Magruder's American Government:

Magruder's American Government William A. McClenaghan, 1986 Magruder's American Government, 1976

American Girls and Global Responsibility Jennifer Helgren, 2017-04-17 American Girls and Global Responsibility brings together insights from Cold War culture studies girls studies and the history of gender and militarization to shed new light on how age and gender work together to form categories of citizenship Jennifer Helgren argues that a new internationalist girl citizenship took root in the country in the years following World War II in youth organizations such as Camp Fire Girls Girl Scouts YWCA Y Teens schools and even magazines like Seventeen She shows the particular ways that girls identities and roles were configured and reveals the links between internationalist youth culture mainstream U S educational goals and the U S government in creating and marketing that internationalist girl thus shaping the girls sense of responsibilities as citizens

The American Military Mission to China, 1941-1942 William G. Grieve, 2014-01-17 This is an overview of America's first effort in military aid to a foreign sovereign nation at a time when Europe was engaged in open warfare Asia was facing a series of military confrontations and most of the world thought global conflagration was inevitable The work offers insight into the impact of war in Burma a backwater of World War II and examines events that result when great powers go to great lengths to further their own goals The work also examines disagreements among China the United Kingdom the United States and Japan and shows the evolution of aid provision to another country and changing expectations as new information arises
