Beatrix Farrand Judith B. Tankard, 2022-03-29 The only monograph to chronicle the life and work of one of the most important figures in American landscape architecture Beatrix Farrand the only female founder of the American Society of Landscape Architects is one of the most important landscape architects of the early twentieth century Today the scope of her work and her influence on the profession are widely acknowledged and her gardens are being studied restored and opened to the public A long awaited updated edition of the 2009 definitive monograph Beatrix Farrand Garden Artist Landscape Architect chronicles the life and work of one of the most important figures in American landscape architecture Born into a prominent New York family she was Edith Wharton s niece Farrand designed lavish gardens for the leaders of society including the Harknesses the Rockefellers and the Blisses Ultimately her portfolio extended to college and university campuses including Princeton Yale and the University of Chicago and public gardens the Santa Barbara Botanic Garden and the Rose Garden at the New York Botanical Garden among them Her best known design is the landscape at Dumbarton Oaks in Washington D C originally a private residence with extensive grounds and now a research center for Harvard University surrounded by a naturalistic park restored and maintained by the National Park Service Deeply influenced by the English garden designer Gertrude Jekyll Farrand was known for broad expanses of lawn with deep swaths of borders planted in a subtle palette of foliage and flowers In her public work she adapted this design strategy to create paths and plantings that define the character of the space and the circulation through it Heavily illustrated with archival images and photographs of her gardens at their peak many taken especially for this book Beatrix Farrand Garden Artist Landscape Architect also displays beautiful watercolor wash renderings of her designs now preserved at College of Environmental Design of the University of California at Berkeley The new edition includes updated images that reflect the current state of gardens including the Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden at the New York Botanical Garden the International House Courtyard at the University of Chicago Garland Farm Farrand's last home and garden which has recently been restored Dumbarton Oaks Dumbarton Oaks Park which was not included in the first edition among others The book concludes with a comprehensive list of Farrand's commissions and the gardens open to the public providing direction for further study and exploration It also features a new preface outlining the milestones in research since the first edition's publication updated details about ownership and renovations of many properties and a revised bibliography including articles and books published over the past ten years Published to coincide with the 150th anniversary of Farrand's birth and written by landscape historian and preservation consultant Judith B Tankard Beatrix Farrand Garden Artist Landscape Architect takes readers on a tour of Farrand's finest works celebrating her influence on succeeding generations of women landscape architects Summer by the Seaside Bryant Franklin Tolles, 2008 A sweeping richly illustrated architectural study of the large historic New England coastal resort hotels Architecture and Town Planning in Colonial North America James D. Kornwolf, Georgiana Wallis Kornwolf, 2002 Incorporating more than 3 000 illustrations Kornwolf's work conveys the full range of the colonial encounter with the continent's geography from the high forms of architecture through formal landscape design and town planning From these pages emerge the fine arts of environmental design an understanding of the political and economic events that helped to determine settlement in North America an appreciation of the various architectural and landscape forms that the settlers created and an awareness of the diversity of the continent's geography and its peoples Considering the humblest buildings along with the mansions of the wealthy and powerful public buildings forts and churches Kornwolf captures the true dynamism and diversity of colonial communities their rivalries and frictions their outlooks and attitudes as they extended their hold on the land Historic and Archeological Preservation United States. Federal Highway Administration. Office of Environmental Policy, 1978 Maine Forms of American Architecture Maine State American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, 1976 The Steeples of Old New England Kirk Shivell, 1998 The church steeple was one of the first art forms to be cultivated in this new land becoming one of early America's principal artistic achievements The backstory of this distinctive art form is a fascinating one The Yankees a homogenous group emerged in New England in the early 18th century Their artistic abilities in design are also prevalent in silverwork and furniture craft however it was in their steeples that they excelled and in which they were best expressed In The Steeples of Old New England Kirk Shivell traces both the history of these steeples and the Yankee society that built them including many examples and anecdotes covering the period between 1701 through 1860 This book provides a wealth of information students of history architecture and religion or anyone else interested in reading about or visiting these historical landmarks These magnificent edifices rose up everywhere on the newly settled New England landscape the earliest built only a half century before the American Revolution and the last built right before the Civil War There are over 115 exquisitely beautiful illustrations some full color and others taken from documents of the period A comprehensive directory and bibliography are also included The Architecture of Bowdoin College Patricia McGraw Anderson,1988 Paradise Valley, Nevada Howard W. Marshall,1995 Stonemasons from the Alpine valleys of northwestern Italy shaped the architectural face of Paradise Valley in northern Nevada in the 1860s and 1870s Drawing on their own distinctive skills they constructed the constellation of granite and sandstone buildings that are the region s most visible landmarks Marshall s analysis of this architectural legacy illustrated with 229 photographs and 70 line drawings is not only a valuable resource for scholars in vernacular architecture folklore and cultural geography but also a verbal and visual treat for all who love the American West Big House, Little House, Back House, Barn Thomas C. Hubka,2022-12-07 A classic work on farm buildings made by nineteenth century New Englanders refreshed with a new introduction Big House Little House Back House Barn portrays the four essential components of the stately and beautiful connected farm buildings made by nineteenth century New Englanders that stand today as a living expression of a rural culture offering insights into the people who made them and their agricultural way of life A visual delight as well as an engaging tribute to our nineteenth century forebears this book first published nearly forty years ago has become one of the standard works on regional farmsteads in America This new edition features a new preface by the author Down East ,2009-08 The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1977 The American Architect ,1925 To Live in the New World Judith K. Major,1997 While most historians and critics have focused on the treatise Judith Major gives equal emphasis to Downing s spirited monthly editorials in the Horticulturist In the journal Downing spoke American and encouraged his countrymen and women to practice economy to use America s rich natural resources wisely yet artfully to be content with a little cottage and a few fine native trees Our Days Are Like Full Years Harriet Pattison,2020-10-27 An intimate glimpse into the professional and romantic relationship between Harriet Pattison and the renowned architect Louis Kahn On a winter day in 1953 a mysterious man in a sheepskin coat stood out to Harriet Pattison then a theater student at Yale She would later learn he was the architect Louis Kahn 1901 1974 This chance encounter served as preamble to a fifteen year romance with Pattison becoming the architect s closest confidante his intellectual partner and the mother of his only son Here for the first time Pattison recounts their passionate and sometimes searing relationship Married and twenty seven years her senior Kahn sent her scores of letters many from far flung places until his untimely death This book weaves together Pattison s own story with letters postcards telegrams drawings and photographs that reveal Kahn's inner life and his architectural thought process including new insight into some of his greatest works both built and unbuilt What emerges is at once a poignant love story and a vivid portrait of a young woman striving to raise a family while forging an artistic path in the shadow of her famous partner
