Asian Americans in an Anti-Black World Claire Jean Kim,2023-06-29 Where do Asian Americans fit into the U S racial order Are they subordinated comparably to Black people or permitted adjacency to whiteness The racial reckoning prompted by the police murder of George Floyd and the surge in anti Asian hate during the COVID 19 pandemic raise these questions with new urgency Asian Americans in an Anti Black World is a groundbreaking study that will shake up scholarly and popular thinking on these matters Theoretically innovative and based on rigorous historical research this provocative book tells us we must consider both anti Blackness and white supremacy and the articulation of the two forces in order to understand U S racial dynamics The construction of Asian Americans as not white but above all not Black has determined their positionality for nearly two centuries How Asian Americans choose to respond to this status will help to define racial politics in the U S in the twenty first century      Shadowed Ground Kenneth E. Foote, 2013-12-06 Winner John Brinckerhoff Jackson Prize Association of American Geographers 1997 Shadowed Ground explores how and why Americans have memorialized or not the sites of tragic and violent events spanning three centuries of history and every region of the country For this revised edition Kenneth Foote has written a new concluding chapter that looks at the evolving responses to recent acts of violence and terror including the destruction of the Branch Davidian compound at Waco Texas the Oklahoma City bombing the Columbine High School massacre and the terrorist attacks of 9 11      History of Alaska , Volume II Jonathan M. Nielson, Ph.D., 2018-03-01 The most significant military development to touch Alaska during the interwar years was the advent of air power an innovation that completely altered Alaska s strategic position Suddenly the world became smaller as areas once thought safely distant from potential enemies became vulnerable Nowhere was this more evident than in the Pacific whose countless islands became potential advanced air bases As air technology improved the ability of long range bombers and by the 1930s of carrier aircraft to penetrate American airspace was a development of far reaching significance While such warnings were largely limited to a handful of air power advocates their vocal advocacy constituted nothing less than an insurrection a revolution in military thinking fought against entrenched military conservatism cultural aversion to change fears of budget cuts and War Department lethargy Indeed it was the air power crusader General Billy Mitchell who aggressively fought to convince the War and Navy Departments to embrace the new doctrine of offensive air power Mitchell came to understand Alaska s strategic importance early on Consequently he saw the Aleutians as a vulnerability if left unguarded Japan could creep up and by establishing air dominance take Alaska and Canada s West Coast But he also saw Alaska as a strategic base from which American planes could reduce Tokyo to powder Prophetically in 1923 Mitchell forecast precisely the military threat and strategic arguments that would shape military thinking almost twenty years later I am thinking of Alaska In an air war if we were unprepared Japan could take it away from us first by dominating the sky and creeping up the Aleutians By the mid to late 1930s military and civilian advocates of air power and more visionary strategists were beginning to make their voices heard in Congress and elsewhere decrying Alaska s military vulnerability Between 1933 and 1944 no one was more adamant than Alaska s Delegate in Congress Anthony Joseph Tony Dimond who challenged the nation to defend itself by defending Alaska To Dimond it seemed poor strategy to fortify one pacific base Hawaii while ignoring another Alaska Dimond s campaign was strengthened by passage of the Wilcox Bill sponsored by Representative J Mark Wilcox D Florida officially known as the National Air Defense Act This truly significant legislation authorized the location and construction of military airfields throughout the United States as a general defense preparedness measure Alaska was recognized as one of the nation s six strategic regions and two bases one at Anchorage the other at Fairbanks were recommended in part because Alaska was closer to Japan than it is to the center of the continental United States Fortuitously for Alaska defense advocates General Douglas MacArthur stepped down as Chief of Staff of the Army and was replaced by Major General Malin Craig in October 1935 Craig and Brigadier General Stanley D Embick advocated a substantial reconfiguration of Plan Orange arguing that the Philippines presented an invitation to attack and should be neutralized in favor defending the Alaska Hawaii Panama Triangle Both the Army and Navy were charged with defending Alaska as far west as Dutch Harbor and the army pledged to mobilize 6 600 troops in Alaska within a month of attack by Japan In contemplating the defense of Alaska the Army General Staff formulated five priority objectives first increase the Alaska garrison second establish a major base for Army operations near Anchorage third develop a network of air bases within Alaska fourth garrison these bases with combat troops and fifth protect the naval installations at Sitka Kodiak and Dutch Harbor Alaska was about to go to war
