Saints Scholars And Politicians:

Religion and Politics in the Middle Ages Ludger Körntgen, Dominik Waßenhoven, 2013-01-30 The increased interest in religion as a phenomenon and its various cultural contexts is encouraging a focus on the relationship between religion and politics However the political relevance of the religious and the interdependence between political and religious spheres has always been a major area of medieval research The articles in this volume consider not only the principle inseparability of both spheres as previously established by research but also the beginnings of a differentiation and relative autonomy of religion and politics within the framework of a comparison between Germany and the United Kingdom This allows the identification of restrictions within the research traditions that are due to national histories and points to ways of overcoming these restrictions

Culture and Politics NA NA, 2019-06-12 Political culture is one of the central but most difficult concepts in political science. In 11 thematic chapters, it takes stock of the current state of research and offers suggestions to deepen our understanding of the ideological, institutional, and cultural dynamics at play. Berkhofer III, Gordon Blennemann, Katy Cubitt, Nicolangelo D'Acunzio, Anne Marie Helvétius, Ludger Kuntgen, Rutger Kramer, Brigitte Meijns, Diane Reilly, Rachel Stone, and Steven Vanderputten. Social Attitudes and Political Structures in the Fifteenth Century Tim Thornton, 2001-02-13 This volume includes papers on political, religious, social, and economic history and the history of ideas during the 15th century. The papers challenge existing conceptions and open new avenues of discussion on longstanding debates. Themes covered include parliaments and their relationships with the monarchs of the period, both in Scotland and in England; queens and their role in the 15th-century English polity; the ideas that lay behind the English claims to the French throne and the rituals of peace-making in the Hundred Years War; debates over the importance of lordship and service, also touched upon in a paper which examines Lord Hastings' retainers in the defence of Calais; while another chapter discusses the local politics of a small Welsh marcher lordship. The crucial subject of Lancastrian government finances in the 1450s also receives a fresh examination. In religious history papers examine the activity of monastic propagandists and the religious life of cathedrals through the activity of fraternities based in them There are also considerations of a noble widow and of the 15th century rural economy

the way in which Islam was re constructed as an intellectual and socio political tradition in Southeast Asia in the nineteen nineties Scholars who approach Islam both as a textual and local tradition students who take the heartlands of Islam as imaginative landscapes for cultural transformation and politicians and institutions which have been concerned with transmitting the idea of Islamization are the subjects of this inquiry into different patterns of modernity in a tropical region still bearing the signature of a colonial past Representing Medieval Genders and Sexualities in Europe Elizabeth L'Estrange, Alison More, 2016-04-08 Transcending both academic disciplines and traditional categories of analysis this collection illustrates the ways genders and sexualities could be constructed subverted and transformed Focusing on areas such as literature hagiography history and art history from the Anglo Saxon period to the early sixteenth century the contributors examine the ways men and women lived negotiated and challenged prevailing conceptions of gender and sexual identity In particular their papers explore textual constructions and transformations of religious and secular masculinities and femininities visual subversions of gender roles gender and the exercise of power and the role sexuality plays in the creation of gender identity The methodologies which are used in this volume are relevant both to specialists of the Middle Ages and early modern periods and to scholars working more broadly in fields that draw on contemporary gender studies

Heck, 2023-11-15 Paul L Heck s Political Theology and Islam offers a sophisticated and comprehensive analysis of sovereignty in Islamic society beginning with the origins of Islam and extending to the present This wide ranging study sets out to answer an unassumingly tricky question What is politics in Islam Paul L Heck s answer takes the form of a close analysis of sovereignty across Islamic history approaching this concept from the perspective of political theology As he illustrates the history of politics in Islam is best understood as an ongoing struggle for a moral order between those who occupy positions of rulership and religious voices that communicate the ethics of Islam and educate the public in their religious and moral devotions In this sense sovereignty in Islam is split between ruling powers and pious communities whose interactions range from close cooperation to outright competition Heck shows that it is precisely through these interactions that Islamic conceptions of sovereignty are constructed and negotiated Political Theology and Islam s first section spells out the concepts and methods for the study of politics in Islam as a struggle for a moral order one not only involving varied claims to sovereignty but also a general determination to realize the righteousness of Islam that stands at the heart of the message that the Prophet Muhammad conveyed to his society in seventh century Arabia The following sections demonstrate through examples from both the past and today's worldwide Muslim community the diverse ways in which the umma the community of Muslims has struggled for a moral order that recalls its prophetic message Deftly moving in various political theaters and through a wide range of intellectual traditions Heck's book will emerge as a touchstone of scholarship in the field of Muslim politics and intellectual thought Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus, 2006 Publisher description
