Postcolonial and Gender Perspectives in

Irish Studies Marisol Morales Ladrón, 2007 This book represents an attempt to tackle questions related to fragmented and often conflicting ideologies within Irish studies Although a collective outcome with contributions in English and Spanish its unifying concern has been the appliance of postcolonial and gender perspectives to the analysis of Irish literature prose drama and verse and cinema as well as to the aesthetic production of both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland Along the volume while some authors have chosen to delve into the broad theoretical debate concerning the position of Irish studies within postcolonial and feminist theories others offer detailed examinations of specific literary pieces and authors that fit in this panorama All in all the chapters are wide and diverse enough to trace a spatial and temporal map of the evolution of these paradigms within contemporary Irish studies North and South of the border
