Illustrated by Olaus J. Murie. Photos. by the Author and Charles J. Ott* Adolph Murie, 1961 Where the Sea Breaks Its Back Corey Ford, 1967 Account of Georg Wilhelm Steller's part in Bering's voyage of discovery from Kamchatka to Alaska 1741 42 Sea Cows, Shamans, and Scurvy Ann Arnold, 2008-10-28 On June 4 1741 Georg Wilhelm Steller set sail from Avacha Bay in Siberia on the St Peter under the command of Vitus Bering The crew was bound for America on the last leg of an expedition whose mission was to explore describe and map Russia's vast lands from the Ural Mountains across Siberia to the Kamchatka Peninsula and possibly lay claim to the northwest coast of America if they could find it for no European had ever reached America by this route Officially Steller was the ship's mineralogist but in practice he was its doctor minister and naturalist as well Appointed to the expedition in 1737 by the Academy of Science in St Petersburg he was sworn to secrecy concerning any discoveries Making judicious use of Steller's richly detailed journals and liberal use of illustrations and maps Ann Arnold allows the reader to join Steller on this fascinating voyage and its final dangerous mission which left half the crew dead and the rest suffering from scurvy Sweet Days of a Naturalist James M. Glover, 1987 The Wilderness of Denali Charles Sheldon, 2000-02-14 Originally published by Charles Scribner's Sons in 1930 The Wilderness of Denali is a memoir of three years of hunting the area of Alaska surrounding Mt McKinley It is a classic of American adventure a book written by a man who was willing to risk his life in pursuit of grizzly bears and the elusive mountain sheep The account was written each night by campfire as Sheldon discovered what is still regarded as the most scenic wilderness in America Where the Sea Breaks Its Back Corey Ford, 1992 A splendid account of the final voyage of explorer Vitus Bering and of the life of naturalist Georg Steller 1709-1746 who accompanied Bering on the 1741 crossing into the uncharted North Pacific The Naturalist's Directory, 1905 The Naturalist Darrin Lunde, 2017-04-11 Winner of the inaugural Theodore Roosevelt Association Book Prize A captivating account of how Theodore Roosevelt's lifelong passion for the natural world set the stage for America's wildlife conservation movement and determined his legacy as a founding father of today's museum naturalism No U.S. president is more popularly associated with nature and wildlife than is Theodore Roosevelt prodigious hunter tireless adventurer and ardent conservationist We think of him as a larger than life original yet in The Naturalist Darrin Lunde has firmly situated Roosevelt's indomitable curiosity about the natural world in the tradition of museum naturalism As a child Roosevelt actively modeled himself on the men including John James Audubon and Spencer F. Baird who pioneered this key branch of biology by developing a taxonomy of the natural world basing their work on the experiential study of nature The impact that these scientists and their trailblazing methods had on Roosevelt shaped not only his audacious personality but his entire career informing his work as a statesman and ultimately affecting generations of Americans' relationship to this country's wilderness Drawing on Roosevelt's diaries and travel journals as well as Lunde's own role as a leading figure in museum naturalism today The Naturalist reads Roosevelt through the lens of his love for nature From his teenage collections of birds and small mammals to his time at Harvard and political rise Roosevelt's fascination with wildlife and exploration culminated in his triumphant expedition to Africa a trip which he himself considered to be the apex of his varied life With narrative verve Lunde brings his singular experience to bear on our twenty-sixth president's life and constructs a perceptively researched and insightful history that tracks Roosevelt's maturation from exuberant boyhood hunter to vital champion of serious scientific inquiry Where the Sea Breaks Its Back Corey Ford, 2003-06-01 Author Corey Ford writes the classic and moving story of naturalist Georg Wilhelm Steller who served on the 1741-42 Russian Alaska expedition with explorer Vitus Bering Steller was one of Europe's foremost naturalists and the first to document the unique wildlife of the Alaskan coast. In the course of the voyage, Steller made his valuable discoveries and suffered along with Bering and the crew of the ill-fated brig St. Peter some of the most grueling experiences in the history of Arctic exploration. First published in 1966, Where the Sea Breaks Its Back was hailed as among this country's greatest outdoor writing by Field Stream magazine and today continues to enchant and enlighten the new generations of readers about this amazing and yet tragic expedition and Georg Steller's significant discoveries as an early naturalist. Enjoy this rendition of a tour from the town of Haines to Chilkoot Lake, a favorite place for bear and other wildlife viewing. Along the way, you learn about the natural and human history of Haines and the surrounding areas. Included are many great photos of wildlife, plants, and scenic views. Whether you plan to visit or have already visited Haines, this book is a must-have for anyone interested in nature and her inhabitants. Wild Life Jackson Whitman, 2021-08-09 This book is a compendium of short stories and excerpts of personal journal entries from the life of Jack Whitman, a wildlife biologist who spent fifty years in some of the wildest places that remain on this earth. It is about his love of those places and the wild inhabitants with which he shared those lands. It is about a deep devotion towards understanding the ecology of predators and their prey and with that knowledge, greater respect and better management of those natural resources. It is about his gratitude for living modestly and pushing life to the limits. It will make you laugh. It will make you cry. The Canadian Field-naturalist, 1918 The Epic Story of a Pioneer Naturalist and the Discovery of Alaska Corey Ford, 1967 A Naturalist's Look at Southeast Alaska Gregory Paul Streveler, Gretchen H.
