Of A Certain Age A Guide To Contemporary Fiction:

Of Certain Age a Guide to Contemporary Fiction, 1990 The 'Other' in Ourselves Kate de Medeiros, Kelly Niles-Yokum, Judith L. Howe, 2018-10-22 Increasingly scholars from many disciplines have begun to incorporate various modalities from the humanities and arts novels films artwork and other forms of expression to help connect students with the experience of aging in deeply meaningful and person centered ways This collection examines how these approaches are incorporated into gerontology and geriatrics education Rather than focusing solely on measurable outcomes such as changes in learning over time which is the purview of empirical pedagogy chapters focus on strategies for successfully incorporating a specific work into the classroom descriptions of humanities and or arts exercises with students or older adults and other ways that explore how the humanities and arts can be applied successfully and meaningfully in educational settings This book was originally published as a special issue of Gerontology Geriatrics Education Of a Certain Age Rhea Joyce Rubin, 1990 This guide features older adults as central characters including a detailed annotation with a plot synopsis and discussions of the content themes of the novel or story Aging and Identity Sara M. Deats, Lagretta Lenker, 1999-04-30 Viewing artistic works through the lens of both contemporary gerontological theory and postmodernist concepts the contributing scholars examine literary treatments cinematic depictions and artistic portraits of aging from Shakespeare to Hemingway from Horton Foote to Disney from Rembrandt to Alice Neale while also comparing the attitudes toward aging in Native American African American and Anglo American literature The examples demonstrate that long before gerontologists endorsed a Janus faced model of aging artists were celebrating the diversity of the elderly challenging the bio medical equation of senescence with inevitable senility Underlying all of this discussion is the firm conviction that cultural texts construct as well as encode the conventional perceptions of their society that literature the arts and the media not only mirror society's mores but can also help to create and enforce them Community, Religion, and Literature Cleanth Brooks, 1995 As the last collection of Cleanth Brooks's essays before his death Community Religion and Literature represents his final considered views on the reading of literature and the role it plays in our society He argues that the proper and essential role of literature lies in giving us our sense of community Yet he denounces the extent to which literature too is now being usurped by the critics who see writing as pure language He believes that just as religion renders truth of another sort so literature is an expression of the truth about human beings More and more in this age of science literature has assumed the burden of providing civilization with its values Community Religion and Literature offers students of literature the opportunity to understand what Cleanth Brooks was actually saying rather than what others have said he was saying
