Weinbaum,2016-04-21 Here is the story that presented virtual reality to the world Dan Berk meets an Elfin professor who has invented a pair of goggles that allow the wearer to enter completely into the action of a story Sometimes it can be hard to remember that it isn't real or is it The American Catalogue ,1880 American national trade bibliography Middle English Marvels Tara Williams,2018-01-03 This multidisciplinary volume illustrates how representations of magic in fourteenth century romances link the supernatural spectacle and morality in distinctive ways Supernatural marvels represented in vivid visual detail are foundational to the characteristic Middle English genres of romance and hagiography In Middle English Marvels Tara Williams explores the didactic and affective potential of secular representations of magic and shows how fourteenth century English writers tested the limits of that potential Drawing on works by Augustine Gervase of Tilbury Chaucer and the anonymous poets of Sir Orfeo and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight among others Williams examines how such marvels might convey moral messages within and beyond the narrative She analyzes examples from both highly canonical and more esoteric texts and examines marvels that involve magic and transformation invoke visual spectacle and invite moral reflection on how one should relate to others Within this shared framework Williams finds distinct concerns chivalry identity agency and language that intersect with the marvelous in significant ways Integrating literary and historical approaches to the study of magic this volume convincingly shows how certain fourteenth century texts eschewed the predominant trends and developed a new theory of the marvelous Williams's engaging erudite study will be of special interest to scholars of the occult the medieval and early modern eras and literature The Magic Spectacles. A Fairy Story Chauncey GILES,1873 Frostgrave: Thaw of the Lich Lord Joseph A. McCullough,2015-11-20 Thaw of the Lich Lord is a complete campaign for Frostgrave that will challenge both new and veteran players Through a series of linked scenarios players discover the existence of a new power in the Frozen City one who was old when the great city was still young and who saw both its rise and its disastrous fall Warbands will confront the Lich Lord's minions race against his agents to seize possession of mysterious artefacts and brave the perils of Frostgrave in search of his lair Eventually they will need to muster all their courage to venture into the depths of the city and face the Lich Lord himself Not all wizards will seek to stop the Lich Lord however and full rules for giving into his corruption and following the dark road to becoming an undead lich are presented for those who crave power and immortality above all else While the campaign presents many new threats against which wizards and their warbands must test themselves including an expanded bestiary it also offers additional resources such as new henchmen that can be recruited and unique magical treasures that can spell the difference between survival and oblivion The Magic Spectacles Lilian Moore,Arnold Lobel,1985-01 The Director's Prism Dassia N. Posner,2016-08-15 Finalist 2017 Theatre Library Association George Freedley Memorial Award Shortlist 2019 Prague

Quadrennial Best Scenography and Design Publication Award The Director's Prism investigates how and why three of Russia's most innovative directors Vsevolod Meyerhold, Alexander Tairov, and Sergei Eisenstein used the fantastical tales of German Romantic writer E. T. A. Hoffmann to reinvent the rules of theatrical practice. Because the rise of the director and the Russian cult of Hoffmann closely coincided, Posner argues, many characteristics we associate with avant-garde theater—subjective perspective, breaking through the fourth wall, activating the spectator as a co-creator—become uniquely legible in the context of this engagement. Posner examines the artistic poetics of Meyerhold's grotesque, Tairov's mime drama, and Eisenstein's theatrical attraction through production analyses based on extensive archival research that challenge the notion of theater as a mirror to life instead viewing the director as a prism through whom life is refracted. A resource for scholars and practitioners alike, this groundbreaking study provides a fresh, provocative perspective on experimental theater, intercultural borrowings, and the nature of the creative process.

The Routledge Companion to Mobile Media Art Larissa

Hjorth, Adriana de Souza e Silva, Klare Lanson, 2020-07-28 In this companion, a diverse international and interdisciplinary group of contributors and editors examine the rapidly expanding, far-reaching field of mobile media as it intersects with art across a range of spaces, theoretical, practical, and conceptual. As a vehicle for and of the everyday, mobile media is recalibrating the relationship between art and digital, networked media and reshaping how creative practices such as writing, photography, video art, and filmmaking are being conceptualized and practised. In exploring these innovations, The Routledge Companion to Mobile Media Art pulls together comprehensive, culturally nuanced, and interdisciplinary approaches, considerations of broader media ecologies and histories, and political, social, and cultural dynamics and critical and considered perspectives on the intersections between mobile media and art. This book is the definitive publication for researchers, artists, and students interested in comprehending all the various aspects of mobile media art, covering digital media and culture, internet studies, games studies, anthropology, sociology, geography, media and communication, cultural studies, and design.

Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1870 edition. Excerpt: "come that she might call upon her friends the notes who lived in the various lines and spaces and give her new method of learning another trial. She found she could remember her lesson much better than ever before. Her careful attention to the lines and spaces and the names of the notes on them, the comparison of one with another, and the living interest excited by making them talk to her, had so fixed them in her memory that she found no difficulty in recalling them. The hour passed pleasantly away and she was surprised when her mother called her to find the time had been so short. Now she was to put the reality of her possession of a magical power to another and severer test. Clara was a quick, nervous and restless girl, and all kinds of confinement and patient attention to little things were very irksome to her. Sewing was her especial dislike. She had not the patience to take stitch after stitch to make them even and keep her work straight Her mother however thought it necessary for her to learn to sew and a part of two days in the week was spent in doing it Now she thought if I can see how to do my sewing well and can learn to like it I shall know for certain that I have some new and magical power She took up her work with more interest than usual though it was more difficult and trying than she had ever attempted before Her mother prepared her work for her told her how to do it and cautioned her to be patient and do it as nicely as she could Now I shall need my spectacles she said to herself and I must remember how to use them One thing at a time That is certainly good advice in sewing Look sharp That I must do or I shall get the stitches long and short
