Memory Of Whiteness Uk:

Towards a Critical White Theology Al Barrett, Jill Marsh, Anthony G. Reddie, 2025-03-11 Towards a Critical White Theology is a landmark text bringing together contributions from scholars and practitioners Black Postcolonial theologians and critical White theologians from the UK the USA and New Zealand exposing the dynamics of whiteness in the history and the present of the Christian church and setting an agenda for the future especially for White racialised theologians committed to dismantling whiteness With sections addressing whiteness in relation to the Bible church history education and mission congregational life the contemporary USA and public theology this book tracks the emerging of a new theological discipline of Critical White Theology that consciously follows in the wake of the long established discipline of Black liberation theology It acknowledges that so much that has passed for theology over the centuries has been White Theology without naming it as such and reaches out to its Black and Postcolonial theologian siblings in repentant receptive humility and hopeful solidarity for a future liberated from the toxic sin of racism The chapters in this book were originally published in Practical Theology and Black Theology

Rhetoric, Public Memory, and Campus History Rhondda Thomas, 2022-05-13 This essay collection explores the inextricable link between rhetoric public memory and campus history projects Since the early twentieth century after Brown University appointed its Steering Committee on Slavery and Justice higher education institutions around the globe have launched initiatives to research document and share their connections to slavery and its legacies Many of these explorations have led to investigations about the rhetorical nature of campus history projects including the names of buildings the installation of monuments the publication of books the production of resolutions and the hosting of public programs The essays in this collection examine the rhetorical nature of a range of initiatives including the creation of land acknowledgement statements the memorialization of universities historic financial ties to the slave trade the installation and removal of monuments or historical markers the development of curriculum for campus history projects The book takes a chronological approach beginning with the examination of a project at a university that was built on the site of a historic Native American town moving through a series of essays about initiatives that grew out of universities associations with slavery and its legacies in the United Kingdom and America and ending with a critique of several pedagogical approaches in campus history courses designed for undergraduate students

Eurowhiteness Hans Kundnani, 2023-08-18 The European Union is often seen as a cosmopolitan rejection of violent nationalism Yet the idea of Europe has a long problematic history in medieval times it was synonymous with Christianity in the modern era it became associated with whiteness Eurowhiteness exposes the EU as a vehicle for imperial amnesia Narratives of European integration emphasise the lessons of war and the Holocaust but not the lessons of colonial history The EU is about power as much as peace and civic ideas of Europe are being displaced by ethnic and cultural ones Since the 2015 refugee crisis whiteness has become even more central to European identity a troubling new turn in Europe's long civilisational project It is time to confront the relationship between ideas of Europe and ideas of race

The Mind in Therapy Katherine D. Arbuthnott, Dennis W. Arbuthnott, Valerie A. Thompson, 2014-02-04 Human mental capacities and processes are the raw materials with which psychotherapists work Thus what cognitive scientists have discovered in recent decades is potentially tremendous value for psychotherapeutic practice But the new knowledge is not readily accessible to therapists who find both language and methodology off putting The Mind in Therapy bridges the gap It offers a comprehensive overview of the relevant range of cognitive activities ranging from complex mental operations such as problem solving decision making reasoning and metacognition to basic functions such as attention memory and emotion The authors integrate key new findings about the interaction between cognition and emotion inhibition and counterfactual thinking processes that loom large in practice Each chapter reviews an area of cognitive research clearly explains the findings and highlights their implications and applications in diverse models of therapy cognitive behavioral psychodynamic humanistic and family Each includes case vignettes that illustrate the ways in which the concepts are important and useful in practice All therapists rely on the human mind to effect the change they seek The clearer understanding of human cognitive capacities idiosyncrasies and limitations their own as well as clients that they will gain from this book will enhance the effectiveness of both beginning and experienced practitioners whatever their orientation

White Flag? Michael Ashcroft, Isabel Oakeshott, 2018-10-02
FOREWORD BY GENERAL SIR MIKE JACKSON After the pain of Iraq and Afghanistan it is hard to imagine the UK being drawn into another war Defence chiefs warn that there is a real prospect of future conflict but they have struggled to persuade most politicians to take them seriously Our leaders have concluded there are no votes in defence and have progressively run down the armed forces Today the army is at its smallest since the Napoleonic Wars the RAF is less than half its size twenty five years ago and the Royal Navy will struggle to muster the ships and weapons required to protect our new aircraft carriers Is there really a risk of war Is our military less capable and if so what could that mean for our future White Flag explains what has happened to our armed forces in recent years and asks whether their decline endangers our safety and prosperity The future of the UK's strategic nuclear deterrent Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2007-03-07 future of the UK s strategic nuclear Deterrent The White Paper ninth report of session 2006 07 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Bringing Memory Forward Teresa Strong-Wilson,2008 Bringing Memory Forward looks at the application of the method of currere to storied formation Research tells us that white teachers are among the most recalcitrant of learners when it comes to challenging their own memories and experiences of privilege and race This book examines how white teachers can recognize and critique their constructions of difference and asks what it is that white teachers are so attached to that makes such critique difficult The book goes on to discuss the processes that might be set in motion to bring these attachments into question in such a way that the learner namely the teacher does not feel alienated and paralyzed by her thoughtlessness but instead is moved to think and act Through elaborating a method called bringing memory forward that emerged from self study methodologies and a teacher action research project Teresa Strong Wilson draws attention to the significance of stories and critical engagement with stories in social justice education with teachers

