Arabic-Andalusian Poetry and the Rise of the European Love-Lyric 'Abdulwāhid Lu'lu'a, 2013 The idea of this book goes back to the author's college days in the Department of Foreign Languages in Baghdad where he learned that English poetry developed under the influence of foreign types of poetry including classical medieval and Renaissance He began to wonder whether Arabic poetry had a role in that development especially in the love lyric its main aspect He researched during a sabbatical year in 1971-1972 in Cambridge UK and collected more material during summer vacations and conferences in Europe By 2010 he had enough material to write this book and a probable second edition The book covers European poetry in the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance especially the rise of the first poetry in non Latin and on non ecclesiastical subjects as seen in the love lyrics of the troubadours The 12th century troubadour love lyric shows a clear influence of Arabic Andalusian poetry especially the new and non European attitude to love and women This new poetry spread to Sicily Italy and was popularized by Dante and his disciples A further development reached England in the 16th century best represented by Shakespeare

Browning's Lyrics Eleanor Cook, 1974-12-15 Browning s lyrics are favourite choices for anthologies but are rarely examined closely This is the first full length study of the lyrics and includes detailed analyses of such well known poems as Love Among the Ruins Two in the Campagna A Serenade at the Villa A Toccata of Galuppi s By the Fireside and James Lee s Wife Eleanor Cook explores Browning s use of repeated images and themes in the lyrics examines these patterns in other poems and in his letters and analyses their growth and change in all his work She demonstrates how the lyrics may be linked with Browning s other work and shows something of his essential artistic unity His imaginary is found to be more consistent and complex than is usually assumed Students of Browning will find this work stimulating and instructive while lovers of Browning will read it with pure pleasure The reader will return to many of the poems with a richer sense of their continuing vitality In an earlier form this study was awarded the first A S P Woodhouse Prize by the University of Toronto
