Abercrombie,Richard Slatten,1991-01-01 Lunenburg County Road Orders, 1746-1764 Nathaniel Mason Pawlett,Tyler Jefferson Boyd,1993 The establishment and maintenance of public roads were among the most important functions of the county court during the colonial period in Virginia Each road was opened and maintained by an overseer or surveyor of the highways who was appointed each year by the Gentlemen Justices The overseer was usually assigned all the able bodied men the Labouring Male Tithables living on or near the road These laborers then furnished their own tools wagons and teams and were required to work on the roads for six days each year County court records relating to roads and transportation are collectively known as road orders The Virginia Transportation Research Council s published volumes of road orders and related materials contain not only information on early roads but also the names of inhabitants who lived and worked along the roadways plantations farms landmarks landforms and bodies of water The road orders contained in this volume cover the period from 1746 when Lunenburg s county government first became operational through the creation of Halifax in 1752 and Bedford in 1754 down to the creation of Charlotte and Mecklenburg from it in 1765 As such they are the principal extant evidence concerning the early development of roads over a vast area of Southside Virginia stretching into the very shadows of the Blue Ridge to include Pittsylvania Henry Franklin and Patrick as well as major portions of Appomattox Bedford and Campbell counties Sunlight on the Southside Lunenburg County (Va.),1931 Lunenburg County, Virginia, Order Book
T. L. C. Genealogy (Miami Beach, Florida),2002-01-01 The History of Pittsylvania County, Virginia Maud Carter Clement,1973 The book rings with the names of early inhabitants and prominent citizens For the genealogist there is the important and wholly fortuitous list of tithables of Pittsylvania County for the year 1767 which enumerates the names of nearly 1 000 landowners and property holders amounting in sum to a rough census of the county in its infancy Additional lists include the names some with inclusive dates of service of sheriffs justices of the peace members of the House of Delegates 1776 1928 members of the Senate of Virginia 1776 1928 clerks of the court and judges The Evolution of the Southern Backcountry Richard R. Beeman,2010-08-03 The Evolution of the Southern Backcountry is the story of an expanding frontier Richard Beeman offers a lively and well written account of the creation of bonds of community among the farmers who settled Lunenburg Country far to the south and west of Virginia s center of political and economic activity Beeman s view of the nature of community provides an important dynamic model of the transmission of culture from older more settled regions of Virginia to the southern frontier He describes how the southern frontier was influenced by those staples of American historical development opportunity mobility democracy and ethnic pluralism and he shows how the county evolved socially culturally and economically to become distinctly southern William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine College of William & Mary, 1920 Publishes refereed scholarship in history and related disciplines from initial Old World New World contacts to the early nineteenth century and beyond Its articles notes and documents and reviews range from British North America and the United States to Europe West Africa the Caribbean and the Spanish American borderlands Forums and topical issues address topics of active interest in the field Lunenburg County, Virginia, Wills, 1746-1825 Landon C.

 Bell, 2009-09-27 Lunenburg County in southeastern Virginia was created from Brunswick County in 1746 The wills abstracted for this volume shortly before the compiler's death embrace all of those recorded in Lunenburg County from its formation through 1825 Most of the original wills were recorded in the county's official Will Books however Mr Bell also discovered some early wills in county deed books as well as in circuit court records Each abstract typically provides the following information the name of the testator his date of death and the date of probate the names of the surviving spouse children or grandchildren and the names of the executor's and witnesses Mr Bell also gives the page reference to the Lunenburg County Will Book where the original will may be found The complete name index at the back of the volume which was prepared by the Virginia Book Company following Mr Bell's death refers to some 7 000 persons in all Lunenburg County, Virginia,
