Magic For Men:

Magic for Men Bruno Meyer, Manny Diez, 2002-10-01 Controversial ideas and exercises provide men with methods and insights to access magic in their lives White Men's Magic Vincent L. Wimbush, 2014 Characterizing Olaudah Equiano's eighteenth century narrative of his life as a type of scriptural story that connects the Bible with identity formation Vincent L Wimbush's White Men's Magic probes not only how the Bible and its reading played a crucial role in the first colonial contacts between black and white persons in the North Atlantic but also the process and meaning of what he terms scripturalization By this term Wimbush means a social psychological political discursive structure or semiosphere that creates a reality and organizes a society in terms of relations and communications Because it is based on the particularities of Equiano's narrative Wimbush's theoretical work is not only grounded but inductive and shows that scripturalization is bigger than either the historical or the literary Equiano Scripturalization was not invented by Equiano he says but it is not quite the same after Equiano Lady Belle Belle; Or, Fortunio and His Seven Magic Men. A Christmas Fairy Tale, in One Act [and in Verse.] Henry James Byron, 1864 Ruth and Tobias Emma Claude, 2001-11-15 Peru the 90's a historical romance from U S and native points of view In settings travelers will recognize as authentic Ruth and Tobias is traditional in having romantic and terrorist episodes newly traditional After a U S senator is kidnaped and his sons receive death threats Tobias the senator's oldest son travels in disguise to South America In a hostel in Arequipa Peru a Milquetoast compatriot amateur historian and expert botanist takes a prying interest in Tobias as he attempts to pass himself off as an archaeologist the first of a series of unexpected meetings for Tobias as he struggles to maintain his disguise This historical romance features interrelations among characters distinguished by the verve with which Peruvians live their lives and by the professionalism that earmarks the characters from the U S The interplay among the Peruvian and the U S characters seems like comic opera except for the consequences Zrate an archaeologist trained in Moscow and a professor at the state university at Arequipa exercises his anti Americanism against the masquerading Tobias Tobias is helped by Ruth an anthropologist writing a thesis on fetishes In turn Ruth is helped by Joyce a mestizo secretary And so on Ruth and Tobias features the voices the perspectives the expectations of a spectrum of personalities from strikingly dissimilar material circumstances and ethnic origins In addition to Zrate and Joyce the Peruvian characters include a hostel manager a housewife a vamp a hacienda owner university students ranging from highland native to urban opportunist a handful of teenage terrorists and an Andean dog In addition to Tobias and Ruth the North American characters include a musicologist a biologist and an archaeologist from a private and privileged college in the Middle West The interaction among north and south Americans and among male and female reflects worlds wildly dissimilar in experience and expectation Radical adjustments to sudden changes in circumstance are imperative Neither Peruvians nor North Americans are free from sentiment and illusion Scenes in Ruth and Tobias include a river in flood a mudslide an archaeological expedition designed to
