The Literary Construction of the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Mitzi J Smith,2012-06-28 Mitzi Smith engages the reader in explaining how as in the real world the characterization of the Others is used negatively in the biblical texts Smith shows how the concept of difference is constructed in order to distinguish ourselves from proximate others indeed the other who is most similar to us is most threatening and most problematic The process of Othering or Otherness is a synthetic and political social construct that allows us to create and maintain boundaries between them and us Thus this work demonstrates how proximate characters are constructed as the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Charismatics Jews and women are proximate others who are constructed as the external and internal Others

Leaders in Heels Pastor Paul Cannings,2024-10-08 In Leaders in Heels Dr Paul Cannings Sr illuminates the profound impact of biblical women whose courage wisdom and faithfulness shaped the course of history Challenging traditional interpretations that have sometimes relegated women to the sidelines this compelling exploration reveals how women like Mary Bathsheba Deborah Phoebe and Lydia exerted remarkable influence during pivotal moments in biblical narrative Through careful analysis of scripture and historical context Cannings demonstrates how these women worked within their cultural frameworks to fulfill divine purposes From Mary's faithful motherhood that nurtured the Messiah to Deborah's courageous leadership as judge and prophetess from Phoebe's critical role in establishing early churches to Lydia's entrepreneurial support of Paul's ministry each story showcases how women acted as catalysts for God's kingdom work. Particularly powerful is Cannings' personal testimony of how his own mother and other female mentors shaped his spiritual journey and ministry providing a contemporary lens through which to view biblical examples. The book culminates with the inspiring story of Mary Magdalene demonstrating how even those with troubled pasts can become spiritual giants when transformed by divine grace. Both affirming and challenging, Leaders in Heels invites readers to recognize the vital contributions women have made throughout sacred history and consider how today's women can similarly impact their families, churches, and communities for God's glory. If you enjoyed Women of the Bible by Ann Spangler, Twelve Extraordinary Women by John MacArthur, and All the Women of the Bible by Herbert Lockyer, you'll love Leaders in Heels.

Herald and Presbyter, 1908 Record of Christian Work Alexander McConnell, William Revell Moody, Arthur Percy Fitt, 1918. Includes music. Paul and Money Verlyn Verbrugge, Keith R. Krell, 2015-06-23. The apostle Paul, one of the most prominent figures in the early Jesus movement, had a lot to say about money. His letters deal with real people as they lived their Christian lives in the Greco-Roman world. He finds it necessary to address those who are rich in this present world (1 Tim 6:17). But he also has to address those who do not want to work for whatever reason and are idle and disruptive (2 Thess 3:6). Moreover, whereas most churches today have a certain socio-economic homogeneity, some of Paul's churches had a combination of upper-class wealthy people and lower-class slaves worshiping side by side, and it inevitably created friction (esp. 1 Cor 11:17-34). During the past twenty years, a significant amount of research has been done on class consciousness in the Greco-Roman world and on the significance of Paul's fund-raising venture for the poor among the Lord's people in Jerusalem, the collection for his ministry. Relying on the surprising results of current Pauline scholarship and a careful exegesis of a variety of New Testament texts, this book offers a thorough investigation of the apostle Paul's sayings and dealings with money. Preaching and Reading the Old Testament Lessons Elizabeth Rice Achtemeier, 2003. Prominent author and biblical scholar Elizabeth Achtemeier provides an outstanding preaching and study resource with this collection of brief expositions on all of the First Lesson texts contained in Cycle C of the Revised Common and Lutheran Lectionaries. Infused with her customary insight into the Hebrew scriptures, this compendium of Achtemeier's stimulating contributions to the preaching journal Emphasis furnishes a plethora of fruitful starting points for preparing sermons solidly rooted in the Bible yet connected to modern life. But as the book's title suggests, this volume isn't just for preachers and homiletics students; it's also a powerful commentary for study groups and personal devotional reading. Achtemeier's unrelenting focus on the promises of God appearing in the Old Testament and fulfilled in the New Testament, combined with her outstanding scholarship, make these faith-filled essays an enriching resource for anyone who wants a clearer understanding of God's Word contained in the scriptures. Elizabeth Achtemeier has spent her interpretive life at the interface between critical exegesis and the task of proclamation. In this series of brief expositions, she exhibits her interpretive agility, her passion for the church and her subtle judgments on a number of theological issues Those faced with the weekly task of preaching will find rich and suggestive clues for letting the text have its say in the church Walter Brueggemann William Marcellus McPheeters Professor of Old Testament Columbia Theological Seminary We preachers have learned that there are few better interpreters of the Old Testament than Elizabeth Achtemeier Her homiletical interpretation is sure to strike fire in our imaginations and serve as a wonderful catalyst for great sermons from these passages She really does enable us to preach texts from the Hebrew Bible in a new and delightful way William H Willimon Dean of the Chapel and Professor of Christian Ministry Duke University Renowned throughout the United States and Canada as a preacher teacher lecturer and writer Elizabeth Achtemeier authored 25 books including the acclaimed Preaching From The Old Testament and her autobiography Not Til I Have Done A Personal Testimony Achtemeier served for many years as an adjunct professor of Bible and Homiletics at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond Virginia
