Mueller,2006 Schnitzler's Reigen Wedekind's Die Büchse der Pandora Eine Monstretagoedie and Thoma's Moral and Magdalena reflect the gender inequity and interaction of their time as described in contemporary non literary texts The works represent a creative participation in gender discourse taking the side of social reformers who argued for a more equitable treatment of women including prostitutes The discrimination endured by prostitutes however is simply an extreme of what all women experienced The dramas expose male oppression of females while simultaneously portraying what women can do in order to achieve limited independence and self determination Women are victims rather than victimizers and male hypocritical attitudes cause women's suffering
