War II, Korea and Panamanian Invasion Bruce Gardner, Barbara Stahura, 1997-06-15 Reinventing World War II

Barbara A. Biesecker, 2024-08-09 By the 1970s World War II had all but disappeared from US popular culture. But beginning in the mid eighties it reemerged with a vengeance and for nearly fifteen years World War II was ubiquitous across US popular and political culture. In this book Barbara A. Biesecker explores the prestige and rhetorical power of the Good War, revealing how it was retooled to restore a new kind of social equilibrium to the United States. Biesecker analyzes prominent cases of World War II remembrance including the canceled exhibit of the Enola Gay at the National Air and Space Museum in 1995 and its replacement Steven Spielberg's Saving Private Ryan, Tom Brokaw's The Greatest Generation and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Situating these popular memory texts within the culture and history wars of the day and the broader framework of US political and economic life, Biesecker argues that with the notable exception of the Holocaust Memorial Museum, these reinventions of the Good War worked rhetorically to restore a strong sense of national identity and belonging fitted to the neoliberal nationalist agenda. By tracing the links between the popular retooling of World War II and the national state fantasy and by putting the lessons of Foucault, Derrida, Lacan and their successors to work for a rhetorical political analysis of the present, Biesecker not only explains the emergence and strength of the MAGA movement but also calls attention to the power of public memory to shape and contest ethnonational identity today. This book will interest rhetoricians and historians as well as students and scholars in the fields of US politics and communication studies. The Legacy of the Purple Heart, 2001 War Monuments, Museums and Library Collections of 20th Century Conflicts

Steve Rajtar, Frances Elizabeth Franks, 2015-07-11 This unique state by state directory covers monuments, memorials, museums, markers, statues and library collections that relate to the veterans, weapons, vehicles, airplanes, victims or any other aspect of war in which the United States participated. While a site may have been created before 1900 such as a fort, there must be some operational or historical tie to a twentieth century conflict to be included here. General collections such as museums of aviation are included if they house materials related to a twentieth century conflict. The coverage is so thorough that statues honoring veterans of the Civil War appear if veterans of later wars are on their rosters of honorees. Another example of the comprehensiveness of this compilation is in the inclusion of memorials to victims of war such as the Holocaust Museum in Houston, Texas. For each site the following information is given: street address, phone number, website and email address if applicable, days and hours of operation, admission fees, other necessary information and a brief description of the site. Traveling Around the World with Mike and Barbara Bivona, Mike Bivona, 2013-10 Mike and Barbara Bivona have danced their way around the world embracing the colorful rhythms of each country and culture in their travels.
