples and such special issues as work addiction and mental illness Family Theories Angela C. Henderson, Katherine R. Allen, 2016-07-21 Family Theories Foundations and Applications presents a comprehensive and accessible approach to the most current perspectives in the field of family theory Integrates classic and contemporary writings on family theories Features compelling case studies drawn from the authors experiences working with thousands of students Represents an integrative use of theory research and practice Utilizes the metaphor of developing your theory app to translate complex academic ideas into accessible student friendly language Gender, Family and Economy Rae Lesser Blumberg, 1990-11-01 The triple overlap refers to the link between gender stratification the household and economic variables In this volume leading sociologists examine this overlap as a totality providing theoretical concepts and new research on how the triple overlap works both inside the family and within the broader context of society Their competing conceptions of the interrelationship of gender family and economy are bolstered by empirical papers which raise questions of culture class and race within the contexts of both the developed and developing worlds Six of the articles in this volume were previously published as a Special Issue of Journal of Family Issues Women, Islam and Everyday Life Nina Nurmila, 2009-06-10 This book examines Islam and women's everyday life focusing in particular on the highly controversial issue of polygamy It discusses the competing Islamic interpretations of polygamy and based on detailed fieldwork conducted in Indonesia women's actual experiences and perceptions of the practice and the impact of public policy Queer Family Values Valerie Lehr, 1999 American culture is at war over family values And with the issue of gay and lesbian marriage often at the center of this discourse notable thinkers like Andrew Sullivan William Eskridge Urvashi Vaid and Torie Osborn have engaged in the battle But why Valerie Lehr asks debate over the right of gays to take part in a socially defined institution designed to perpetuate inequalities among people Strong Mothers, Weak Wives Miriam M. Johnson, 1988 For years I have been impressed by the originality and insight of Johnson's articles on gender sexuality and male dominance This book continues and expands the excellent quality of the earlier work It provides an original argument about the central structural locus of gender inequality and makes a major advance in its insightful and insistent focus on the role of the father in gender differentiation and sexual dominance It will surely be recognized as a major work of feminist theory Nancy Chodorow author of The Reproduction of Mothering This thoughtful and provocative book greatly deepens the debate over the effects of mothers and fathers on their children Arlie Hochschild author of The Second Shift Inside the Two Job Marriage Family Diversity Pauline Irit Erera, 2001-09-11 This nonjudgmental inclusive and far reaching text focuses on the diverse patterns of family structure prevalent in our society today Family Diversity presents empirical research on the internal dynamics social environments support factors prevalence of discrimination and common stereotypes that account for the issues surrounding current family relations By examining the history and nature of foster and adoptive single parent lesbian gay step and grandparent family units Pauline Irit Erera is able to challenge both the idealized family prototype and the hegemony of the traditional structure Critical Concepts in Queer Studies and Education Nelson M. Rodriguez, Wayne J. Martino, Jennifer C. Ingre, Edward Brockenbrough, 2016-08-30 This book advances a broad constellation of critical concepts situated within the field of queer studies and education Collectively the concepts take up a cross section of scholarship that speaks to various political epistemological theoretical methodological and pedagogical concerns Given the ongoing global centrality of sociocultural and political developments related to the topic of LGBTQ in the twenty first century the concepts in this volume and the issues raised by each contributor will have wide international appeal among researchers scholars educators students and activists working at the intersection of queer studies and education The Family of Woman Maureen Sullivan, 2004-09-06 Drawing upon interviews with gay families Sullivan contends that gay families have more equitable social relations and move forward in equalizing gender roles The Psychosocial Interior of the Family Gerald Handel, Gail G. Whitchurch, 1994 This long awaited fourth edition has the same goal as the preceding editions to understand families in terms of the kinds of interaction through which family life is constructed The changes in the family as an institution have influenced these processes just as they have influenced the ways we understand and write about them But even in these postmodern circumstances an underlying premise of the volume is that two partners establish a family because they have selected each other as distinctively meaningful to one another They will affirm modify elaborate or retreat from various aspects of the relationship through interaction over time and in changing circumstances This volume contains the best available interdisciplinary work on the social psychology of the family More than half of the selections are new to this edition which incorporates a variety of theoretical and research perspectives that provide the reader with a range of authoritative and up to date sources on the family and interpersonal relations The newer forms of family organization that have emerged in the more recent literature specifically single parent families stepfamilies and families of gay and lesbian domestic partners are included Authors have been drawn from a variety of disciplines including sociology communication family studies human development psychology anthropology and social work Making a Difference Rachel T.

Hare-Mustin, Jeanne Marecek, 1990-01-01 Drawing on postmodernist scepticism about what we know and how we know it and on recent developments in the philosophy of science and feminist theory this book offers a new perspective on the meaning of gender one that is not determined by the traditional focus on male female differences Sourcebook of Family Theory and Research Vern L. Bengtson, 2005 Now available in paperback for classroom use This comprehensive text provides a rich source of perspectives on theorising about the family for scholars researchers and students Another of the book's strengths is the emphasis on multimethod approaches in family research The book covers an impressive range of topics and issues marital happiness adjustment of children in divorce marriages gay marriage sibling ties ethnic families of colour stepfamilies aggression culture work and family religion and social policy to name a few In summary this superb volume is highly recommended and amply reflects the many contemporary perspectives on the family Philip Siebler Monash University Victoria Sponsored by the National Council on Family Relations the Sourcebook of Family Theory and Research is the reference work on theory and methods for family scholars and students around the world This volume provides a diverse eclectic and paradoxically mature approach to theorizing and demonstrates how the development of theory is crucial to the future of family research The Sourcebook reflects an interactive approach that focuses on the process of theory building and designing research thereby engaging readers in doing theory rather than simply reading about it An accompanying website offers additional participation and interaction in the process of doing theory and making science Editors Vern L Bengtson Alan C Acock Katherine R Allen Peggye Dilworth Anderson and David M Klein have brought together a prominent group of diverse contributors ranging in race and ethnicity age and seniority and gender and sexual orientation The Sourcebook begins with a section that sets the context for future family research The subsequent sections explore changing family patterns changing family interactions within and across generations and families and larger social forces A concluding section discusses issues of teaching family theories and research Key Features Focuses on the process rather than the outcomes of family theory and research methods Emphasizes the value of multi methods approaches in family research by integrating theory development with the development of research methods Differs from many other publications on family research by describing the development of new ideas rather than just summarizing existing findings The interactive Web site and the special feature boxes within the chapters engage readers with theory and methodology Boxed features include Case Studies Spotlights on Theory Spotlights on Methods and a Discussion and Extension sections Represents a Who's Who of family researchers with contributions from many of the best researchers in the family realm The Sourcebook will be an excellent addition to any academic library It is an authoritative reference for scholars and researchers in Human Development and Family Studies Sociology Social Work and Psychology In addition the Sourcebook can also be used in graduate courses on family theory and methodology
