Still Life at Eighty Abigail Thomas, 2024-11-19 From the New York Times bestselling author of A Three Dog Life a witty and irreverent look at aging and the writing life delivered with trademark brevity humor and wise wit The Emily Dickinson of memoirists Stephen King Abigail Thomas shares her thoughts on aging in this irresistibly wry memoir in vignettes offering richly insightful writing tips along the way While reflecting on the past Abby accepts the shape of her present No more driving no more dancing mostly sitting in a comfortable chair in a sunny corner with three dogs for company as well as the birds and other critters that she watches out her window Only this beloved writer could generate so much enthusiasm over what might seem so little Vivid memories fall like confetti as time contracts shoots forward loops and suddenly she is back in her twenties in New York City drinking sleeping with strangers falling in and out of love believing in a better world Sometimes dread or grief arrives inhabits her body like a shadow and all she can do is write it away paying close attention to what catches her eye sticks in her brain keeps her in the moment Whether you're a book lover dog lover or both pull up a chair pour a cup of tea and enter Abigail Thomas's quietly mesmerizing world

The Pen and the Bell Brenda Miller, Holly J. Hughes, 2012 Writing Hard Stories Melanie Brooks, 2017-02-07 Some of the country's most admired authors including Andre Dubus III Mark Doty Marianne Leone Michael Patrick MacDonald Richard Blanco Abigail Thomas Kate Bornstein Jerald Walker and Kyoko Mori describe their treks through dark memories and breakthrough moments and attest to the healing power of putting words to experience What does it take to write an honest memoir And what happens to us when we embark on that journey Melanie Brooks sought guidance from the memoirists who most moved her to answer these questions Called an essential book for creative writers by Poets about violence and shunning and about the process of writing It will serve as a tool for teachers of writing and give readers an intimate look into the lives of the authors they love Authors profiled in Writing Hard Stories Andre Dubus III Sue William Silverman Michael Patrick MacDonald Joan Wickersham Kyoko Mori Richard Hoffman Suzanne Strempek Shea Abigail Thomas Monica Wood Mark Doty Edwidge Danticat Marianne Leone Jerald Walker Kate Bornstein Jessica Handler Richard Blanco Alysia Abbott and Kim Stafford Insights from Writing Hard Stories Why we endeavor collectively to write a book or paint a canvas or write a symphony is to understand who we are as human beings and it's that shared knowledge that somehow helps us to survive Richard Blanco Here's what you need to understand your brothers or family or friends are going to have their own stories to tell You don't have to tell the family story You have to tell your story of being in that family Andre Dubus III We all need a way to express or make something out of experiences that otherwise have no meaning If what you want is clarity and meaning you have to break the secrets over your knee and make something of those ingredients Abigail Thomas What we remember and how we remember it really tells us how we became who we became

Michael Patrick MacDonald The reason I write memoir is to be able to see the experience itself I hardly know what I think until I write Writing is a way to organize your life give it a frame give it a structure so that you can really see what it was that happened Sue William Silverman After a while in the process you have some distance and you start thinking of it as a story not as your story It was a personal grief but no longer personal It s something that has not just happened to me and my family but something that s happened in the world Edwidge Danticat Tibetan Buddhists believe that eloquence is the telling of a truth in such a way that it eases suffering The more suffering that is eased by your telling of the truth the more eloquent you are That s all you can really hope for being eloquent in that fashion All you have to do is respond to your story honestly and that s the ideal Kate Bornstein You can never entirely redeem the experience You can t make it not hurt anymore But you can make it beautiful enough so that there s something to balance it in the other scale And if you understand that word beautiful as not necessarily pretty then you re getting close to recognizing the integrative power of restoring the balance which is restoring the truth Richard Hoffman Braving the Fire Jessica Handler,2013-12-10 Braving the Fire is the first book to provide a road map for the journey of writing honestly about mourning grief and loss Created specifically by and for the writer who has experienced illness loss or the death of a loved one Braving the Fire takes the writers perspective in exploring the challenges and rewards for the writer who has chosen with courage and candor to be the memory keeper It will be useful to the memoirist just starting out as well as those already in the throes of coming to terms with complicated emotions and the challenges of shaping a compelling coherent true story Loosely organized around the familiar K bler Ross model of Five Stages of Grief Braving the Fire uses these stages to help the reader and writer through the emotional healing and writing tasks before them incorporating interviews and excerpts from other treasured writers who ve done the same Insightful contributions from Nick Flynn Darin Strauss Kathryn Rhett Natasha Trethewey and Neil White among others are skillfully bended with Handler s own approaches to facing grief a second time to be able to write about it Each section also includes advice and wisdom from leading doctors and therapists about the physical experience of grieving Handler is a compassionate guide who has braved the fire herself and delivers practical and inspirational direction throughout Dog Is My Co-Pilot Bark Editors,2009-02-04 Dogs have been our muses our mentors and our playful and noble co pilots They ve had a profound influence on us as healers and spiritual guides and also as co workers helping to guide hunt herd search and rescue Our bond with dogs is deep and unbreakable and there s no better source a reader can turn to for a richer understanding of that complex and wonderful relationship than The Bark The Bark began as a newsletter in Berkeley California that advocated for an off leash area where dogs could cavort and play Within a few years it had become a full fledged award winning glossy magazine that published work by some of the best writers in America today And as it grew the magazine embraced a much larger canvas to cover the emerging phenomenon of dog culture that has been developing over the past decade as dogs have moved out of the backyard and into our homes communities and indeed the very center of our lives As editor Claudia Kawczynska writes The implications of integrating another species into society s daily fabric go well beyond how we nurture our dogs It calls for a revamping of the standard etiquette respecting the concerns and interests of society at large This new relationship along with an appreciation for our rich and unbounded future comprises what we call dog culture This is what The Bark set out to chronicle Dog Is My Co Pilot is an anthology of essays short stories and expert commentaries that explores every aspect of our life with dogs Fifty percent of the material here has never been published before The book is divided into four sections Beginnings explores that first meeting the initial murmurings when a dog human relationship is formed Pack investigates the theme of togetherness and pays tribute to the dynamic of multiple personalities in the canine human relationship Lessons examines what dogs teach us from love to enlightenment The final section Passages reflects on the themes of true friendship transformation and loss Included are pieces by Lynda Barry Rick Bass Maeve Brennan Margaret Cho Carolyn Chute Alice Elliott Dark Lama Surya Das Pam Houston Erica Jong Tom Junod Caroline Knapp Donald McCaig Nasdijj Ann Patchett Michael Paterniti Charles Siebert Alexandra Styron Elizabeth Marshall Thomas and Alice Walker In selections that are humorous poignant truthful sometimes surprising and frequently uplifting Dog Is My Co Pilot embraces the full experience of the world s oldest friendship For people who love great writing and yes great dogs it s a book to be both shared and treasured

