Sweeney, 2016-05-16 The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre s The Wall and Other Stories Stories of Bad Faith presents a philosophical analysis of all five stories in Sartre s short story collection Kevin W Sweeney argues that each of the five stories has its own philosophical idea or problem that serves as the context for the narrative Sartre constructs each story as a reply to the philosophical issue in the context and as support for his position on that issue In the opening story The Wall Sartre uses the Constant Kant debate to support his view that the story s protagonist is responsible for his ally s death The Room presents in narrative form Sartre s criticism that the Freudian Censor is acting in bad faith In Erostratus Sartre opposes Descartes s claim in his hats and coats example that we recognize the humanity of others by using our reason In Intimacy Sartre again opposes a Cartesian position this time the view that our feelings reveal our emotions Sartre counters that Cartesian view by showing that the two women in the story act in bad faith because they do not distinguish their feelings from their emotions The last story The Childhood of a Leader shows how the protagonist acts in bad faith in trying to resolve the question of who he is by appealing to the view that one s roots in nature can provide one with a substantial identity The stories are unified by showing the characters in all five narratives engaged in different acts of bad faith The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre s The Wall and Other Stories is written for scholars interested in Jean Paul Sartre s early literary and philosophical work as well as for students interested in Sartre and twentieth century French literature Zulu Lulu Amos Bwire, 2018-01-11 In 2008 a fourteen year old Maya is raped by a family member As a cover up she is forced to marry a sixty
