Lutherans And The Challenge Of Religious Pluralism:

Lutherans and the Challenge of Religious Pluralism Frank W. Klos, C. Lynn Nakamura, Daniel F. Martensen, 1990

Mission Shaped by Promise Jukka A. Kaariainen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the mission Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God

America and the Challenges of Religious Diversity Robert Wuthnow, 2011-07-01 Muslims Hindus Buddhists and adherents of other non Western religions have become a significant presence in the United States in recent years Yet many Americans continue to regard the United States as a Christian society How are we adapting to the new diversity Do we casually announce that we respect the faiths of non Christians without understanding much about those faiths Are we willing to do the hard work required to achieve genuine religious pluralism Award winning author Robert Wuthnow tackles these and other difficult questions surrounding religious diversity and does so with his characteristic rigor and style America and the Challenges of Religious Diversity looks not only at how we have adapted to diversity in the past but at the ways rank and file Americans clergy and other community leaders are responding today Drawing from a new national survey and hundreds of in depth qualitative interviews this book is the first systematic effort to assess how well the nation is meeting the current challenges of religious and cultural diversity The results Wuthnow argues are both encouraging and sobering encouraging because most Americans do recognize the right of diverse groups to worship freely but sobering because few Americans have bothered to learn much about religions other than their own or to engage in constructive interreligious dialogue Wuthnow contends that responses to religious diversity are fundamentally deeper than polite discussions about civil liberties and tolerance would suggest Rather he writes religious diversity strikes us at the very core of our personal and national theologies Only by understanding this important dimension of our culture will we be able to move toward a more reflective approach to religious pluralism

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483 1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism

An Introduction to the Theology of Religions Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-08-20 How does Christianity relate to other religions Beginning with a consideration of the biblical perspective Veli Matti Kärkkäinen offers a detailed and comprehensive survey of the diverse explanations proposed by teachers of the church down through the ages This indispensable guide is for anyone seeking to grasp Christianity's relationship to world religions

Leading Lutheran Higher Education in a Secular Age Brian Beckstrom, 2020-07-15 Lutheran colleges and universities occupy a distinctive space in American higher education In an age where the dividing line between sacred and secular has become blurred Brian Beckstrom argues that their rooted and open approach combined with adaptive theological leadership could be the best hope for faith based higher education To do so he provides an overview of Lutheran higher education its history and identity and combines surveys of students faculty and staff at Lutheran institutions with leadership theory and theological reflection Leaders at Lutheran colleges and universities will find it to be helpful in understanding their mission identity and vocation in a secular age and navigating the changing cultural environment that challenges the church and higher education alike

The Social Significance of Religion in the Enlarged Europe Olaf Müller, 2016-02-24 Engaging with some of the central issues in the sociology of religion this volume investigates the role and significance of churches and religion in contemporary Western and Eastern Europe Based on an extensive international research project it offers case studies of various countries including Finland Ireland Portugal Germany Poland Russia Estonia Hungary and Croatia as well as cross country comparisons Researching more precisely the present social relevance of church and religion at different levels The Social Significance of Religion in the Enlarged Europe raises and responds to both descriptive and explanatory questions Can we observe tendencies of religious decline in the various Western and Eastern European countries Are we witnessing trends of religious individualization To what extent has there been a religious upswing in the last few years And what are the factors causing the observed processes of religious change Marked by its broad range of data and a coherent conceptual framework in accordance with which each chapter assesses the extent to which three important theoretical approaches in the sociology of religion secularization theory the market model of religion and the individualization thesis are applicable to the data this book will be of interest to scholars of sociology politics and religion exploring religious trends and attitudes in contemporary Europe

Lutheran Identity and Political Theology Carl-Henric Grenholm, Goran Gunner, 2015-03-26 Lutheran tradition has in various ways influenced attitudes to work the economy the state education and health care One reason that Lutheran theology has been interpreted in various ways is that it is always influenced by surrounding social and cultural contexts In a society where the church has lost a great deal of its cultural impact and authority and where there is a plurality of religious convictions the question of Lutheran identity has never been more urgent However this question is also raised in the Global South where Lutheran churches need to find their identity in a relationship with several other religions Here this relationship is developed from a minority perspective Is it possible to develop a Lutheran political theology that gives adequate contributions to issues concerning social and economic justice What is the role of women in church and society around the world Is it possible to interpret Lutheran theology in such a way that it includes liberating perspectives These are some of the questions and issues discussed in this book

Jacques Dupuis Faces the Inquisition William R. Burrows, 2012-09-18 The critique of Jacques Dupuis SJ by the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith at the direction of Joseph Ratzinger was met by almost universal dismay by Christian theologians and participants in interfaith dialogue throughout the world This book is comprised of both responses by Father Dupuis to the Vatican's criticisms which he was forbidden to publish during his lifetime and introductory and background material by his friend and editor Bill Burrows who draws on their many conversations to draw out the deeper implications of Dupuis work and the background to the Vatican investigations and criticisms In addition to laying bare procedural problems in the CDF's process Dupuis shows that both the Vatican document Dominus Iesus and the Notification about problems in his work rest on dangerous misunderstandings of Scripture and church teaching that reverse the gains in interfaith understanding and ecumenism that have occurred over the past fifty years a state institution that it raises the question of whether a concept of civil religion was implicitly present in Salvationists view of the state church and their own adherence to the church This situation also raises the question of what constitutes a real church The book indicates the tension between Lutheran and Salvationist ecclesiology as well as the influence from the Lutheran Church

