Lutyens In Italy The Building Of The British School At Rome:

Lutyens in Italy Hugh Petter,1992 The Great War and the British Empire Michael J.K. Walsh,Andrekos Varnava,2016-11-25 In 1914 almost one quarter of the earth s surface was British When the empire and its allies went to war in 1914 against the Central Powers history s first global conflict was inevitable It is the social and cultural reactions to that war and within those distant often overlooked societies which is the focus of this volume From Singapore to Australia Cyprus to Ireland India to Iraq and around the rest of the British imperial world further complexities and interlocking themes are addressed offering new perspectives on imperial and colonial history and theory as well as art music photography propaganda education pacifism gender class race and diplomacy at the end of the pax Britannica Victorian Perceptions of Renaissance Architecture Katherine Wheeler,2017-07-05 In the mid 1880s The Builder an influential British architectural journal published an article characterizing Renaissance architecture as a corrupt bastardization of the classical architecture of Greece and Rome By the turn of the century however the same journal praised the Renaissance architect Filippo Brunelleschi as the Christopher Columbus of modern architecture Victorian Perceptions of Renaissance Architecture 1850 1914 examines these conflicting characterizations and reveals how the writing of architectural history was intimately tied to the rise of the professional architect and the formalization of architectural education in late nineteenth century Britain Drawing on a broad range of evidence including literary texts professional journals university curricula and census records Victorian Perceptions reframes works by seminal authors such as John Ruskin Walter Pater John Addington Symonds and Geoffrey Scott alongside those by architect authors such as William J Anderson and Reginald Blomfield within contemporary architectural debates Relevant for architectural historians as well as literary scholars and those in Victorian studies Victorian Perceptions reassesses the history of Renaissance architecture within the formation of a modern British architectural profession The Classics and Colonial India Phiroze Vasunia,2013-05-16 Offering a unique cross cultural study this book provides a detailed account of the relationship between classical antiquity and the British colonial presence in India Vasunia shows how classical culture pervaded the minds of the British colonizers and highlights the many Indian receptions of Greco Roman antiquity New Delhi: The Last Imperial City D. Johnson,2016-01-12 Johnson provides an historically rich examination of the intersection of early twentieth century imperial culture imperial politics and imperial economics as reflected in the colonial built environment at New Delhi a remarkably ambitious imperial capital built by the British between 1911 and 1931 Lutyens Abroad Andrew Hopkins,Gavin Stamp,2002 The studies in this volume offer the first serious examination of Sir Edwin Lutyens s hugely significant work beyond Great Britain With the exception of New Delhi far less attention has been paid to Lutyens s work abroad than to his work at home Sir Edwin Lutyens 1869 1944 made his name by designing romantic vernacular weekend houses at home in southern England however he also responded to opportunities offered by Britain s Imperial ambitions abroad The studies in this volume offer the first serious examination of Sir Edwin Lutyens's hugely significant work beyond Great Britain. With the exception of New Delhi far less attention has been paid to Lutyens's work abroad than to his work at home, some buildings indeed being almost unknown although it is arguable that his finest creations, works of transcendent humanity and originality within the Western tradition, are to be found along the former battlefields of the Western Front and the hot plains of India.

Ancient Rome John Coulston, Hazel Dodge, 2000-12-01 A major new book on the archaeology of Rome. The chapters by an impressive list of contributors are written to be as up to date and useful as possible, detailing lots of new research. There are new maps for the topography and monuments of Rome, a huge research bibliography containing 1,700 titles, and the volume is richly illustrated. Essential for all Roman scholars and students.

