Doka, 2000 Do men and women grieve differently This text while emphasizing that there are many ways to cope with grief offers a refreshing change from the popular gender stereotypes of grief Two patterns of grieving are described an intuitive pattern where individuals experience and express grief in an affective way stereotyped as female and an instrumental pattern where grief is expressed physically or cognitively stereotyped as male A third pattern representing a blending of these two is also introduced Of critical importance is that such patterns are related to but not determined by gender and each has distinct strengths and weaknesses Organized into three main parts this topical new text begins by defining terms introducing and delineating the grief patterns and rooting the book s concept in contemporary theories of grief The second part speculates on factors that may influence individuals patterns of coping with loss e g personality gender culture etc The final part considers implications and therapeutic interventions likely to be effective with different types of grievers Men Don't Cry, Women Do Kenneth J. Doka, Terry L. Married to the Enemy Dawn K Kozarian, Mark James, 2011-06-08 Much of Married to the Enemy is about the authors individual and couple journey By sharing their personal enlightenment on how our culture and family impacts our attitude with the opposite sex we learn how to go from devaluing each other to a more respectful and honoring relationship Throughout the book the authors ask questions for you to reflect on to see how you may have developed a gender filter that keeps you from creating the intimacy that you would like to have with your partner Good relationships are reciprocal so the authors also provide an inventory that looks at how healthy the reciprocity is in your relationship Ultimately by accepting yourself and your partner as you really are not as the gender culture says you should be you are guided towards loving authentically In loving genuinely you can now experience the rewards of a love based relationship not a power based one Meeting someone is a start continuing a relationship with that person is progress working together to create a positive and loving atmosphere is success We come into this world with as much as half of our personality and inclinations present at birth When we grow up with strong and excessive gender lines these natural inclinations and personality tendencies tend to get blurred with what our interests should be and the type of personality we should have whether it is true to our nature or not For example Im tough and can handle anything image for a boy and Im sexy sweet and submissive image for a girl These gender lines often leave us feeling like we are married to an opponent instead of a friend Many couples may inadvertently begin playing a game of chess looking to get the upper hand over the other Imagine loving authentically positively and with acceptance Imagine seeing the individual in front of you without the limitation of contrived gender expectations How might you connect What might you discover about your human commonality Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief Steven

Jeffers, Harold Ivan Smith, 2018-10-08 This work includes a foreword by John D Morgan Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Coordinator for Kings College Center for Education about Death and Bereavement Ontario Canada This practical resource guides the reader through all aspects of the grieving process and offers thought provoking and inspirational advice on support With exercises tips and contacts for further assistance Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief provides a comprehensive understanding of this potentially difficult and complex topic It examines different types of grief and various approaches along with reference guides to particular religions and their traditions adopting a comprehensive multi faith approach Pastoral care providers and religious leaders will find the unique hands on approach invaluable as will members of support organisations and volunteer carers It is also ideal for seminary and ministry students counsellors therapists and other care professionals Gives caregivers the tools to help dying and grieving persons face the best and worst that life has to offer It is the worst because death means the end of the attachments that make life worthwhile It is the best because it shows us what is truly meaningful and important in life Mortality is a great gift if we have the knowledge and the courtesy to face it John D Morgan in the Foreword Nursing Your Marriage 24/7 She Can Do It, He Can Help Betty H. Ali, 2018-02-02 Nursing Your Marriage

24 7 She Can Do It He Can Help is a new book by Betty H Ali It offers advice to couples on love trust sharing and overcoming problems The twelve chapters within cover love trust patience arguments forgiveness and other topics Chapters include specific suggestions to overcome problems in each area The Masculine Century Michael Antony, 2008-05-28 Now that the Twentieth Century is behind us what made it what it was 200 million human beings killed by war totalitarianism and extermination programs What made the twentieth century the most murderous age in human history as well as the age that made the greatest advances ever in science and technology while art and serious music declined into abstraction non communication and grotesque hoaxes blank canvases old urinals cans of excrement and concertos consisting of four minutes of silence This book argues that the century was marked by an over masculinization of the Western mind leading to autism and psychopathic aggression and the eclipse of the feminine expressive emotional empathetic side of human nature Hence the unprecedented culture of total war and genocide and the totalitarian projects to raze the human past and start again which Modernism carried out in the arts Hence also the masculinization of sexual behavior as romance gave way to pornography and marriage to promiscuity the adoption by women of a male work role the decline of motherhood and family and the collapse of Western birthrates This is all traced back to the rise of two aggressive ultra masculine ideologies in the nineteenth century Darwinism and Marxism which gave birth to Fascism and Feminism These ideologies put violence conflict and aggression at the heart of life and changed human mentalities This book examines these developments through the literature and art of the past hundred and fifty years and discusses their implications for the future of Western Civilization
