Church Transfusion Neil Cole, Phil Helfer, 2012-09-19 Just as our life is in our blood the life for Christ's body is in His blood Changing a church is more than a new goal or direction Our churches need more than an organizational transition we need a full transfusion of Jesus blood His life within every disciple Anything less than that will only perpetuate more of the dysfunction and unhealthy church practices that have already plagued us for too long We are in desperate need of the internally transforming power of the gospel of grace and the presence of Christ so that our salvation is then worked out in a way the rest of the world will notice It isn't enough that we believe in the facts contained in the gospel we must allow the gospel itself to infect our souls and transform us from within The DNA of Jesus lifeblood is needed in our churches and nothing shy of a full transfusion that touches every cell will be sufficient In this book Neil Cole author of Organic Church Church Transfusion and Journeys to Significance and Phil Helfer co founders of Church Multiplication Associates will first point out that change is possible with God but only with God In the second half of the book they will lay out some of the actual practical considerations to weigh if you want to release real organic health in your church Using multiple examples of very different kinds of churches that have been through the process the authors present ways that leadership and practices need to change in order to release organic church movements from their midst Chapters cover Leadership shifts necessary Detoxification from dependence issues How to ignite change virally How to grandparent movements How to measure success in movements This book another in the Leadership Network series applies organic life principles to established churches with practical help that is holistic and natural The content in this book will be helpful whether you are pastor of an established church or wanting to revitalize a small organic church Jesus didn't die and rise from the dead so that we can be like everyone else in the world Our faith is more than just a better doctrine or a bigger goal with a capital giving campaign it is a better life Jesus is the difference and what a difference he makes don't be satisfied with less

Paul and His Mortality R. Gregory Jenks, 2015-11-16 While many books are written on Jesus's death a gap exists in writings about the theological significance of a believer's death particularly in imitation of Jesus's Paul as a first apostolic witness who talked frequently about his own death serves as a foundational model for how believers perceive their own death While many have commented about Paul's stance on topics such as forensic righteousness and substitutionary atonement less is written about Paul's personal experience and anticipation of his own death and the merit he assigned to it Paul and His Mortality Imitating Christ in the Face of Death explores how Paul faced his death in light of a ministry philosophy of imitation as he sought to imitate Christ in his life so he would imitate Christ as he faced his death In his writings Paul acknowledged his vulnerability to passive death as a mortal that at any moment he might die or come near death He gave us some of the most mournful and vitriolic words about how death is God's and our enemy But he also spoke openly about choosing death My aim is to know him to be like him in his death This study seeks to show that Paul embraced death as a follower and imitator of Christ because the benefits of a good death supersede attempts at self preservation For him embracing death is gain because it is honorable because it reflects ultimate obedience to God and because it is the reasonable response for those who understand that only Jesus s death provides atonement Studying mortality is paradoxically a study of life Peering at the prospect of life s end energizes life in the present This urgency focuses on living with mission in step with God the Creator and Sustainer of life who is rightly referred to as Life itself By focusing on mortality we focus on Paul s theology of life in its practical aspects in particular living life qualitatively aware of God s kingdom and mission and our limited quantity of days

Speaking of Jesus J. Mack Stiles, 2010-02-25 The gospel really is the best news anyone will ever receive So why do Christians shy away from talking about Jesus outside of church And when they do speak of Jesus why do they often get a disinterested or scornful reponse Mack Stiles offers a wealth of answers ideas and stories in this heads up hands on evangelism handbook His creative strategies for reaching an ethnically culturally economically educationally geographically and ideologically diverse world with the best news ever are drawn directly from his own work as an evangelist in today s student world In Speaking of Jesus he shows readers how to keep their eyes open for divine appointments how to approach others with a servant spirit how to cross relational barriers how to simply tell one s own story of faith and how to answer questions with honesty and confidence Speaking of Jesus may well be an Out of the Saltshaker for the 1990s and beyond With contagious enthusiasm Stiles stresses that evangelism isn t about exhibiting superhuman courage or perfecting specialized techniques or exercising extraordinary gifts Instead he shows that people of faith can use everyday situations and everyday language to pass on the simple and simply wonderful news about Jesus

Beyond Missio Dei Sarosh Koshy, 2021-11-24 In this book Sarosh Koshy strives to go beyond the mission model of Christianity that emerged alongside and within the colonial enterprise and ethos since the sixteenth century Rather than denounce the inheritance of the mission movement that transformed both the church and world in innumerable ways it is a simultaneous expression of appreciation for this precious heritage and an attempt to do justice by it through a yearning quest for relevant paradigms of Christian engagement Indeed there is an intense tension within this book and in fact a twin tension at that The tension is between those seeking to keep the current mission paradigm alive out of habit or as a self serving device thus corrupting and withering away a bequeathal that essentially set free the voluntary independent spirit of Christian individuals and their intentional collectives from both the ecclesiastical and political authorities On the other side are those who enlist mission both as a subsequent activity and as a basis to pursue innocuous and at times apparently heroic options that would seemingly satisfy a supposed missional mandatory This work enlists postcolonial and poststructuralist resources pedagogically to teach of mission missiology World Christianity and intercultural theology shows that this longing is for a deeper more satisfying fellowship with the Lord He demonstrates how we block our understanding of God with spiritual and mental preconceptions and why clearing those obstacles can open our path to a fulfilling and engaging relationship with the Father The Gospel According to the Marginalized Harvey J.
