Depictions of Dangerous Reading Kevin R. West, 2019-04-15 Literary Depictions of Dangerous Reading explores how selected American and European literary texts from the classic to the contemporary represent reading as a dangerous endeavor It investigates how the texts being read or the conditions of reading may produce danger and considers the various qualities of the dangers depicted literal or metaphorical real or imagined minor or mortal Whereas readers can readily imagine being depressed or bored by a book or even perhaps corrupted in some moral fashion readers typically assume that the mere words on a page cannot directly affect their health Nevertheless literature can and does stage readings in which readers suffer actual harm from the magical or supernatural qualities of a given text Such impossibly dangerous reading fascinates the author argues by exaggerating the dangers that may inhabit certain real experiences of reading

On Celestial Music Rick Moody, 2012-03-21 Rick Moody has been writing about music as long as he has been writing and this book provides an ample selection from that output His anatomy of the word cool reminds us that in the postwar 40s it was infused with the feeling of jazz music but is now merely a synonym for neat On Celestial Music which was included in Best American Essays 2008 begins with a lament for the loss in recent music of the vulnerability expressed by Otis Redding's masterpiece Try a Little Tenderness moves on to Moody's infatuation with the ecstatic music of the Velvet Underground and ends with an appreciation of Arvo Part and Purcell close as they are to nature the music of the spheres Contemporary groups covered include Magnetic Fields their love songs Wilco the band's and Jeff Tweedy's evolution Danielson Famile an evangelical rock band The Pogues Shane McGowan's problems with addiction The Lounge Lizards John Lurie's brilliance and

Meredith Monk who once recorded a song inspired by Rick Moody's story Boys Always both incisive and personable these pieces inspire us to dive as deeply into the music that enhances our lives as Moody has done and introduces us to wonderful sounds we may not know

Making Time Carolin Gebauer, 2021-04-19 2023 Perkins Prize of the International Society for the Study of Narrative ESSE Book Award for Junior Scholars for a book in the field of Literatures in the English Language

Responding to the current surge in present tense novels Making Time is an innovative contribution to narratological research on present tense usage in narrative fiction Breaking with the tradition of conceptualizing the present tense purely as a deictic category denoting synchronicity between a narrative event and its presentation the study redefines present tense narration as a fully fledged narrative strategy whose functional potential far exceeds temporal relations between story and discourse The first part of the volume presents numerous analytical categories that systematically describe the formal structural functional and syntactic dimensions of present tense usage in narrative fiction These categories are then deployed to investigate the uses and functions of present tense narration in selected twenty first century novels including Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall Margaret Atwood's Oryx and Crake Ian McEwan's Nutshell and Irvine Welsh's Skagboys The seven case studies serve to illustrate the ubiquity of present tense narration in contemporary fiction ranging from the historical novel to the thriller and to investigate the various ways in which the present tense contributes to narrative worldmaking
