Lyricism And The Electric Poems:

Lyricism and the Electric Michael J. Laurence, 1996-02-01 The Poem Electric Seth Perlow, 2018-12-18 An enlightening examination of the relationship between poetry and the information technologies increasingly used to read and write it Many poets and their readers believe poetry helps us escape straightforward logical ways of thinking But what happens when poems confront the extraordinarily rational information technologies that are everywhere in the academy not to mention everyday life Examining a broad array of electronics including the radio telephone tape recorder Cold War era computers and modern day web browsers Seth Perlow considers how these technologies transform poems that we don't normally consider digital From fetishistic attachments to digital images of Emily Dickinson's manuscripts to Jackson Mac Low's appropriation of a huge book of random numbers originally used to design thermonuclear weapons these investigations take Perlow through a revealingly eclectic array of work offering both exciting new voices and reevaluations of poets we thought we knew With close readings of Gertrude Stein Frank O'Hara Amiri Baraka and many others The Poem Electric constructs a distinctive lineage of experimental writers from the 1860s to today Ultimately Perlow mounts an important investigation into how electronic media allows us to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism Posing a necessary challenge to the privilege of information in the digital humanities The Poem Electric develops new ways of reading poetry alongside and against the electronic equipment that is now ubiquitous in our world Gale Researcher Guide for: On the Borders between Lyric and Language Poetry: Alice Fulton Cynthia Hogue, Gale Researcher Guide for On the Borders between Lyric and Language Poetry Alice Fulton is selected from Gale's academic platform Gale Researcher These study guides provide peer-reviewed articles that allow students early success in finding scholarly materials and to gain the confidence and vocabulary needed to pursue deeper research The Poem Electric Seth Perlow, 2018 The Poem Electric argues that electronic media has enabled a lineage of experimental poets and their readers to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism Scholars of literature and technology affiliate computers with information and knowledge but these devices just as often leave us uncertain disoriented or frustrated This study attends to such disorderly mental states by reading poetry through the equipment of its production and reception Lyrical and Dramatic Poems Robert Browning, 1883 Poetry in the Clinic Alan Bleakley, Shane Neilson, 2021-12-30 This book explores previously unexamined overlaps between the poetic imagination and the medical mind It shows how appreciation of poetry can help us to engage with medicine in more intense ways based on de-familiarising old habits and bringing poetic forms of close reading to the clinic Bleakley and Neilson carry out an extensive critical examination of the well-established practices of narrative medicine to show that non-narrative lyrical poetry does different kind of work previously unexamined such as place eclipsing time They articulate a groundbreaking lyrical medicine that promotes aesthetic ethical and political practices as well as noting the often concealed metaphor-cache of biomedicine Demonstrating that ambiguity is a key resource in both poetry and medicine the authors anatomise poetic and medical practices as forms of extended and situated cognition grounded in close readings of singular contexts They illustrate structural correspondences between poetic diction and clinical thinking such as use of sound and metaphor This provocative examination of the meaningful overlap between poetic and clinical work is an essential read for researchers and practitioners interested in extending the reach of medical and health humanities narrative medicine medical education and English literature

Poetry of Materiality Dalila Colucci,2024-06-17 This monograph offers the first ever full length analysis of the most irreverent book of Italian Futurism L'anguria lirica printed in 1934 on tin metal sheets with design and poetic text by Tullio d'Albisola and illustrations by Bruno Munari This study which features the unabridged reproduction of the pages of the tin book accompanied by the first English translation of the poem aims to disentangle the complex relationship between text and image in this total artwork It shows how the endless series of material transformations at its core of woman into food of love into desecrating religion of man into machine of poetry into matter fostered a radical change in poetry writing thus breaking away from a stagnant lyrical past Free My Spritz : A Lyrical Poetry Collection | Exploring Life's Melodies of Love, Loss, and Realism Nageswaran (Nages), About the Book This is a book of lyrical poetry written over many years that experiments with different genres of poetical presentations on life love and relatable personal experiences The range is not limited to personal emotions but expands into seeking realism If Life and Love is made up of events and emotions it s made complicated with realism that makes these events and emotions ambiguous and relative Uncertainty and change is explored in many different ways that attempts to bring a sense of humour hope and warmth to the discerning reader A broad sample of feelings and sentiments are at display that reflects the author s view of our enigmatic life we have been dragged into against our wishes The events emotions and experience have been hemmed into poetical words that hopefully the reader shares a similar perspective and interprets it earnestly About the Author P N Nageswaran Nages read Natural Sciences the Classics and Business Administration He has expertise in government consumer and technology sectors but his primary interests lie in philosophy science and poetry He is an iconoclast and humanist who believes that human reason is vital in building a reasonable and compassionate society Nages currently lives in Sydney Australia Seamus Heaney J. Hall,A. Crowder,2007-04-25 This volume of twelve essays aims to comprehensively represent the abundance and variety of both Heaney s writing and scholarship on Heaney s writing Attention is given not only to his poetry but also to his translations and his prose The essays foreground his internationalism and the complementary international interest in his writing Energy Culture Jillian Porter,Maya Vinokour,2023-04-06 This volume investigates energy as a shaping force in Russian and Soviet literature visual culture and social practice Chronologically arranged chapters explain how nineteenth century ideas about energy informed realist novels and paintings how the poetics of energy defined pre Revolutionary and Stalinist utopianism and how fossil fuels electricity and nuclear fission generated distinct aesthetic features in Imperial Russian Soviet and post Soviet literature cinema and landscape The volume s concentration on Russia responds to a clear need to understand the role the country plays in social political and economic processes endangering life on Earth today The cultural dimension of Russia s efforts at energy dominance deserves increased scholarly attention not only in its own right but also because it directly affects global energy policy As the contributors to this volume argue the nationally inflected cultural myths that underlie human engagements with energy have been highly consequential in the Anthropocene Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry Alan Bleakley,Shane Neilson,2024-05-02 The Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry draws on an international selection of authors to ask what the cultures of poetry and medicine may gain from reciprocal critical engagement The volume celebrates interdisciplinary inquiry critique and creative expansion with an emphasis upon amplifying provocative and marginalized voices This carefully curated collection offers both historical context and future thinking from clinicians poets artists humanities scholars social scientists and bio scientists who collectively inquire into the nature of relationships between medicine and poetry Importantly these can be both productive and unproductive How for example do poet doctors reconcile the outwardly antithetical approaches of bio scientific medicine and poetry in their daily work where typically the former draws on technical language and associated thinking and the latter on metaphors How does non narrative lyrical poetry engage with narrative based medicine How do poets writing about medicine identify as patients Central to the volume is the critical investigation of the consequences of varieties of medical pedagogy for clinical practice Presenting a vision of how poetic thinking might form a medical ontology this thought provoking book affords an essential resource for scholars and practitioners from across medicine health and social care medical education the medical and health humanities and literary studies The Literature of the South Montrose Jonas Moses,1910
