World War when the largest armada ever assembled took a third of a million Allied men across the English Channel The invasion force of 150 000 troops from Britain the United States Canada and many other nations fighting on the Allied side on D Day under the command of Generals Eisenhower and Montgomery landed on five beaches to spearhead Operation Overlord the invasion of German occupied mainland Europe On Omaha Utah Gold Juno and Sword beaches they fought through what has been described as the longest day against deadly German firepower but many sadly would not live to see the end of the day This new paperback edition of a classic account of D Day told through firsthand accounts brings vividly to life the bravery and skill of the young men called to fight to liberate Europe For many it was their first experience of combat and it would change their lives for ever The accounts are taken from letters diaries and interviews and range from generals and politicians to front line soldiers and civilians The accounts in this book tell the whole story of D Day from the meticulous planning of the four years following the retreat at Dunkirk the invasion armada the fighting on the beaches and the first foothold in France the hard fought progress through the bocage countryside of Normandy before the German army was surrounded and the Allies could breakout at speed and sweep through France to the German border not forgetting the role of the home front throughout the campaign Even today there are many reminders of D Day that visitors can see on the beaches of Normandy and in the towns villages and cemeteries inland

Assaults from the Sky Martin W. Bowman, 2013-03-19 This is the second volume of a comprehensive five part work on D Day that includes a multitude of personal military accounts from both Allied and German Aviation personnel who were there Overlord began with an assault by more than 23 000 airborne troops 15 500 of them American behind enemy lines to soften up the German troops and to secure key objectives 6 600 paratroopers of the US 101st Screaming Eagles Division in 633 C 47s and 83 gliders and 6 396 paratroopers of the US 82nd All American Division in 1 101 C 47s and 427 gliders were dropped over the neck of the Cotentin peninsula By the end of the operation the list of casualties was extensive But 101st Airborne Division linked up with the US 4th Infantry Division beach landings at Pouppeville the most southerly exit off Utah Beach and the 82nd secured the area north of Ste Mre glise after fierce fighting and drove the enemy north considerably delaying the German 243rd Infantry Division from contacting the Allied beach assault force This important episode within the wider history of D Day is enlivened in classic Bowman fashion featuring both extensive historical notes as well as deeply personal accounts of endurance and individual gallantry
