Maid In Taiwan:

Maid in Taiwan Barbara North,1984 The Minor Arts of Daily Life David K. Jordan,Andrew D. Morris,Marc L. Moskowitz,2004-03-31 The Minor Arts of Daily Life is an account of the many ways in which contemporary Taiwanese approach their ordinary existence and activities It presents a wide range of aspects of day to day living to convey something of the world as experienced by the Taiwanese themselves Contributors Alice Chu Chien Juh Gu David K Jordan Paul R Katz Chin Ju Lin Andrew D Morris Marc L Moskowitz Scott Simon Shuenn Der Yu Working Women and State Policies in Taiwan Fen-ling Chen,2000-09-29 This book concentrates on exploring the changing relationship between the state and working women in Taiwan by incorporating social economic political and ideological factors into the historical analysis It traces the history of state policies on women s employment the impact of family and gender ideology on women s employment women s roles in capitalist development and the influence of women s movements on policy making in Taiwan Finally it analyses the Taiwanese welfare regime in a gender critical way Factory Women in Taiwan Lydia Kung,1994 An important study of Taiwan s first generation of working women documenting their and their families views of their employment and the effects that wage earning has on the status and lives of these women I Have it "Maid" in Taiwan: Runaway Filipino Domestic Household Workers and Taiwan's Foreign Labor Policy 王芳, Alex Wolfgram,2012

Multinational Maids Anju Mary Paul,2017-09-28 Explores how global markets middlemen and destination aspirations drive the stepwise migrations of Filipino and Indonesian migrant domestic workers Custom Maid Knowledge for New World Disorder Peter G. de Krassel,2008-05-19 Political commentator Peter de Krassel contends that globalization was a 19th Century model of economics that was based on scarcity and actually died in the last decade of the 20th Century when the whole World was in surplus In this fast paced geopolitical journey across America China the Middle East and beyond de Krassel looks at the history of the major empires of the last 150 years including that of the USA their achievements shortcomings and religious failures that all lead to globalization Learning from the past he posits interlocalism as the successor to globalization This latest book in his Custom Maid series offers a completely revolutionary new approach to contemplating our future and is must read material for anyone with an interest in understanding the political and economic situation now and wanting to see how the future might look Global Cinderellas Pei-Chia Lan,2006-04-03 A study of migrant Philipina domestic workers in Taiwan Framing the Bride Bonnie Adrian,2003-12-08 With a wedding impending the Taiwanese bride to be turns to bridal photographers makeup artists and hair stylists to transform her image beyond recognition They give her fairer skin eyes like a Western baby doll and gowns inspired by sources from Victorian England to MTV An absorbing consideration of contemporary bridal practices in Taiwan Framing the Bride shows how the lavish photographs represent more than mere conspicuous consumption They are artifacts infused with cultural meaning and emotional significance products of the gender and generation based conflicts in Taiwan s hybrid system of modern matrimony From the bridal photographs the book opens out into broader issues such as courtship marriage kinship globalization and the meaning of the West and Western cultural images of beauty Bonnie Adrian argues that in compiling enormous bridal albums full of photographs of brides and grooms in varieties of finery posed in different places and exuding romance Taiwanese brides engage in a new rite of passage one that challenges the terms of marriage set out in conventional wedding rites In Framing the Bride we see how this practice is also a creative response to U S domination of transnational visual imagery how bridal photographers and their subjects take the project of globalization into their own hands defining its terms for their lives even as they expose the emptiness of its images

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable,2017-12-15 Middle class Chinese women in the global city of Hong Kong have entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers over the past three decades and the demand for foreign domestic workers has soared A decade ago some foretold the decline in foreign workers and the influx of mainland workers But today over 120 000 women from the Philippines over 90 000 from Indonesia and thousands more from other parts of South and Southeast Asia serve as maids on two year contracts in Hong Kong sending much needed remittances to their families abroad Nicole Constable tells their story by updating Maid to Order in Hong Kong with a focus on the major changes that have taken place since Hong Kong s reunification with mainland China in 1997 the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s and the outbreak of SARS in 2002 2003 Interweaving her analysis with the women s individual stories she shows how power is expressed in the day to day lives of Filipina domestic workers and more recent Indonesian arrivals

