explores philosophical theories which in the Renaissance provided an interpretation of nature of its laws and exceptions and lastly of man's capacity to dominate the cosmos by way of natural magic or by magical ceremonies. It does not concentrate on the Hermetic and Neoplatonic philosophers Ficino Pico Della Porta or on the relationship between magic and the scientific revolution but rather upon the interference of the ideas and practices of learned magicians with popular rites and also with witchcraft a most important question for social and religious history. New definitions of magic put forward by certain unorthodox and wandering scholastics Trithemius Agrippa Paracelsus Bruno will interest readers of Renaissance and Reformation texts and history
