Rights Across Borders Immigration And The Decline Of Citizenship:

Rights across Borders David Jacobson, 1997-09-05 Examining illegal immigration in the United States and migrant and foreign populations in Western Europe with a special focus on Germany and France Jacobson shows how the differing political cultures of these countries the ethnic basis of citizenship in Germany versus its political basis in the United States for instance have shaped both domestic

Citizenship as a Human Right Gonalo Matias, 2016-06-30 This book examines a stringent problem of current migration societies whether or not to extend citizenship to resident migrants Undocumented migration has been an active issue for many decades in the USA and became a central concern in Europe following the Mediterranean migrant crisis In this innovative study based on the basic principles of transnational citizenship law and the naturalization pattern around the world Matias purports that it is possible to determine that no citizen in waiting should be permanently excluded from citizenship Such a proposition not only imposes a positive duty overriding an important dimension of sovereignty but it also gives rise to a discussion about undocumented migration With its transnational law focus and cases from public international law courts European courts and national courts Citizenship as a Human Right The Fundamental Right to a Specific Citizenship may be applied to virtually anywhere in the world

Citizenship in the Arab World Gianluca Paolo Parolin, 2009 Subject The book is the fruit of five years of on site research on citizenship in the Arab world It takes a broader legal perspective to the multifaceted reality of nationality and citizenship The methodology employed builds on the interdisciplinary approach of comparative legal studies and brings in theories concepts and insights from anthropology political science Arab and Islamic studies linguistics and sociology The work relies on a broad range of Western and Arab references and all sources and documents were directly accessed in their original languages this is particularly relevant for Arab legislation all in text reference has been translated by the author and the original has been inserted using scientific transliteration Website OAPEN Library

Political Power and Social Theory Diane E. Davis, Julian Go, 2009-12-21 It is time to consider changes in the field of comparative historical sociology as the discipline seeks to accommodate old and new trends as well as the transforming spatial scales in which political power and social theory are increasingly embedded This title showcases articles that pursue similar themes

Migration, Citizenship, Ethnos Y. Bodemann, G. Yurdakul, 2006-04-02 This collection of essays addresses three interrelated themes the basic issues in contemporary German and European Migration since 1945 with particular focus on new developments in the 80s the ways in which the citizenship debate has proceeded and how immigration and citizenship have been handled in Western Europe

Migration in Political Theory Sarah Fine, Lea Ypi, 2016-01-29 Written by an international team of leading political and legal theory scholars whose writings have contributed to shaping the field Migration in Political Theory presents seminal new work on the ethics of movement and membership The volume addresses challenging and under researched themes on the subject of migration It debates the question of whether we ought to recognize a human right to immigrate and whether it might be legitimate to restrict emigration The authors critically examine criteria for selecting would be migrants and for acquiring citizenship They discuss tensions between the claims of immigrants and existing residents and tackle questions of migrant worker exploitation and responsibility for refugees The book illustrates the importance of drawing on the tools of political theory to clarify criticize and challenge the current terms of the migration debate Research Handbook on Multiculturalism Geoffrey Brahm Levey,2025-03-12 This Research Handbook presents a comprehensive assessment of multiculturalism in political theory and practice from an international perspective Geoffrey Brahm Levey brings together 30 leading experts from around the world to assess the current state of the field charting lines of inquiry for further research

Asylum Policy, Boat People and Political Discourse Irial Glynn,2016-06-11 This book compares the policies of Australia and Italy towards boat people who have arrived in the two countries since the early 1990s While the regular and varied inflow of immigrants arriving at national airports ferry terminals and train stations is seldom witnessed by the public the arrival of boat people is often played out in the media and consequently attracts disproportionate political and public attention Both Australia and Italy faced similar dilemmas but the nature of political debate on the issue the types of strategies introduced and the effects that policy changes had on boat people diverged considerably This book argues that contrasting migration path dependencies disparate political values within the Left and varying international obligations best explain the different approaches taken by the two countries to boat people Ubiquitous Citizens of Europe Oxana Golyunker,2006 Focuses on economically active persons resident in one country while working in another which traditionally embraced frontier and posted workers but nowadays takes new forms Outlines the correlations between citizenship bona fide residence labour migration and socio economic rights of partial migrants in the European Union with particular reference to Union citizenship and examines problems associated with rights in the areas of social security taxation and housing Scrutinizes the latest case law of the European Court of Justice Aftermath Daniel Kanstroom,2012-06-07 Since 1996 when new harsher deportation laws went into effect the United States has deported millions of noncitizens back to their countries of origin While the rights of immigrants with or without legal status as well as the appropriate pathway to legal status are the subject of much debate hardly any attention has been paid to what actually happens to deportees once they pass beyond our aid In fact we have fostered a new diaspora of deportees many of whom are alone and isolated with strong ties to their former communities in the United States Daniel Kanstroom author of the authoritative history of deportation Deportation Nation turns his attention here to the current deportation system of the United States and especially deportation s aftermath the actual effects on individuals families U S communities and the countries that must process and repatriate ever increasing numbers of U S deportees Few know that once deportees have been expelled to places like Guatemala Cambodia Haiti and El Salvador many face severe hardship persecution and in extreme instances even death Addressing a wide range of political social and legal issues Kanstroom considers whether our deportation system works in any meaningful sense He also asks a number of under examined legal and philosophical questions What is the relationship between the rule of law and the border Where do rights begin and end Do or should deportees ever have a right to return After demonstrating that deportation in the U S remains an anachronistic ad hoc legally questionable affair the book concludes with specific reform proposals for a more humane and rational deportation system Latinos and Citizenship S. Oboler,2017-03-06 This book explores the extent to which the varied political status of Latinos is changing the meaning of citizenship and belonging in the United States It brings together broad theoretical considerations of citizenship with discussions of historical and contemporary case studies pertaining to Latinos and current debates on citizenship Focusing on Latinos historical and continuing struggles against exclusion the authors of this anthology discuss issues such as Latinos multiple national allegiances dual citizenship the changing meanings of belonging their transnational political and social participation the question of language and citizenship regional cultural citizenship and loyalties and the mobilization of Latino youth in their struggle to affirm their rights and belonging in US society Muslim Europe or Euro-Islam Manuel Castells,Nezar AlSayyad,2002-04-03 Five centuries after the expulsion of Muslims and Jews from Spain Europe is once again becoming a land of Islam At the beginning of a new millennium and in an era marked as one of globalization Europe continues to wrestle with the issue of national identity especially in the context of its Muslim citizens Muslim Europe or Euro Islam brings together distinguished scholars from Europe the United States and the Middle East in a dynamic discussion about the Muslim populations living in Europe and about Europe's role in framing Islam today The book raises several crucial questions Does Islam offer a special case for citizenship Is assimilation or multiculturalism the model to be followed in the case of Muslims in Europe How powerful a force is Islam in determining identity And why is Islam after centuries of being a presence in Europe not considered a European religion Working at the knotty intersection of cultural identity the politics of nations and nationalisms and religious persuasions this is an invaluable anthology of scholarship that reveals the multifaceted natures of both Europe and Islam Encyclopedia of Citizenship Studies Marisol García Cabeza,Thomas Faist,2024-04-12 This Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive collection of entries addressing the normative claims and definitions of the critical concepts principles and approaches that make up the field of citizenship studies A Companion to State Power, Liberties and Rights Morley, Sharon,Turner, Jo,Karen Corteen,Paul Taylor,2017-02-15 This handbook sets out defines and analyzes the essential vocabulary and terminology involved in the study of state power individual liberties and rights As part of the Companions series it is organized alphabetically taking up and defining key topics in these areas particularly as they relate to the study of crime and harm Topics addressed include state and corporate crime terrorism security risk legislation and policy human rights and civil liberties policing punishments and detention surveillance and regulation and many others Accessible yet challenging the book will be useful for both undergraduates and graduate students working in criminology criminal justice international relations political science and other fields Shaping