Identity Politics and Popular Culture in Taiwan Hsin-I Sydney Yueh,2016-12-07 In the past two decades a uniform representation of cutified femininity prevails in the Taiwanese media evidenced by the shift of Taiwan s popular cultural taste from a Chinese centered tradition to a mixed absorption from neighboring cultural capitals in the global market This book argues that the native term sajiao is the key to understand the phenomenon Originally referring to a set of persuasive tactics through imitating a spoiled child s gestures and ways of speaking to get attention or material goods sajiao is commonly understood to be women s weapon to manipulate men in the Mandarin speaking communities By re interpreting sajiao as a feminine tactic or the tactic of the weak the book aims to propose a feminine framework in exploring identity politics in the following three aspects the rising obsession with the immature female image in Taiwan s popular culture the adoption of the feminine communication style in native speakers everyday language and interactions and the competing discourses between dominant subordinate central peripheral global local and Chinese Taiwanese in shaping the identity politics in current Taiwanese society The micro analysis of everyday language politics leads the reader to examine layers of discourse about gender identity and communication and finally to inquire how to situate or categorize Taiwan in area studies The feminine framework is a useful theoretical tool that not only deconstructs everyday communication practice but also provides a bottom up alternative angle in analyzing Taiwan's role in political economic and cultural flows in East Asia. The massive imports of popular cultural products in the late 80s mainly from Japan fermented the kawaii Japanese cute type of femininity in regulating everyday communication and the perception of gender roles in Taiwan. The popularity of the baby like female image is concurrent with the simmering debate on Taiwanese identity. Taiwan offers a unique perspective for observing identity politics because it still holds an undetermined status in the international community. The collective uncertainty about the island's future and the diminishing voice in the international society become the backdrop for the growth of defining interpreting and appropriating sajjiao elements in the popular culture. This book offers an in depth examination of the interplay among local historical contexts cross border capitalist exchange and everyday communication that shapes the dialogism of Taiwanese identity.

Queer Politics and Sexual Modernity in Taiwan Hans Tao-Ming Huang, 2011-08-01 This book analyses the critical reception of Pai Hsien yung's Crystal Boys one of Taiwan's first recognized gay novels and one which has played an important role in redefining sexual modernity and linking this to ongoing cultural dialogues on state building. It examines the deployment of sexuality over the past five decades in Taiwan by paying particular attention to male homosexuality and prostitution. In addition to literary and film material the study engages a number of relevant legal cases and media reports. Through Hans Huang's primary research and historical investigations the book not only illuminates the construction of gendered sexual identities in Taiwanese culture but also in a reflexive fashion critiques the culture that produces them. Hans Tao Ming Huang is assistant professor in the English Department National Central University Taiwan.

Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross-Cultural Context Szu-Wen Kung, 2021-03-01 Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross Cultural Context explores the social cultural and linguistic implications of translation of Taiwan literature for transnational cultural exchange. It demonstrates principally how asymmetrical cultural relationships mediation processes and ideologies of the translation players constitute the culture specific translation activity as a highly contested site where translation can reconstruct and rewrite the literature and the culture it represents. Four main theoretical themes are explored in relation to such translation activity: sociological studies cultural and rewriting studies English as a lingua franca and social and performative linguistics. These offer insightful perspectives on the translation as an interpretive encounter between not only two languages two cultural systems and assumptions taking place but also among various translation mediators. This book will be useful to scholars and students working on translation and cultural studies China Taiwan literature studies and literature studies in cross cultural contexts.

Custom Maid War for New World Disorder Peter De Krassel, 2005-08 Following on from Custom Maid Spin Peter de Krassel turns his unique international perspective and controversial pen onto the business of war In the course of reviewing the conflicts of the 20th century and today he argues that to end or at least minimize the cycle of 21st century violence humanity is inflicting on itself America must lead the peaceful charge for change To do so Americans need to learn and understand the reasons for war and how future wars can be stopped War is no the answer to hunger oil territorial expansion ethnic cleansing or the survival of America On the contrary it is its escalating destructive downfall He points to China's re emergence as a global power as America's greatest challenge and one that must be resolved peacefully America must keep in mind the warning by the Greek historian Thucydides more than 2 000 years ago that belief in the inevitability of conflict can become one of its main causes In other words America cannot afford to become a victim of its own political spin Peter de Krassel's treatment on war reads like a journalistic account of Heart of Darkness We are like Marlow journeying down a political river with each chapter forcing us to shed another layer of ignorance in order to acquire new insight But this work also brings with it a sense of hope for we the people are capable of molding our own destiny as long as we have the wisdom and courage to change things

Brandon Royal Author The Little Red Writing Book An anecdotal and passionate polemic on modern history An unabashed racy weltanschauung that would not sit well on a White House shelf

Stuart Wolfendale Columnist The Standard Peter de Krassel was born in England of a Russian father and Palestinian Jewish mother He has lived all over the world including Switzerland Israel and the United States Currently he lives in Hong Kong He has a unique perspective on world events both from the influences of the places he's lived in and the people he has met as well as from his varied career in the law and the media
