The Effects of the Nation Carl Good, John V. Waldron, 2009 What is the effect of a nation In this age of globalization is it dead dying or only dormant The essays in this groundbreaking volume use the arts in Mexico to move beyond the national and the global to look at the activity of a community continually re creating itself within and beyond its own borders Mexico is a particularly apt focus partly because of the vitality of its culture partly because of its changing political identity and partly because of the impact of borders and borderlessness on its national character The ten essays collected here look at a wide range of aesthetic productions especially literature and the visual arts that give context to how art and society interact Steering a careful course between the nostalgia of nationalism and the insensitivity of globalism these essays examine modernism and postmodernism in the Mexican setting Individually they explore the incorporation of historical icons of vanguardism and of international influence From Diego Rivera to Elena Garro from the Tlateloco massacre to the Chiapas rebellion from mass market fiction to the film Aliens the contributors view the many sides of Mexican life as relevant to the creation of a constantly shifting national culture Taken together the essays look both backward and forward at the evolving effect of the Mexican nation

Essays on Mexican Art Octavio Paz, 1993 Octavio Paz probes the mystery of pre

Columbian art its otherness its unique concept of time and connects it to the ideas of Baudelaire and Nietzsche He tells the story of Hermenegildo Bustos a self taught painter in a remote Mexican village and compares his work to the sarcophagi portraits of the Egyptian Fayum He demonstrates how the Mexican muralists Rivera Siqueiros Orozco were influenced by European Cubism Fauvism Expressionism and how they in turn influenced American painters Gorky Rothko Pollock The abstract art of Tamayo evokes for him the music of Bela Bartok and the canvases of Maria Izquierdo suggest the poetry of Apollinaire In these fourteen wide ranging essays Paz makes art philosophy religion and the history of the world converge as he celebrates the richness of Mexico Publisher's description p 2 of dust jacket María Izquierdo and Frida Kahlo Nancy Deffebach, 2015-08-15 Maria Izquierdo 1902 1955 and Frida Kahlo 1907 1954 were the first two Mexican women artists to achieve international recognition During the height of the Mexican muralist movement they established successful careers as easel painters and created work that has become an integral part of Mexican modernism Although the iconic Kahlo is now more famous the two artists had comparable reputations during their lives Both were regularly included in major exhibitions of Mexican art and they were invariably the only women chosen for the most important professional activities and honors In a deeply informed study that prioritizes critical analysis over biographical interpretation Nancy Deffebach places Kahlo's and Izquierdo's oeuvres in their cultural context examining the ways in which the artists participated in the national and artistic discourses of postrevolutionary Mexico Through iconographic analysis of paintings and themes within each artist's oeuvre Deffebach discusses how the artists engaged intellectually with the issues and ideas of their era especially Mexican national identity and the role of women in society In a time when Mexican artistic and national discourses associated the nation with masculinity Izquierdo and Kahlo created images of women that deconstructed gender roles critiqued the status quo and presented more empowering alternatives for women Deffebach demonstrates that paradoxically Kahlo and Izquierdo became the most successful Mexican women artists of the modernist period while most directly challenging the prevailing ideas about gender and what constitutes important art Gunther Gerzso Gunther Gerzso, 1972 Greater American Camera Monica Bravo, 2021-01-01 An engaging investigation of how the relationships between four U S photographers and Mexican artists forged new developments in modernism Photographers Edward Weston Tina Modotti Paul Strand and Helen Levitt were among the U S artists who traveled to Mexico during the interwar period seeking a community more receptive to the radical premises of modern art Looking closely at the work produced by these four artists in Mexico this book examines the vital role of exchanges between the expatriates and their Mexican contemporaries in forging a new photographic style Monica Bravo offers fresh insights concerning Weston's friendship with Diego Rivera Modotti's images of labor which she published alongside the writings of the Stridentists Strand's engagement with folk themes and the work of composer Carlos Chavez and the influence of Manuel Alvarez Bravo on Levitt's contributions to a New World surrealism Exploring how these dialogues resulted in a distinct kind of modernism characterized by inter American interests the book reveals the ways in which cross border collaboration shaped a new greater American aesthetic