Citizenship Claudia Wiesner, Anna Björk, Hanna-Mari Kivistö, Katja Mäkinen, 2017-12-14 Citizenship is a core concept for the social sciences and citizenship is also frequently interpreted challenged and contested in different political arenas Shaping Citizenship explores how the concept is debated and contested defined and redefined used and constructed by different agents at different times and with regard to both theory and practice The book uses a reflexive and constructivist perspective on the concept of citizenship that draws on the theory and methodology of conceptual history This approach enables a panorama of politically important readings on citizenship that provide an interdisciplinary perspective and help to transcend narrow and simplified views on citizenship The three parts of the book focus respectively on theories debates and practices of citizenship In the chapters constructions and struggles related to citizenship are approached by experts from different fields Thematically the chapters focus on political representation migration internationalization sub and transnationalization as well as the Europeanisation of citizenship An indispensable read to scholars and students Shaping Citizenship presents new ways to study the conceptual changes struggles and debates related to core dimensions of this ever evolving concept

Politics and Cosmopolitanism in a Global Age Sonika Gupta, Sudarsan Padmanabhan, 2017-09-19 This book offers a unique reconceptualization of cosmopolitanism It examines several themes that inform politics in a globalized era including global governance international law citizenship constitutionalism community domesticity territory sovereignty and nationalism The volume explores the specific philosophical and institutional challenges in constructing a cosmopolitan political community beyond the nation state It reorients and decolonizes the boundaries of cosmopolitanism and questions the contemporary discourse to posit inclusive alternatives Presenting rich and diverse perspectives from across the world the volume will interest scholars and students of politics and international relations political theory public policy ethics and philosophy

Politik der Inklusion und Exklusion Ilker Ataç, Sieglinde Rosenberger, 2013 Interne Exklusion als Charakteristikum von europäischen Zuwanderungsgesellschaften Routledge International Handbook of Diversity Studies Steven Vertovec, 2014-11-20 In recent years the concept of diversity has gained a leading place in academic thought business practice and public policy worldwide Although variously used diversity tends to refer to patterns of social difference in terms of certain key categories Today the foremost categories shaping discourses and policies of diversity include race ethnicity religion gender disability sexuality and age further important notions include class language locality lifestyle and legal status The Routledge Handbook of Diversity Studies will examine a range of such concepts along with historical and contemporary cases concerning social and political dynamics surrounding them With contributions by experts spanning Sociology Anthropology Political Science History and Geography the Handbook will be a key resource for students social scientists and professionals It will represent a landmark volume within a field that has become and will continue to be one of the most significant global topics of concern throughout the twenty first century Citizenship David Jacobson, Manlio Cinalli, 2023 The introduction sets the historical context for the emergence of citizenship the revolutionary periods in its evolution and the underlying paradox that citizenship never fully overcomes primordialist practices Six propositions shape the book s exposition on the underlying grammar of citizenship the paradoxical character of rights which may undermine as well reinforce civic society the role of interest and identity respectively in collective action the importance of social embeddedness for the functioning of citizenship the concept of seams as a better conceptual framing than borders in revealing the present global environment and the increasingly evident empirical basis for prescribing a 21st century guild to help repair democracy

Citizenship and Immigrant Incorporation G. Yurdakul, 2016-04-30 The contributions in this volume consider the question of migrant agency how Western societies are both transforming migrants and being transformed by them It is informed by debates on the new transnational mobility the immigration of Muslims the increasing importance of human rights law and the critical attention paid to women migrants
