Mainstreaming Equality In The European Union:

Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union Teresa L. Rees, 1998 Focuses on attempts made at the European Union level to incorporate equal opportunities into training policies as a means to end gender segregation in the labour force In particular discusses the LEONARDO DA VINCI training programme Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union Teresa Rees, 2006-06-19 Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union provides a critical overview and evaluation of the potential role of the EU in perpetuating or breaking down gender segregation in the EU labour force Teresa Rees draws upon feminist theoretical frameworks in assessing Equal Opportunities policies and the role of training in the labour market The same economic imperatives which put women's training on the agenda have heightened interest in designing training which attracts women into mainstream provision Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union addresses the urgent need for academics education and training providers as well as policy makers to be aware of current thinking at EU level on training policy Mainstreaming Equality in European Union Law and Policymaking Jo Shaw, European Network against Racism, 2004 EQUAL Guide on Gender Mainstreaming, 2005 Contains briefing notes no 1 18 Monitoring Fundamental Rights in the EU Philip Alston, Olivier De Schutter, 2005-02 Coherent laws enforced by a central authority are part of the reason why human rights protection works at the national level in Europe But when it comes to the EU these dimensions are lacking The present system for protecting fundamental rights emerged on an ad hoc basis with measures being improvised to respond to particular problems In the next couple of years however this situation is likely to change very significantly The proposed European Constitution incorporates the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and a specialized EU Fundamental Rights Agency is likely to be established As a result the situation of the EU will more closely resemble that of its Member States Fundamental rights will occupy a central role and coherent and systematic arrangements will be in place to protect rights using both judicial and non judicial means The Fundamental Rights Agency in particular has immense potential to ensure effective monitoring of fundamental rights in the EU and to ensure a unified strategy for their promotion in EU law and policy This volume is the first to critically examine the proposals put forward by the European Commission in October 2004 on the creation of the EU Fundamental Rights Agency Leading scholars in the field of European and international human rights law analyse the potential significance of this innovative Agency and seek to locate it in relation to various other human rights mechanisms both in the EU's constitutional structure and within Member States They review the tasks which the Agency could be called upon to perform and make proposals as to how it can function most effectively The relationship of EU law to the international law of human rights emerging from both the United Nations and the Council of Europe is examined The authors also address the challenge of ensuring improved coherence between EU law and the other human rights obligations undertaken by the Member States Taken together these contributions address urgent questions facing the EU at a time when the central unifying function of fundamental rights has been recognized but the way forward remains largely uncharted Gender Mainstreaming and Gender Equality in Europe Vera Lomazzi, Isabella Crespi, 2019-10-18 With gender equality so prominent in public debate this timely book reviews the impacts of gender mainstreaming on political social and cultural issues around Europe It explores the origins and evolution of mainstreaming the theory's contribution to gender equality legislation so far and its potential to drive change in the future Drawing on extensive data the book compares and contrasts progress in various European countries taking into account the multidimensionality of gender equality Finally the book considers the limits of gender mainstreaming amid economic migration and political challenges This important book is a welcome contribution to discussions about gender equality in European societies looking at the interplay of policies culture and public opinion Research Handbook on European Anti-Discrimination Law Colm O'Cinneide, Julie Ringelheim, Iyiola Solanke, 2025-10-07 This Research Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of European anti discrimination law outlining developments in EU ECHR international and national law It engages in critical assessment of both legal doctrine and social impact analysing emerging trends in anti discrimination legislation It also explores the effectiveness of civil enforcement measures as well as exploring case law relating to environmental discrimination and economic inequalities Inequality and the European Union Chloé Brière, Amandine Crespy, 2024-12-05 This book constitutes a timely and unique interdisciplinary endeavour in law and political science to investigate whether the European Union is living up to its ambitions to tackle inequalities between across and within European societies and states By gathering cutting edge research by specialists of inequalities across Europe the volume pushes conceptual frontiers as to the EU's role in fighting or fuelling inequalities pertaining to antidiscrimination mobility and migrations and the European welfare model It provides solid empirical insights on the EU policy tools and legal instruments and assesses whether they are effective This book will be of key interests to scholars students and practitioners in EU policymaking EU law and more broadly in EU studies comparative politics and regionalism Chapter 12 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Open Access funded by EUQualis Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence Equity in the Workplace Heidi Gottfried, Laura Reese, 2008-01-01 This edited collection assembles cutting edge comparative policy research on contemporary policies relevant to gender Contributors analyze gender related employment policies including parental leave maternity programs sexual harassment work life balance and gender mainstreaming Equity in the Workplace thoroughly illustrates how the juxtaposition of a variety of research methodologies focused on a common theme can lead to a richer multilayered understanding of a complex issue The EU and the Proliferation of Integration Principles under the Lisbon Treaty Francesca Ippolito, Maria Eugenia Bartoloni, Massimo Condinanzi, 2018-09-27 The entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty has brought about a proliferation of integration principles In addition to the environmental integration principle which has been part of the EU legal framework for some time the Lisbon Treaty introduced the principles of gender equality integration social policy integration non discrimination integration consumer protection integration as well as animal welfare integration Furthermore a general principle of integration policy objectives is contained in Article 7 TFEU requiring that the Union must ensure consistency between its policies and activities taking all relevant policy requirements listed under the TFEU into account in the adoption of any legislative measure These integration principles must be pursued or at least taken into account when decisions are being taken in almost any area of EU policy making However there is considerable uncertainty regarding the normative implications of the various integration principles as well as their legal value and practical relevance for EU policymaking This book addresses the implications of the proliferation of sectorial integration principles and the introduction of a universal requirement of policy consistency in terms of the division of competences between the Union and the Member States as well as the scope for judicial review of the EU legislative process In particular it explores whether the introduction of various integration principles has led to an extension of Union competences and whether it has limited the scope for judicial review by extending the discretionary power of the Union institutions
