Magpie Having Hunger Striking:

The Alternative Hero Tim Thornton, 2009-07-21 In this comic wildly energetic first novel Clive Beresford is a failed music fanzine writer in his early thirties who fears that his best days are behind him The turning point came when Lance Webster the lead singer of Thieving Magpies the band that Clive is obsessed with self destructed on stage right before his eyes Years later Clive has discovered that Lance has moved in down the block Desperate to meet him but more desperately nervous Clive concocts an ill advised alcohol fueled scheme to befriend Lance and land an earth shattering exclusive interview that will revive both their careers With the story shifting between Clive s life changing Magpies past and his frantic present Tim Thornton has written a warmhearted uproarious view of friendship hero worship and the full blast power of music

University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto, 2000 Knut Hamsun, Novelist Sverre Lyngstad, 2005 This is the first comprehensive study in English of the novels of Knut Hamsun Nobel Laureate in literature for 1920 from the radically innovative Hunger 1890 to The Ring Is Closed 1936 The texts are discussed in depth with analysis of recurrent themes narrative modes and generic idiosyncrasies and are evaluated in terms of originality and artistic integrity Reviews and other critical opinions are cited to broaden the evaluative spectrum and throw light on the novels receptions Although the book is scholarly its blend of commentary and summarizing description of settings characters and story lines will also interest the general reader

A Force More Powerful Peter Ackerman, Jack DuVall, 2015-12-01 This nationally acclaimed book shows how popular movements used nonviolent action to overthrow dictators obstruct military invaders and secure human rights in country after country over the past century Peter Ackerman and Jack DuVall depict how nonviolent sanctions such as protests strikes and boycotts separate brutal regimes from their means of control They tell inside stories how Danes outmaneuvered the Nazis Solidarity defeated Polish communism and mass action removed a Chilean dictator and also how nonviolent power is changing the world today from Burma to Serbia