Contents: Preface; a bird's eye view; Peter Wiseman: Introduction; Jon Coulston and Hazel Dodge: Early and Archaic Rome; Christopher Smith: The city of Rome in the Middle Republic; Tim Cornell: The moral museum; Augustus and the image of Rome; Susan Walker: Armed and belted men: the soldiery in Imperial Rome; Jon Coulston: The construction industry in Imperial Rome; Janet Delaine and G. Aldrete: The feeding of Imperial Rome: the mechanics of the food supply system; David Mattingly: Greater than the pyramids: the water supply of ancient Rome; Hazel Dodge: Entertaining Rome; Kathleen Coleman: Living and dying in the city of Rome: houses and tombs; John Patterson: Religions of Rome; Simon Price: Rome in the Late Empire; Neil Christie: Archaeology and innovation; Hugh Pether: Appendix: Sources for the study of ancient Rome; Jon Coulston and Hazel Dodge: Western Ways; Frederick Whitling, 2018-12-03 In Western Ways for the first time the foreign schools in Rome and Athens, institutions dealing primarily with classical archaeology and art history, are discussed in historical terms as vehicles and figureheads of national scholarship. By emphasising the agency and role of individuals in relation to structures and tradition, the book shows how much may be gained by examining science and politics as two sides of the same coin. It sheds light on the scholarly organisation of foreign schools and through them on the organisation of classical archaeology and classical studies around the Mediterranean. With its breadth and depth of archival resources, Western Ways offers new perspectives on funding, national prestige and international collaboration in the world of scholarship and places the foreign schools in a framework of nineteenth and twentieth century Italian and Greek history.

The Crystal Palace and the Great Exhibition Hermione Hobhouse, 2002-03-05 The Great Exhibition of 1851 and the Crystal Palace which housed it together became a British icon, a symbol of free trade and a national success funded not only by taxes but by public subscription. Though the Palace itself was banished to Sydenham to leave Hyde Park free for Londoners, the Commission was re-invented under Prince Albert to spend the profits for the advancement of British industry. The Commissioners first established South Kensington with its Museums and Colleges of Art and Science, the Albert Hall and the Royal College of Music, and then moved into the training of scientists and artists. They assisted in the expansion of the British School at Rome and for over a century, 1851, scholars have been contributing to British scientific discoveries. This book celebrates 150 years of the Commission's work, fired by the application of art and science to productive industry, a story of some success and permanent record yet a pilgrimage not without its episodes of dissension and controversy Rome Chris Michaelides, 2000

Italy Diane Ghirardo, 2013-02-15 Packed in its dense historic city centers Italy holds some of the most prized architecture and art in the world with which planners and politicians have had to negotiate as they struggle to cope with massive migration from the countryside to the city Early modern architecture coincided with a sustained drive to transform a country that was still primarily rural into a modern industrial state and throughout the twentieth century architects in Italy have attempted to define the role of architecture within a capitalist economy and under diverse political systems In Italy Modern Architectures in History Diane Yvonne Ghirardo addresses these and other issues in her analysis of the last century of Italy's building practices Specifically she examines the post unification efforts to identify a distinctly Italian architectural language as well as the transformation of the urban environment in Italian cities undergoing industrialization in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries She challenges received interpretations of modern architecture and also looks at the subject of illegal building and current responses to ecological challenges In order to illuminate the full scope of the building industry in Italy her examples are drawn not only from the work of widely published architects in the largest cities but from throughout the peninsula including small towns and rural areas Insightful reading for those interested in Italian culture this book offers a new way of understanding the architectural history of modern Italy Lutyens, the Work of the English Architect Sir Edwin Lutyens (1869-1944) Sir Edwin Landseer Lutyens, Hayward Gallery, 1981 Building, 1912 Gli Ordini in Architettura. present undermine the connotations of permanence and immovability that cling to the Eternal City epithet Looking at the work of these artists the reader is invited to engage critically with the question what is Rome today or perhaps better what can Rome be

Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology Nancy Thomson de Grummond, 2015-05-11 With 1 125 entries and 170 contributors this is the first encyclopedia on the history of classical archaeology It focuses on Greek and Roman material but also covers the prehistoric and semi historical cultures of the Bronze Age Aegean the Etruscans and manifestations of Greek and Roman culture in Europe and Asia Minor The Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology includes entries on individuals whose activities influenced the knowledge of sites and monuments in their own time articles on famous monuments and sites as seen changed and interpreted through time and entries on major works of art excavated from the Renaissance to the present day as well as works known in the Middle Ages As the definitive source on a comparatively new discipline the history of archaeology these finely illustrated volumes will be useful to students and scholars in archaeology the classics history topography and art and architectural history

Brill's New Pauly Manfred Landfester, Hubert Cancik, Helmuth Schneider, Francis G. Gentry, 2006 Fifteen volumes Antiquity 1 15 are devoted to Greco Roman antiquity and cover more than two thousand years of history ranging from the second millennium BC to early medieval Europe Five volumes Classical Tradition I V are uniquely concerned with the long and influential aftermath of antiquity and the process of continuous reinterpretation and revaluation of the ancient heritage including the history of classical scholarship
