Andrew Yost,2022-08-24 The world is disenchanted Rationalization intellectualization and scientism rule the day We used to see the world as a magical place but now it s just a material space How did we get here The shift comes in part from the rise of a certain kind of secularism one that reduces human experiences to whatever is explainable through observation Love It s just a biological drive Joy a rush of adrenaline Beauty an influx of dopamine If you can t test it it isn t true or so the thinking goes The Romantic Life draws upon eighteenth and nineteenth century Romanticism to provide five strategies to re enchant the world five ways to imbue the world with meaning truth and beauty According to the Romantics far from being useless encounters with impractical things like the imagination nature symbolism sincerity and the sublime give our lives a richness and depth that cannot be attained on a purely material account of the world By learning from their example we can come to see into the life of things as William Wordsworth called it We can be re enchanted Next Word, Better Word Stephen Dobyns,2011 Time and Nature in the Poetry of Niyi Osundare Chukwunwike Anolue,2024-08-02 This book provides an ecocritical analysis of the poetry of the famous Nigerian poet Niyi Osundare It interrogates the intricate interface between time and nature in 11 of Osundare s defining poetry collections This is a book of postcolonial ecocriticism from an African perspective It brings together the ecocritical theory of animism and theories of geologic time in the discussion of Osundare s poetry Osundare shows that animism has a lot to offer in enriching human understanding of the ecosystem And while he eloquently catalogues problems undermining the health of the earth in this age of the Anthropocene and the Capitalocene in his poetry he also holds on to the hope of a better future The book concludes that Osundare s optimism is what informs his use of poetry to press humankind to rise to the duty of salvaging the environment Deploying an interdisciplinary approach that stretches across the fields of literature religion geology physics economics and anthropology this book will be an important read for those looking for fresh ways to understand Osundare s poetry and African nature writing The Collected Works: 200+ Novels, Plays, Poems, Essays & Autobiography Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,2023-12-09 In The Collected Works 200 Novels Plays Poems Essays Autobiography Johann Wolfgang von Goethe presents an unparalleled tapestry of German literature that showcases his multifaceted genius His oeuvre embodies the convergence of Enlightenment ideals with Romantic sensibilities characterized by a profound exploration of individualism and nature The collection includes seminal works such as Faust which delves into the human condition through a Faustian bargain and his lesser known poetic and autobiographical writings that reveal his philosophical contemplations on life love and art Goethe s lyrical prowess and narrative innovation make this collection an essential study of literary evolution and cultural commentary in Western literature As a pivotal figure of the Sturm und Drang movement and later a key player in the Weimar Classicism literary era Goethe s life experiences greatly informed his writing Born in 1749 in Frankfurt he was a polymath whose pursuits spanned art science and politics His engagement with the contemporary intellectual currents of his time undoubtedly shaped his thematic choices encouraging readers to confront existential dilemmas and embrace the complexities of human experience This comprehensive collection is highly recommended for both scholars and general readers alike as it invites a deep engagement with Goethe s literary artistry and philosophical inquiries Readers will find themselves captivated by the rich emotional depth and intellectual rigor present in these works gaining invaluable insights into the fabric of human existence through Goethe s nuanced lens The Poetry of Search and the Poetry of Statement Dorothy L. Sayers,2006-01-01 Introducing the Dante Papers Trilogy Introductory Papers on Dante Further Papers on Dante The Poetry of Search and the Poetry of Statement The Poetry of Search with which the book opens puts forward the suggestion that controversy about what kind of thing poetry ought to be has tended to overlook the fact that there are two kinds of poetry corresponding roughly to the categories of Romantic and Classical but which she prefers to describe as the Poetry of Search and the Poetry of Statement The poet of search writes to find out what he feels Keats is an example and the poet of statement writes to tell what he knows and here Dante is the master Dante the Maker which follows discusses two examples of this method as poet of statement First how the whole of the Paradiso is built like a bridge between the first and the last terrains and how roads from all the other parts of the poem run together to one point from which to pass over that bridge secondly how from a single unadorned statement in the seventh canto the reader who shares Dante's background may construct a whole labyrinth of associated imagery turning and returning perpetually upon the central affirmation of fact in which a whole complex of meanings lies implicit
