Ager, 2022-04-27 Magic was a fundamental part of the Greco Roman world Curses erotic spells healing charms divination and other supernatural methods of trying to change the universe were everyday methods of coping with the difficulties of life in antiquity While ancient magic is most often studied through texts like surviving Greco Egyptian spellbooks and artifacts like lead curse tablets for a Greek or Roman magician a ritual was a rich sensual experience full of unusual tastes smells textures and sounds bright colors and sensations like fasting and sleeplessness Greco Roman magical rituals were particularly dominated by the sense of smell both fragrant smells and foul odors Ritual practitioners surrounded themselves with clouds of fragrant incense and perfume to create a sweet and inviting atmosphere for contact with the divine and to alter their own perceptions they also used odors as an instrumental weapon to attack enemies and command the gods Elsewhere odiferous herbs were used equally as medical cures and magical ingredients In literature scent and magic became intertwined as metaphors with fragrant spells representing the dangers of sensual perfumes and conversely smells acting as a visceral way of envisioning the mysterious action of magic The Scent of Ancient Magic explores the complex interconnection of scent and magic in the Greco Roman world between 800 BCE and CE 600 drawing on ancient literature and the modern study of the senses to examine the sensory depth and richness of ancient magic Author Britta K Ager looks at how ancient magicians used scents as part of their spells to put themselves in the right mindset for an encounter with a god or to attack their enemies through scent Ager also examines the magicians who appear in ancient fiction like Medea and Circe and the more metaphorical ways in which their spells are confused with perfumes and herbs This book brings together recent scholarship on ancient magic from classical studies and on scent from the interdisciplinary field of sensory studies in order to examine how practicing ancient magicians used scents for ritual purposes how scent and magic were conceptually related in ancient literature and culture and how the assumption that strong scents convey powerful effects of various sorts was also found in related areas like ancient medical practices and normative religious ritual

Essence and Alchemy Mandy Aftel, 2011-04-01 An artisan perfumer reveals a lost art and its mysterious sensual history For centuries people have taken what seems to be an instinctive pleasure in rubbing scents into their skin Perfume has helped them to pray to heal and to make love And as long as there has been perfume there have been perfumers or rather the priests shamans and apothecaries who were their predecessors Yet in many ways perfumery is a lost art its creative and sensual possibilities eclipsed by the synthetic ingredients of which contemporary perfumes are composed which have none of the subtlety and complexity of essences derived from natural substances nor their lush histories Essence and Alchemy resurrects the social and metaphysical legacy that is entwined with the evolution of perfumery from the dramas of the spice trade to the quests of the alchemists to whom today's perfumers owe a philosophical as well as a practical debt Mandy Aftel tracks scent through the boudoir and the bath and into the sanctums of worship offering insights on the relationship of scent to sex solitude and the soul Along the way she imparts instruction in the art of perfume compositions complete with recipes guiding the reader in a process of transformation of materials that continues to follow the alchemical dictum solve et coagula dissolve and combine
