Heteronormativity, Passionate Aesthetics and Symbolic Subversion in Asia Saskia E Wieringa,2015-09-01 This book examines life trajectories among three categories of women living beyond the bounds of heteronormativity in Jakarta and Delhi two major cities with substantively different religious and social values women who have lost their husbands either through divorce or death sex workers and young urban lesbians Delhi has a large Hindu majority and a sizeable Muslim minority amongst other religious and cultural pluralities The Indian state is constitutionally committed to secularism and equal respect to all regions despite right wing Hindu fundamentalism Jakarta is the capital of a sprawling archipelago with a large variety of ethnic cultures Indonesia having the largest Muslim population of the world as well as sizeable ethnic and religious minorities comprising Christians Hindus Buddhists and others The Indonesian state is constitutionally secular but religion plays a large role in public life and is embedded in regulations that strongly impact people s private lives Recently there have been strong political currents to impose stricter Islamic codes The public arena of sexual politics in which the media play an important role is explored in both cities Hot sex is a major media selling point particularly in Indonesia Heteronormativity entails a system of symbolic violence in the sense that it punishes those that it excludes and polices those that it includes the ways its powers are subverted are likewise symbolic Passionate aesthetics refers to the dynamics motivations codes of behavior and presentation subjectivities and identities that together make up the complex workings of erotic attraction sexual relations and partnerships patterns By charting the lives of women who live beyond the boundaries of the heteronormative commonalities are revealed boundaries and regulatory mechanisms in the context of symbolic violence are delineated and the issue of the struggle for sexual rights for marginalised groups and their open rebellion brought to the fore At the heart of the book lies elaboration of the ways Asian families are constructed their social economic sexual and religious agency and how these engage with state led values

Leading With Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Joan Marques, Satinder Dhiman, 2022-06-17 This book guides managers and leaders toward greater insight and more deliberate practices in regards to diversity equity and inclusion addressing leadership operations and the educational environments The authors consider the qualities of awakened leadership as critical components for establishing and nurturing a diverse equitable and inclusive work environment The book argues that the only way destructive conflicts can be resolved on a lasting basis is through profound collaboration which can be embedded in performance structures by questioning biases and becoming aware of limiting mindsets and traditions that keep parts of society subjugated It offers a wide range of constructive approaches that lead to higher awareness thus better understanding and focus on stakeholders Finally it presents examples of diversity engendered issues and their resolutions from around the globe

Keats, Modesty and Masturbation Rachel Schulkins, 2016-04-22 Examining John Keats's reworking of the romance genre Rachel Schulkins argues that he is responding to and critiquing the ideals of feminine modesty and asexual femininity advocated in the early nineteenth century Through close readings of Isabella or the Pot of Basil The Eve of St Agnes Lamia and La Belle Dame sans Merci Schulkins offers a re evaluation of Keats and his poetry designed to demonstrate that Keats's sexual imagery counters conservative morality by encoding taboo desires and the pleasures of masturbation In so doing Keats presents a version of female sexuality that undermines the conventional notion of the asexual female Schulkins engages with feminist criticism that largely views Keats as a misogynist poet who is threatened by the female's overwhelming sexual and creative presence Such criticism Schulkins shows tends towards a problematic identification between poet and protagonist with the text seen as a direct rendering of authorial ideology Such an interpretation neither distinguishes between author protagonist text social norms and cultural history nor recognises the socio sexual and political undertones embedded in Keats's rendering of the female Ultimately Schulkins's book reveals how Keats's sexual politics and his refutation of the asexual female model fed the design plot and vocabulary of his romances presents the first collection of conversation analytic studies addressed exclusively to issues of inequality and injustice. It offers a broad depiction of how inequality and injustice are reproduced, resisted, and transformed in our daily life. Together, the chapters produce a forensic analysis of how participants enact discriminatory ideologies, negotiate systemic power imbalances, and pursue social change in and through the nuances of their interactions. The authors draw on audio and video recordings of interaction in a wide range of social settings ranging from classrooms to family dinners and political town halls to television sitcoms. The book demonstrates the power of conversation analysis to tackle issues of social justice and inequality and launches critical conversation analysis as a distinct empirical program dedicated to systematically investigating and promoting inclusion and equity in the minute details of everyday interaction.

Gender and Sexuality in Kenyan Societies Babacar M'Baye, Besi Brillian Muhonja, 2022-07-07. In Gender and Sexuality in Kenyan Societies: Centering the Human and the Humane in Critical Studies, edited by Besi Brillian Muhonja and Babacar M. Baye, contributors explore the application of ubuntu/utu responsive perspectives and methods to critical studies. Through the lens of ubuntu/utu, the contributors to this Kenya-focused volume draw from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies, literary studies, history, anthropology, sociology, political science, environmental studies, media studies, and development studies, among others, to demonstrate the urgency and necessity of humane scholarship research in gender and queer studies. By centering decolonial approaches and the human and humane, concentrating on subjects and identities that have been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates, the chapters are subversive, complex, and inclusive. They advance within Kenyan studies themes and elements of alternative, non-binary, variant, and non-heteronormative gender identities, sexualities, and voices, as well as approaches to doing knowledge. Underscoring the timeliness of such a text, evidence is rendered in sections of the collection highlighting the significance of ubuntu/utu-centric scholarship. Challenging the erasure of the human in academic works, the chapters in this volume look inward and locate the voices and experiences of Kenyan peoples as the pivotal locus of analysis and epistemological derivation.

Women, Gender, Religion E. Castelli, R. Rodman, 2001-01-01. This up-to-date and forward-looking collection of essays on gender and religion fills a crucial gap.
