Ma Maman:

, The Secret Son Deepak Peschard, 2020-06-08 The Secret Son is the story of the author's search for his mother and his own identity. It is as much a journey within himself as it is across continents through the narrow lanes of Chennai, Mumbai and Kolkata. He finally gets the closure he wanted all his life but does he get to meet his mother? Living Languages

Catherine Watts, Clare Forder, Hilary Phillips, 2013 This title is full of practical and original ideas aimed at teachers and trainee teachers of foreign languages in primary schools. Written by a team of linguists, the book comprises eight chapters and is structured around the integrated classroom, merging language learning with different aspects of the wider curriculum.

Toer, 2018-05-31 A translation of short stories by the well-known Indonesian author Pramoedya Ananta Toer. Written in the 1950s, these stories are intensely regional in flavor and modern in approach. This collection includes such works as Stranded, Fish, Creatures Behind Houses and the great Ketjapi. Children's Agency and Development in African Societies Yaw Ofosu-Kus, 2017-07-19 This book focuses on African childhood and youth within the context of development and socialization where children are expected to be moulded in the image of adults. In many African societies, children are generally held as passive bearers of the demands of adults regardless of the fact that they are often exposed to a multitude of challenges that originate from the capriciousness of those adults. However, buoyed by international conventions and national legislations that offer them greater protection and the ubiquitous internet that exposes them to childhood and youth experiences elsewhere, many of them are increasingly becoming assertive in homes, schools and communities as well as reinvigorating their survival and self-preservation instincts. It is in this regard that this book, through the various chapters, engages with their competencies, skills and creativity to respond to experiential challenges as independent migrants or ones under coercion working in city streets and markets or cocoa farms or juggling work and schooling in pursuit of some education. Confronted with their parents and siblings, health predicaments and the inadequacies of state and familial care or urgent negotiation of their sexualities, they demonstrate incredible resilience. Similarly, their perceptiveness is demonstrated in a unique appreciation of politics and its actors and a capacity to assume responsibilities beyond their chronological age. Thus, while highlighting some of the challenges confronting African children, the book provides gripping evidence of how they resiliently negotiate those challenges. Jane Jade Raawiya Ummé Noorah Peerbocus, 2021-08-30 Jane Jade, compiled by Peerbocus Raawiya Umm Noorah, is a collection of short stories and poems in English and French languages based on the theme of Women's Emancipation. As the saying goes, Men of quality respect women's equality. One noteworthy aspect behind this book is we have authors of both genders, especially a plethora of men who are willing to write on this topic in order to create and spread awareness. This book serves as a wake-up call to humanity as it is high time to stop making gender disparities. These short stories and poems show that females are no longer considered to be second-class citizens. Men and women are humans in