Kicking In the Wall Barbara Abercrombie, 2013-04-15 When Patti Smith was plagued with writer s block scattered and stymied surrounded by unfinished songs and abandoned poems playwright Sam Shepard advised her When you hit a wall just kick it in In these pages Abercrombie shows readers how to do just that Like a workout with a top trainer her writing exercises warm up stretch and build creative muscle Quotes from famous writers inspire each day s exercise Though Abercrombie says readers need only commit five minutes to each exercise she writes I ve seen novels memoirs and many essays get started in those five minutes and a lot ended up being published Her playful powerful method is ideal maybe even essential fuel for writers trying to get off the starting block persevere through challenges and cross their personal creativity finish lines

Crafting The Personal Essay Dinty W. Moore, 2010-09-08 Award winning essayist Scott Russell Sanders once compared the art of essay writing to the pursuit of mental rabbits a rambling through thickets of thought in search of some brief glimmer of fuzzy truth While some people persist in the belief that essays are stuffy and antiquated the truth is that the personal essay is an ever changing creative medium that provides an ideal vehicle for satisfying the human urge to document truths as we experience them and share them with others to capture a bit of life on paper Crafting the Personal Essay is designed to help you explore the flexibility and power of the personal essay in your own writing This hands on creativity expanding guide will help you infuse your nonfiction with honesty personality and energy You ll discover An exploration of the basics of essay writing Ways to step back and scrutinize your experiences in order to separate out what may be fresh powerful surprising or fascinating to a reader How to move past private journaling and write for an audience How to write eight different types of essays including memoir travel humor and nature essays among others Instruction for revision and strategies for getting published Brimming with helpful examples exercises and sample essays this indispensable guide will help your personal essays transcend the merely private to become powerfully universal

Mythmaking Maureen Murdock, 2024-03-05 Best selling Heroine's Journey author Maureen Murdock invites readers to explore their personal story within the rich tapestry of human experience by examining the craft of memoir alongside fresh writing advice and prompts Maureen Murdock looks at thematic connections between ancient myths and contemporary memoirs to probe questions like What is my journey Where is home Her background as a Jungian psychotherapist enriches her teaching urging us to dig deep to identify our own universal archetypes Writers who feel stuck or unworthy of writing about themselves will find thought provoking inspiration and validation in this book while those simply looking to use writing as a tool for self exploration will examine their patterns and stories to reveal their true inner selves And all will be left with a deeper understanding of the rich scope of the memoir genre by exploring contemporary favorites like Terry Tempest Williams's Refuge Joan Didion's The Year of Magical Thinking and David Carr's The Night of the Gun from a mythological perspective Like myth memoir reveals a unity to human experience that ultimately we all share similar hopes dreams and desires as well as fears losses and heartbreaks Memoir helps writers understand the trajectory of their lives and helps readers better grasp our own place within the human experience