Cuckoos, Cowbirds and Other Cheats Nick Davies, 2010-09-30 This fascinating study describes the natural histories of these brood parasites and examines many of the exciting questions they raise about the evolution of cheating and the arms race between parasites and their prey Brood parasites fill their armoury with adaptations including exquisite egg mimicry rapid laying ejection of host eggs murder of host young chick mimicry and manipulative begging behaviour ploys shown by recent research to have evolved in response to host defence behaviour or through competition among the parasites themselves While many host species appear defenceless accepting parasite eggs quite unlike their own many are more discriminating against odd looking eggs and some have evolved the ability to discriminate against odd looking chicks as well How is this arms race conducted Will defenceless hosts develop defences in time or are there constraints which limit the evolution and perfection of host defences And why are so few species obliged only to lay eggs in host nests Have host defences limited the success of brood parasitism or is it in fact much more common than we suspect but occurring mainly when birds parasitize the nest of their own kind All of these puzzles are examined in descriptions of the natural history of each of the groups of parasites in turn Here is a book with wide appeal both to amateur naturalists fascinated by this most singular and macabre of behaviours and by ornithologists and ecologists interested in the evolution of ecology and behaviour The story takes us from the classic field work by pioneer ornithologists such as Edgar Chance Stuart Baker Herbert Friedmann and others through to the experimental field work and molecular techniques of today s leading scientists We visit brood parasites in Europe Asia Japan Africa Australasia and North and South America to look at some of the world s most interesting birds and some of biology s most interesting questions many of which still beg answers from ornithologists in the future Brilliant illustrations by David Quinn illuminate the species discussed showing many behaviours never before illustrated and conveying the thrill of watching these astonishing birds in the wild American Book Publishing Record ,2001 Canadian Books in Print ,2001 The Irish Hunger Strike Tom Collins,1987 Conversations with Colum McCann Earl G. Ingersoll,Mary C. Ingersoll,2017-07-13 Conversations with Colum McCann brings together eighteen interviews with a world renowned fiction writer Ranging from his 1994 literary debut Fishing the Sloe Black River to a previously unpublished interview conducted in 2016 these interviews represent the development as well as the continuation of McCann s interests The number and length of the later conversations attest to his star power Let the Great World Spin earned him the National Book Award and promises to become a major motion picture His most recent novel TransAtlantic has awed readers with its dynamic yoking of the 1845-46 visit of Frederick Douglass to Ireland the 1919 first nonstop transatlantic flight of Alcock and Brown and Senator George Mitchell s 1998 efforts to achieve a peace accord in Northern Ireland An extensive interview by scholar Cécile Maudet is included here as is an interview by John Cusatis who wrote Understanding Colum McCann the first extensive critical analysis of McCann s work An author who actually enjoys talking about his work McCann b 1965 offers insights into his method of writing what he hopes to achieve as well as the challenge of writing each novel to go beyond his accomplishments in the novel before Readers will note how many of his responses include stories in which he himself is the object of the humor and how often his remarks reveal insights into his character as a man who sees the grittiness of the urban landscape but never loses faith in the strength of ordinary people and their capacity to prevail Frances Molloy Jennifer M. Jeffers,2025-09-30 Frances Molloy The Portrait of a Postwar Northern Irish Woman Writer is the story of Ann McGill Brady the woman who wrote herself into the history of the Irish novel as Frances Molloy It is also the story of a poor uneducated Catholic female in Northern Ireland in the 1960s she had few choices and they were the traditional ones marriage or work a dead end job For young Molloy marriage was out the question because she did not want to replicate her own mother s life Molloy believed that God did have a higher plan for her life and she believed that she would better serve the world as a nun than as a seamstress in a pajama factory Frances Molloy gives a voice to the poverty prejudice and violence the Catholic community endured in Northern Ireland under the Stormont Government in the post World War II era While identity is always at the forefront of society in Northern Ireland there is little record of the Catholic female bound by tradition and poverty in the North A group without a history is a group without an identity no one has yet written a history of the poor Northern Irish Catholic female in the latter half of the twentieth century Frances Molloy was a Catholic woman in a sectarian state and her story includes discrimination segregation and unjust incarceration in Northern Ireland in the latter half of the twentieth century Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1999 Things They Lost Okwiri Oduor,2022-04-12 This astonishing devastating debut novel riven through with mystery and magic tells the story of a lonely girl living in a small African town and her struggle to free herself from her mercurial charming mother Ayosa is a wandering spirit joyous exuberant filled to the brim with longing Her only companions in her grandmother s crumbling house are as lonely as Ayosa herself the ghostly Fatumas whose eyes are the size of bay windows who teach her to dance and wail at the death news the Jolly Annas cruel birds who cover their solitude with spiteful laughter the milkman who never greets Ayosa and whose milk tastes of mud and Sindano the kind owner of a caf no one ever visits Unexpectedly miraculously one day Ayosa finds a friend Yet she is always fixed on her beautiful mama Nabumbo Promise a mysterious and aloof photographer she comes and goes as she pleases with no apology or warning Set at the intersection of the spirit world and the human one Things They Lost is a stunning and unforgettable novel that unfurls the dizzying dualities of love at its most intoxicating and all encompassing Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Fascinating Rhythms John Drakakis,2022-12-30 As one of the most adventurous literary and cultural critics of his generation Terence Hawkes contributions to the study of Shakespeare and the development of literary and cultural theory have been immense His work has been instrumental in effecting a radical shift in the study of Shakespeare and of literary studies This collection of essays by some of his closest colleagues friends peers and mentees begins with an introduction by John Drakakis outlining the profound impact that Hawkes work had on various areas of literary studies It also includes a poem by Christopher Norris who worked with Hawkes for many years at the University of Cardiff as well as work on translation social class the historicist and presentist exploration of Shakespearean texts and teaching Shakespeare in prisons The volume features essays by former students who have gone on to establish reputations in areas beyond the study of literature and who have contributed ground breaking volumes to the pioneering New Accents series It concludes with Malcolm Evans innovative account of the migration of semiotics into the area of business This book is a vibrant and informative read for anyone interested in Hawkes unique blend of literary and cultural theory criticism Shakespeare studies and presentism A Dictionary of British Birds George MONTAGU (F.L.S.),1866 The Ladies' Magazine of Gardening Mrs. Loudon (Jane),1842 The Journal of American Folklore ,1893 Journal of American Folk-lore ,1893 Complete Novelettes Honoré de Balzac,1926
