The Mailbag ,1923 Congress and the Shaping of the Middle East Kirk Beattie,2016-05-03 How does one explain US Middle East policy When Stephen Walt and John Mearsheimer wrote their bestselling book The Israel Lobby they attributed our pro Israel policy to the power of the lobby itself Others have criticized this approach as overly simplistic Longtime Middle East watcher Professor Kirk Beattie provides a profound assessment of Congress s role by examining the vetting of congressional candidates campaign financing congressional staffing bipartisan alliances within the Senate and the House and the agenda driven allocation of foreign aid and policymaking He addresses the many internal and external pressures that impact such processes His findings based on roughly two hundred interviews with congressional staffers lobbyists members of Congress and foreign embassy officials across years of research untangle the issue to show us how Congress really works Postage and the Mailbag ,1916 Mailbag from the Middle East Diane Walker,1996-09

Researching Biology and Evolution in the Gulf States Jörg Matthias Determann,2015-08-25 Officials and religious scholars in the Gulf states have repeatedly banned the teaching of the theory of evolution because of its association with atheism But Jorg Matthias Determann argues here that despite official prohibition research on biological evolution has flourished due in large part to the development of academic and professional networks This book traces these networks through the history of various branches of biology including botany conservation research ornithology and palaeontology Typical of rentier societies some of the scientific networks in this region consist of vertical patron client relationships For example those in power who are interested in wildlife conservation have been known to offer patronage to biologists working on desert ecology However just as important are the horizontal links between scientists both within the Gulf region and beyond Given the strengths and importance of these two forms of professional networks Determann argues that we should look at the Arab world as an area interconnected with global science and therefore fully integrated into the scientific and technological advances being pioneered worldwide The Middle East Journal ,1950 A Short History of the Near East from the Founding of Constantinople \(330 A.D. to 1922\) William Stearns Davis,1922 Issues ,1967 The Middle East & South Asia Folklore Newsletter ,1986 A Short History of the Near East William Stearns Davis,1922 About the history of the Middle East from 330 AD to 1922 Standard Media-market Service ,1936 The Near East ,1916
