Elliott Goldwyn,2005-09 War is hell and never has it been more hellish than in this moving collection of poetry by Viet Nam War veteran Jim Soular Few today can deny that the war was a horrific tragedy resulting in the deaths of 60 000 Americans and millions of Vietnamese Laotians and Cambodians The first section In Country assaults the reader with all the charm of a meat grinder as the poet serves up image after violent image of the indiscriminate carnage of war and the gruesomeness of death in the triple canopy jungles of Viet Nam The second section Back in the World returns us to the States but not necessarily to sanity as Soular wades through the psychological aftereffects of the war for both the veterans and their families With vivid and carefully chosen imagery this section portrays the mind numbing consequences of exposure to war its accompanying PTSD and the tremendous guilt sorrow and despair that many veterans and their families live with to this day These poems are a raw new look at war vignettes of horror guilt and sorrow in what many consider America's longest and most brutal conflict as well as its most divisive since the Civil War The Magical Worlds of the Lord of the Rings David Colbert, 2002 Offers information about Tolkien's realm of Middle Earth and its inhabitants including details on characters mythology origins and cultures Season of the Witch Peter Bebergal, 2015-10-13 From the hoodoo inspired sounds of Elvis Presley to the Eastern odysseys of George Harrison from the dark dalliances of Led Zeppelin to the Masonic imagery of today's hip hop scene the occult has long breathed life into rock and hip hop and indeed esoteric and supernatural traditions are a key ingredient behind the emergence and development of rock and roll and in this book writer and critic Peter Bebergal illuminates this web of influences Amazon.com The Rotarian, 1981-02 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs Magic in the Cloister Sophie Page, 2015-06-26 During the late thirteenth and early fourteenth centuries a group of monks with occult interests donated what became a remarkable collection of more than thirty magic texts to the library of the Benedictine abbey of St Augustine's in Canterbury The monks collected texts that provided positive justifications for the practice of magic and books in which works of magic were copied side by side with works of more licit genres In Magic in the Cloister Sophie Page uses this collection to explore the gradual shift toward more positive attitudes to magical texts and ideas in medieval Europe She examines what attracted monks to magic texts works and how they combined magic with their intellectual interests and monastic life By showing how it was possible for religious insiders to integrate magical studies with their orthodox worldview Magic in the Cloister contributes to a broader understanding of the role of magical texts and ideas and their acceptance in the late Middle Ages Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 2003 Gothicka Victoria Nelson, 2012-05-08 The Gothic Romanticism's gritty older sibling has flourished in myriad permutations since the eighteenth century In Gothicka Victoria Nelson identifies the revolutionary turn it has taken in the twenty first Today s Gothic has fashioned its monsters into heroes and its devils into angels It is actively reviving supernaturalism in popular culture not as an evil dimension divorced from ordinary human existence but as part of our daily lives To explain this millennial shift away from the traditionally dark Protestant post Enlightenment Gothic Nelson studies the complex arena of contemporary Gothic subgenres that take the form of novels films and graphic novels She considers the work of Dan Brown and Stephenie Meyer graphic novelists Mike Mignola and Garth Ennis Christian writer William P Young author of The Shack and filmmaker Guillermo del Toro She considers twentieth century Gothic masters H P Lovecraft Anne Rice and Stephen King in light of both their immediate ancestors in the eighteenth century and the original Gothic the late medieval period from which Horace Walpole and his successors drew their inspiration Fictions such as the Twilight and Left Behind series do more than follow the conventions of the classic Gothic novel They are radically reviving and reinventing the transcendental worldview that informed the West s premodern era As Jesus becomes mortal in The Da Vinci Code and the child Ofelia becomes a goddess in Pan s Labyrinth Nelson argues that this unprecedented mainstreaming of a spiritually driven supernaturalism is a harbinger of what a post Christian religion in America might look like Christology, Ancient and Modern Oliver D. Crisp, George Hunsinger, Peter J. Leithart, Katherine Sonderegger, Alan J. Torrance, 2013-10-22 A Fresh Look at the Doctrine of Christ Christology was the central doctrine articulated by the early church councils and it remains the subject of close theological investigation today Christology Ancient and Modern the first volume in a series of published proceedings from the annual Los Angeles Theology Conference brings together conference proceedings surveying the field and articulating the sources norms and criteria for constructive theological work in Christology The ten diverse essays in this collection include discussions on The types of historical Christologies and evaluations of various approaches to the theology of Christ A close look at the trajectory and divergence of modern denominational understandings of Christ s work and person Discussions of implications and challenges to specific Christologies regarding detailed exegetical considerations Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future The J. H. Bavinck Reader Johan Herman Bavinck, 2013-06-03 Crucial themes and issues explored by a premier missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck 1895 1964 was a prominent twentieth century Dutch Calvinist missiologist who wrestled with the tension between religious absolutism and relativism as many Christians do in today s pluralistic context The J H Bavinck Reader gathers together a choice selection of Bavinck s significant writings that are essential for understanding his theology of missions his approach to world religions and his religious psychology His treatment of religious consciousness and Christian faith expands on the brief treatment of it in his own work The Church Between Temple and Mosque The concluding chapters show how Bavinck s theoretical reflection on religious consciousness was rooted in his close observation during his years as a missionary in Indonesia Offering a constructive way forward Bavinck affirms both the particularity of salvation in Christ and the universality of the Christian hope A substantial introduction enhances the book with the most thorough biographical sketch of Bavinck available
