Pennsylvania Avenue Americas Main Street:

Pennsylvania Avenue Carol M. Highsmith, Ted Landphair, 1988 This book's text and its archival and present day photographs tell the story of America's ultimate Main Street Pennsylvania Avenue Christopher P. Cavas, 2019-04-15 The Grand Avenue America's Main Street a National Embarrassment Pennsylvania Avenue has been known by these names and more since it was laid out across farmland in the 1790s From the beginning the one mile stretch between the Capitol building and the White House was intended to be a symbolic link between the key branches of government but over more than two centuries it has witnessed grandeur and squalor national pride and neglect and crowds full of celebration and rage While the pillars of government at either end have stood watch the avenue has seen buildings institutions and neighborhoods rise prosper decay and fall A grand marketplace a major train station dozens of hotels and restaurants all thrived yet only a handful remain Once a teeming city thoroughfare then a bland nearly lifeless area dominated by hulking federal buildings the avenue today is regaining some of the vitality that marked its earlier years even as it remains one of the nation's best known streets America's Main Street United States.
