Magic Hare The:

Magic, Body and the Self in Eighteenth-Century Sweden Jacqueline Van Gent, 2009 Contrary to previous assumptions magic remained an integral part of everyday life in Enlightenment Europe This book demonstrates that the endurance of magical practices both benevolent and malevolent was grounded in early modern perceptions of an interconnected body self and spiritual cosmos Drawing on eighteenth century Swedish witchcraft trials which are exceptionally detailed these notions of embodiment and selfhood are explored in depth The nuanced analysis of healing magic the role of emotions the politics of evidence and proof and the very ambiguity of magical rituals reveals a surprising syncretism of Christian and pre Christian elements The book provides a unique insight to the history of magic and witchcraft the study of eighteenth century religion and culture and to our understanding of body and self in the past The Magic Hare Book People, 2002-07-01 The Dictionary of Magic & Mystery Melusine Draco, 2012-05-25 Every good reference book is both a product and a reflection of its time The Dictionary of Magic Mystery is not just another compendium or dictionary of occultism it is a jumping off point for further research Here the reader will find the ancient and modern interpretation for magical and mystical terms together with explanations for the differences between the varied and often conflicting approaches to magic The Purple Hare's Guide to Inspirational Writing Anne Sheppard, Visualise a telephone wire stretching from earth into the universe and beyond Imagine listening to the messages that pour down from the skies This is not a dream it is a reality Experience for yourself the incredible connection to the universe and the messages that are waiting there for you to download You will receive messages from the past present and future and words of warning and wisdom You will learn how to write a letter to a loved one in spirit and receive a written reply I believe that we are approaching a time where the next step along our evolutionary journey will begin The instructions are within reach we need to connect in order to discover what the universe wants of us With guidance from the Purple Hare I believe that we can all do this the lines of communication are already open