Whiteness, Racial Trauma, and the University Harshad Keval,2024-12-19 Keval writes an essential reading for all in HE This book is the first in recent times to really present the state of UK HE from a truly liberatory perspective He explores the damaging paradoxes at play in HE but is able to tease instruct and enlighten the readers all at once This literary work that is essential in today s incredibly violent and unjust marginalisation of people from the global majority Melanie Marie Haywood Director of Education Development Service Birmingham City University Universities are regarded as safe havens for knowledge production and the educational transformation of lives There is however a long history of universities as sites of contestation where structures of hierarchical legitimacy are played out In response to the upsurge in global protests against racial violence and the criticism of colonial racialised and Eurocentric forms of thinking universities have adopted new roles as anti racist and decolonial beacons of hope This book unravels how such liberal progressive acts hide a much deeper racialised logic of whiteness framed structural narcissism producing insidiously powerful and difficult to trace forms of racialised harm The Social Science for Social Justice series challenges the Ivory Tower of academia providing a platform for academics journalists and activists of color to respond to pressing social issues Africa, UK, and Ireland Rinos Mwanaka,2018-06-12 Africa UK and Ireland Writing Politics and Knowledge Production comprises 6 scholarly nonfiction essays 7 short stories 67 poems and 2 plays from writers and poets based in the UK Africa and Ireland the diasporas It focuses on politics and knowledge production acting as a vehicle in which the production of new knowledge between these three regions countries intersects in the literary sphere It dissects the scientific methods of producing knowledge through the act of producing new knowledge it looks at the management of knowledge the processing and sharing of knowledge and dissects artistically and critically It further stresses the importance of the ownership of knowledge and how this knowledge shapes politics The collection contains work from up and coming poets and writers alongside established ones also included are pieces from academic scholars essayists poets writers of fiction playwrights Africa UK and Ireland Writing Politics and Knowledge Production will prove useful to literary and language theorists poetry collections political sciences social sciences and human sciences general academia and readers education departments and students Connecting Colonial Nostalgia and Global White Supremacism Tawanda Ray Bvirindi, 2025-11-04 This book links colonial nostalgia to the reactivation of white supremacy in the Global North Bvirindi develops the concept Rhodesianmentality to explore the ways in which colonial racialised discourses of othering shape contemporary racialised discourses on whiteness and white identity Through netnographic and ethnographic studies this book examines and unpacks the Rhodesians will never die mantra as the new Internet code word for global white supremacy Bvirindi shows how Rhodesian colonial racialised discourses of othering inform global far right politics This book will appeal to scholars and students in the areas of sociology political studies postcolonial and decolonial studies critical race studies critical whiteness studies African studies and race and ethnic studies

Longitudinal Aging Research: Cognition, Behavior and Neuroscience Lutz Jäncke, Mike Martin, Christina Röcke, Susan Mérillat, 2022-08-22 Black Expression and White Generosity Natalie Wall, 2024-04-30 Taking inspiration from the bold powerful and experimental work of black artists and activists Natalie Wall forges an alternative narrative that strives for freedom and justice without relinquishing anything in return It is your indispensable guide to remaining ungrateful White Mythic Space Stefan Aguirre Quiroga, 2022-01-19 The fall of 2016 saw the release of the widely popular First World War video game Battlefield 1 Upon the game s initial announcement and following its subsequent release Battlefield 1 became the target of an online racist backlash that targeted the game s inclusion of soldiers of color Across social media and online communities players loudly proclaimed the historical inaccuracy of black soldiers in the game and called for changes to be made that correct what they considered to be a mistake that was influenced by a supposed political agenda Through the introduction of the theoretical framework of the White Mythic Space this book seeks to investigate the reasons behind the racist rejection of soldiers of color by Battlefield 1 players in order to answer the question Why do individuals reject the presence of people of African descent in popular representations of history
