Is There Life Outside The Box? Peter Davison,2016-10-16 His fans have spoken but despite their requests Peter

Davison has gone ahead and written his autobiography anyway. It wasn't the book they tried to stop; it was more like the book they didn't want him to start. An aspiring singer-songwriter once dubbed Working Class Answer to Bob Dylan by his mum, who once heard a Bob Dylan song Peter actually penned a hit for Dave Clark but soon swapped a life on the pub circuit to tread the boards. From colonial roots, his dad was Guyanese and his mother was born in India; the family settled in Surrey where Peter's academic achievements were unspectacular; he even managed to fail CSE Woodwork, eliciting a lament from his astonished teacher: 'All you have to do is recognise wood.' Despite this, Peter has secured his place in science-fiction history, becoming the fifth Doctor Who, although he nearly turned down the role. The Time Lord connection continued with the marriage of his daughter Georgia to Dr Who number ten, David Tennant. The artist, formerly known as Peter Malcolm Gordon Moffett, has starred in a number of television series, including Love for Lydia, A Very Peculiar Practice, At Home with the Braithwaites and The Last Detective, and became a national treasure for having his arm up a cow in his role as Tristan Farnon in All Creatures Great and Small. He was also in a Michael Winner movie. He made his first stage appearance with an amateur dramatic company, but The Byfleet Players loss was the West End's gain, as he now has a number of musicals to his name, including Legally Blonde, Chicago and Spamalot. Most recently, he starred in the box office record-breaking Gypsy, where he rubbed shoulders backstage with Dames Meryl Streep, Maggie Smith and Judi Dench, all asking him for directions to Imelda Staunton's dressing room. One thing is for sure: of all the British screen and stage actors of the last fifty years, Peter Davison is certainly one of them, and within these pages, intrepid readers will at last have the dubious honour of sharing in his life and times, as he despairs over whether there truly ever can be life outside the box.

Blood Lars Noren, 2003-09-18 A moving new take on the Oedipus myth by one of Scandinavia's best playwrights. Rosa and Eric's son was disappeared by the military junta in Chile in the 1970s. Now, as exiles in Paris, Rosa has just written a book about his loss while Eric works as a psychologist. After eleven fruitless trips to Chile in search of her son, Rosa is instinctively drawn to a young man, an ex-patient of her husband. Lars Noren is one of Scandinavia's leading playwrights and also artistic director of Riks Drama at Riksteatern, Stockholm. Blood premiered at Denmark's Betty Nansen Teatret, Copenhagen, in 1995. It received its UK premiere at the Royal Court Theatre in September 2003.

How We Were Before Jonathan Kravetz, 2024-05-20 When a savage home invasion results in the death of a town's most glamorous couple, the surviving friends and relatives of the victims must navigate the emotional aftermath. Exasperated high school Vice Principal Zachary Rivers makes a final effort to reach a troubled student. Town librarian Shelby Blythe, the eldest daughter of the murder victims, begins a correspondence with Billy Lawson, her parents' murderer. Evelyn Kavanaugh, a retired marketing manager and beloved family friend of the Blythes, embarks on a luxurious cruise as a prelude to suicide. Noam Russell, Billy Lawson's best friend, returns to Benfield to claim a share of his deceased father's estate. Samantha Blythe's maternal attempt to help an employee evokes a renewed desire to connect with her own family. The spaces between stories are haunted by echoes of the deceased couple's life, from the ignorant bliss of first impressions and great expectations to the tumultuous troubles of middle age and finally an undying hope for reconciliation

Dreams in American Television Narratives Cynthia Burkhead, 2013-05-23 Dreams in Television Narratives is the first comprehensive analysis of one of American television's most frequently utilized tropes the dream. From its beginning, television has been a storytelling medium. Whether delivered to a live audience or played out on a sound stage, narratives and those who write them have always been the crux of the television program. While film can claim a long history of scholarly inquiry into the connection between film and dreams, no comprehensive research exists on the subject of television dreams. Locating its primary function as narrative, the author uses examples from American sitcoms and dramatic programs, analyzing the narrative functions of dreams using as its frame Carl Jung's narrative stages of the dream: exposition, development, culmination, and conclusion. While television dreams are analyzed throughout, case studies of the television programs The Sopranos and Buffy the Vampire Slayer are included to show in detail how dreams function throughout a television series. Includes a compendium of over 1000 television episodes that include dreams, a valuable tool for any television scholar or enthusiast.
