Translating National Allegories Alistair Rolls, John West-Sooby, Marie-Laure Vuaille-Barcan, 2019-04-15 This book explores the intersection of a number of academic areas of study that are all individually of growing importance translation studies crime fiction and world literature The scholars included here are leaders in one or more of these areas The frame of this volume is imagological its focus is on the ways in which national allegories are constructed and deconstructed encompassing descriptions of national characteristics as they play out at the level of the local or the individual as well as broader political analyses Its corpus crime fiction is shown to be a privileged site for writing the national narrative and often in ways that are more complex and dynamic than is suggested by the genre's much cited role as vehicle for a new realism Finally these two areas are problematised through the lens of translation which is a crucial player in both the development of crime fiction and the formation rather than simply the interlingual transfer of national allegory In this volume national allegories and the crime novels in which they emerge are shown to be eminently versatile foundationally plural texts that promote critical rewriting as opposed to sites for fixing meaning This book was originally published as a special issue of The Translator Writing on the Edge Tom Miller, 2003 Gathers essays poems song lyrics and short stories about the U S Mexico borderland with contributions by many famous literary figures Rim to River Tom Zoellner, 2024-02-20 A sharp examination of Arizona by a nationally acclaimed writer Rim to River follows Tom Zoellner on a 790 mile walk across his home state as he explores key elements of Arizona culture politics and landscapes This book is essential reading for anyone interested in learning more about a vibrant and baffling place Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection Mitzi M.
