

SAILING FROM THE UNITED STATES

In this country I planted not one seed
Moved from address to address, did not plead
For justice in its courts, fell in love and out,
Thrust my arm into the sea and could not pull it out;
I did not see the summer lose its balance
Or organize the lonely in a gang, by chance
I did not build a city or a ship, or burn
The leaves that fell last autumn, in my turn
Built by the numb city building noise,
I learned my soul, morning and night are decoys
To catch a gesture to end the profit of the grave.

I raved, lost a country its hills and heroes
In a country that taught me to talk. I oppose
Its marketplace and thoroughfares, its family clung
To loveless occupation, mocking its young
Quick to grow protective imitation.
It is noon on the clock in the subway station,
On my mouth the clerks and laborers are killed,
Their galley slave brains folded and spilled
Upon my table. I will not eat upon these stains
This history, kiss this mouth, bend these sprains
For occupation. Will not change my mind.

The wind in my house is not a wind through olive trees,
I make no music of the janitor's keys,
I fashion no reed, no pipe, have not the wind for it,
Gold and violent death are counterfeit.
