developed a social ethics in the centuries following the Reformation that brought about fundamental systemic and structural changes in social services law education health care the formation of states and nations and public morality Those changes eventually led to the development of the welfare state In so doing Weber challenges interpretations by scholars such as the German Lutheran theologian Ernst Troeltsch who argued that Lutheran theology created a church operating at a remove from society's pressing questions Weber's comprehensive coverage of northern European society from the Reformation era through the nineteenth century utilizes the tools of sociology theology history and ethics to demonstrate that Lutheran ethical theory a Lutheran understanding of the social order and Lutheran social reforms lie at the heart of modern European social institutions Grounded in a Lutheran ethic of faith active in love for the neighbor Lutheran ethics transformed the household and polity developed government care for the poor protected public health and promoted social welfare within a new moral and legal order that continues to underpin contemporary social democracy across northern Europe James

Denney (1856-1917) James McMillan Gordon, 2006-06-01 James Denney is now best known though in increasingly restricted circles for his book The Death of Christ considered for over a century a lucid and standard exposition of objective atonement understood in substitutionary terms However there is breadth and depth to Denney's thought a richness and passion in his theological work an attractive integrity and spiritual immediacy in his writing that resists any reducing of his legacy to that of being an apologist for one aspect of Christian doctrine By exploring his early years growing up in Greenock Scotland following his intellectual development through university and college years in Glasgow and considering the impact of a long pastoral ministry in Broughty Ferry Dundee a context is created for studying the mind personality and faith that informed his mature theological writing For twenty years from 1897-1917 he taught biblical theology and exegesis in his denominational College in Glasgow developing his theology through articulation and then exploring and expounding the gospel of Christ as first and originally expressed in the apostolic experience and testimony embedded in the New Testament documents The theological work of Denney taken as a whole was both intellectually engaged and ecclesially focused as he sought to construct a secure basis for biblical faith His theology was offered in the service of the church his learning a self-conscious discipleship of the intellect This is the major study of Denney to use the large corpus of Denney's unpublished theological papers and sermons held in New College Library in the University of Edinburgh These together with Denney's published work and wider biographical research form the basis of this study an intellectual and contextual biography of one of Scotland's most attractive and forceful theological personalities Representing Religion Tim Murphy, 2014-12-05
