Arvo Pärt Andrew Shenton, 2012-05-17 Arvo Pärt is one of the most influential and widely performed contemporary composers. Around 1976 he developed an innovative new compositional technique called tintinnabuli (Latin for sounding bells) which has had an extraordinary degree of success. It is frequently performed around the world, has been used in award-winning films and pieces such as Ferris Alina and Spiegel im Siegel have become standard repertoire. This collection of essays written by a distinguished international group of scholars and performers is the essential guide to Arvo Pärt and his music. The book begins with a general introduction to Pärt's life and works covering important biographical details and outlining his most significant compositions. Two chapters analyze the tintinnabuli style and are complemented by essays which discuss Pärt's creative process. The book also examines the spiritual aspect of Pärt's music and contextualizes him in the cultural milieu of the twenty-first century and in the marketplace.

The British Catalogue of Music, 2003 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1963 Sir Ernest MacMillan Ezra Schabas, 1994-01-01 Benigno Zerafa (1726-1804) and the Neapolitan Galant Style Frederick Aquilina, 2016 This book is the first ever study of Malta's major eighteenth-century composer Benigno Zerafa (1726-1804), a specialist in sacred music composition. This book is the first ever study of Malta's major eighteenth-century composer Benigno Zerafa (1726-1804), a specialist in sacred music composition. Zerafa's large-scale and small-scale vocal and choral works, mostly written during his long service as musical director at the Cathedral of Mdina, have been winning increased recognition in recent years. In addition to describing and analysing this extensive corpus, the book gives an account of Zerafa's sometimes eventful career against the wider background of the rich musical and cultural life in Malta, especial attention being paid to its strong links with Italy and particularly Naples, where Zerafa was a student for six years. It examines in detail the complex relationship of music to Catholic liturgy and investigates the distinctive characteristics of the musical style intermediate between baroque and classical in which Zerafa was trained and always composed one that today is commonly labelled galant. Well stocked with music examples, the book makes copious reference to Italian and Maltese composers from Zerafa's time and to modern analytical studies of Italian music from the middle decades of the eighteenth century, thereby offering a useful general commentary on the galant period. Its central aim, however, is to stimulate further interest in and revival of Zerafa's music. To this end, the book contains a complete work list with supplementary indexes. Scholars and students of eighteenth-century music, in particular sacred music, the galant style, and Italian music, will find it invaluable. FREDERICK AQUILINA is Senior Lecturer in Music Studies at the University of Malta.
