People And Shopping A Social Background:

The Social Background of a Plan Ruth Glass, 2013-11-05 This is Volume X of thirteen in a series on Urban and Regional Sociology First published in 1948 this study uses Middlesbrough in the North East of England as a basis of research into the new Town and Country Planning Bill and the widening responsibility of the planner to the broader basis of team work and civic designer to ground their work in skills gained from the field of geographers economists sociologists engineers and architects Everyday Life in Medieval London Toni Mount, 2014-03-15 Step back in time to medieval London to find out about the lives of those working and living there The Social Life of Information John Seely Brown, Paul Duguid, 2017-02-21 Understand the human place in a digital world Should be read by anyone interested in understanding the future The Times Literary Supplement raved about the original edition of The Social Life of Information We re now living in that future and one of the seminal books of the Internet Age is more relevant than ever The future was a place where technology was supposed to empower individuals and obliterate social organizations Pundits predicted that information technology would spell the end of almost everything from mass media to bureaucracies universities politics and governments Clearly we are not living in that future The Social Life of Information explains why John Seely Brown and Paul Duguid show us how to look beyond mere information to the social context that creates and gives meaning to it Arguing elegantly for the important role that human sociability plays even perhaps especially in the digital world The Social Life of Information gives us an optimistic look beyond the simplicities of information and individuals It shows how a better understanding of the contribution that communities organizations and institutions make to learning working and innovating can lead to the richest possible use of technology in our work and everyday lives With a new introduction by David Weinberger and reflections by the authors on developments since the book s first publication this new edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the human place in a digital world The Presentation of Self in Contemporary Social Life David Shulman, 2016-04-28 The Presentation of Self in Contemporary Social Life covers the popular theories of Erving Goffman and shows modern applications of dramaturgical analysis in a wide range of social contexts David Shulman s innovative new text demonstrates how Goffman s ideas first introduced in 1959 continue to inspire research into how we manage the impressions that others form about us He synthesizes the work of contemporary scholars who use dramaturgical approaches from several disciplines who recognize that many values social norms and laws have changed since Goffman s time and that contemporary society offers significant new forms of impression management that we can engage in and experience After a general introduction to dramaturgical sociology readers will see many examples of how Goffman s ideas can provide powerful insights into familiar aspects of contemporary life including business and the workplace popular culture the entertainment industry and the digital world The Social Life of Unsustainable Mass Consumption Magnus Boström, 2023-08-21 The Social Life of Unsustainable Mass Consumption draws on a variety of theories and research to contribute to our understanding of unsustainable mass consumption It addresses the role of identities social relations interactions belonging and status comparison and how perceived time scarcity is both a cause and an effect of consumption It examines the power of consumer norms and how overconsumption is normalized and shows how consumption is embedded in the time space arrangements of everyday life Magnus Boström contextualizes such drivers within the larger institutional and infrastructural forces underlying mass consumption including the economy growth politics and the problematic promises of consumer culture Boström further draws on lessons from lived experiments of consuming less and discuss how insights about the flaws of consumer culture can help shape a growing critique and countermovement a collective detox from consumerism A on Quality of Life of Chinese Residents with Social Change Peigang Wang,2023-07-25 This book makes a systematic empirical analysis of the quality of life of Chinese residents from the perspective of social change expounds the connotation theory elements and research methodology of the quality of life and focuses on the diachronic dynamic analysis of the multidimensional elements of the quality of life from the perspective of life course and life cycle According to the research content the book is divided into three topics The first topic from the first chapter to the third chapter mainly focuses on the quality of life research and theoretical evolution providing theoretical guidance for the empirical analysis of the book and scientific significance for the study of the quality of life in social change The second project from Chapter 4 to Chapter 7 focuses on the influence factors of quality of life of a Chinese resident structure composition and the relationship between the related factors to conduct empirical research the purpose is to more clearly understand the present status of life quality in the Chinese culture for the further scientific research was related to quality of life to provide the basic framework The third topic from Chapter 8 to Chapter 13 focuses on empirical analysis of the changes and development of subjective and objective quality of life of Chinese residents The Social Life of Materials Adam Drazin,Susanne Kuchler,2020-06-08 Materials play a central role in society Beyond the physical and chemical properties of materials their cultural properties have often been overlooked in anthropological studies finished products have been perceived as social yet the materials which comprise them are considered raw or natural The Social Life of Materials proposes a new perspective in this interdisciplinary field Diverting attention from the consumption of objects the book looks towards the properties of materials and how these exist through many transformations in a variety of cultural contexts Human societies have always worked with materials However the customs and traditions surrounding this differ according to the place the time and the material itself Whether or not the material is man made materials are defined by social intervention Today these constitute one of the most exciting areas of global scientific research and innovation harboring the potential to act as key vehicles of change in the world But this materials revolution has complex social implications Smart materials are designed to anticipate our actions and needs yet we are increasingly unable to apprehend the composite materials which comprise new products Bringing together ethnographic studies of cultures from around the world this collection explores the significance of materials by moving beyond questions of what may be created from them Instead the text argues that the materials themselves represent a shifting ground around which relationships identities and powers are constantly formed and dissolved in the act of making and remaking The Places Where Community Is Practiced Anna Steigemann,2019-02-25 In this open access publication the social cohesion of urban neighborhoods and their residents is examined which is often viewed as vulnerable since increased mobility individualization wider socio economic and demographic changes have fundamentally altered the basis for everyday social interaction in urban neighborhoods Anna Steigemann gives scholarly attention to the concrete places where neighborly interactions still take place and to how these interactions affect local community building She illuminates and explores the ordinary everyday interactions and social practices in and around shops and gastronomic facilities on a shopping street in Berlin Neukölln revealing how these businesses are important places where community is practiced but also why they are increasingly threatened by commercial and residential gentrification The Social Life of the Mall Franziska Reiffen,2024-10-30 Paseo La Estación a mall in Buenos Aires is as much a place of transit as a place of encounter where long term residents and newcomers people with and without jobs homeowners and those without housing meet In the process social tensions emerge especially when classist migrantizing and moralizing distinctions become relevant in conflict laden negotiations of belonging In an ethnography of the mall Franziska Reiffen explores how people find opportunities for social economic and political participation in precarious conditions and shows how people create socially meaningful places in a city characterized by diversity inequality and mobility