The Politics and Practice of Religious Diversity Andrew Dawson, 2016-04-20 The Politics and Practice of Religious Diversity engages with one of the most characteristic features of modern society An increasingly prominent and potentially contentious phenomenon religious diversity is intimately associated with contemporary issues such as migration human rights social cohesion socio cultural pluralisation political jurisdiction globalisation and reactionary belief systems This edited collection of specially commissioned chapters provides an unrivalled geographical coverage and multidisciplinary treatment of the socio political processes and institutional practices provoked by and associated with religious diversity Alongside chapters treating religious diversity in the BRIC countries of Brazil Russia India and China are contributions which discuss Australia Finland Mexico South Africa the UK and the United States This book provides an accessible distinctive and timely treatment of a topic which is inextricably linked with modern society s progressively diverse and global trajectory Written and structured as an accessible volume for the student reader this book is of immediate interest to both academics and laypersons working in mainstream and political sociology sociology of religion human geography politics area studies migration studies and religious studies

Lutherans in America Mark Alan Granquist, 2015 In this lively and engaging new history Granquist brings to light not only the institutions that Lutherans founded and sustained but the people that lived within them This shows the complete story not only the policies and the politics but the piety and the practical experiences of the Lutheran men and women who lived and worked in the American context Bringing the story all the way to the present day Granquist ably covers the full range of Lutheran expressions bringing order and clarity to a complex and vibrant tradition

Religious Diversity and Education. Nordic Perspectives Geir Skeie, 2009 In the last ten years or so religious plurality has become higher on the agenda for religious education research in the Nordic countries This attention to religious plurality partly reflects processes of globalisation that include both physical migration and communication of ideas and is seen across the world making it smaller It also reflects the preoccupation of governments with social cohesion and as part of this intercultural education In the curricula of the Nordic countries this is manifested in different ways setting also the agenda for parts of educational research This book addresses issues related to the increasing religious plurality in the Nordic countries These issues are a challenge to many religious groups including historically dominant Lutheran national churches both nationally and locally They have also led to a reorientation in religious education research in the last decade A rich variety of research perspectives are presented under three headings Theoretical and methodical perspectives The world of the students Teachers and textbooks Nordic religious education research here proves to be internationally oriented in terms of theoretical perspectives whilst also contributing to the debate through important empirical studies Examples of issues covered in the book are unintended learning dialogue gender life interpretation spirituality identity and values In different ways all the contributions in this book shed light on the common theme of diversity and are based on a will to include diverse perspectives both on the actors and the material of the classroom as well as on the life world of young people The researchers represent different generations and different theoretical and methodological perspectives The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World Jennifer Mara DeSilva, 2016-03-09 In the Early Modern period as both reformed and Catholic churches strove to articulate orthodox belief and conduct through texts sermons rituals and images communities grappled frequently with the connection between sacred space and behavior The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World explores individual and community involvement in the approbation reconfiguration and regulation of sacred spaces and the behavior both animal and human within them The individual's understanding of sacred space and consequently the behavior appropriate within it depended on local need group dynamics and the dissemination of normative expectations While these expectations were defined in a growing body of confessionalizing literature locally and internationally traditional clerical authorities found their decisions contested circumvented or elaborated in order to make room for other stakeholders activities and needs To clearly reveal the efforts of early modern groups to negotiate authority and the transformation of behavior with sacred space this collection presents examples that allow the deconstruction of these tensions and the exploration of the resulting campaigns within sacred space Based on new archival research the eleven chapters in this collection examine diverse aspects of the campaigns to transform Christian behavior within a variety of types of sacred space and through a spectrum of media These essays give voice to the arguments exhortations and accusations that surrounded the activities taking place in early modern sacred space and reveal much about how people made sense of these transformations Military Chaplains and Religious Diversity Kim Philip Hansen, 2012-09-25 Based on extensive in depth interviews with more than thirty active duty chaplains regarding their successes failures and conflicts the book is about the way military chaplains handle religious diversity among the enlisted they serve and within their own corps Dictionary of Luther and the Lutheran Traditions, 2017-08-22 In the five hundred years since the publication of Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses a rich set of traditions have grown up around that action and the subsequent events of the Reformation This up to date dictionary by leading theologians and church historians covers Luther's life and thought key figures of his time and the various traditions he continues to influence Prominent scholars of the history of Lutheran traditions have brought together experts in church history representing a variety of Christian perspectives to offer a major cutting edge reference work Containing nearly six hundred articles this dictionary provides a comprehensive overview of Luther's life and work and the traditions emanating from the Wittenberg Reformation It traces the history theology and practices of the global Lutheran movement covering significant figures events theological writings and ideas denominational subgroups and congregational practices that have constituted the Lutheran tradition from the Reformation to the present day Religion in the 21st Century Lisbet Christoffersen, Margit Warburg, 2016-04-08 In spite of the debate about secularization or de secularization the existential bodily need for religion is basically the same as always What have been changed are the horizons within which religions are interpreted and the relationships within which religions are integrated This book explores how religions continue to challenge secular democracy and science and how religions are themselves being challenged by secular values and practices All traditions whether religious or secular experience a struggle over authority and this struggle seems to intensify with globalization as it has brought people around the world in closer contact with each other In this book internationally leading scholars from sociology law political science religious studies theology and the religion and science debate take stock of the current interdisciplinary research on religion and open new perspectives at the cutting edge of the debate on religion in the 21st century
