Mainstreaming Gender and Development in the World Bank Caroline O. N. Moser, Annika Tornqvist, Bernice van Bronkhorst, 1999 Extrait de l'introduction This report presents the main findings of a recently completed desk study undertaken for the Social Development Family of the World Bank's Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development ESSD Network. The primary objectives of the review are to a) identify the current rationale, language and underlying policy approach to Gender and Development (GAD) adopted by the World Bank; b) evaluate the extent to which these are shared across the institutions; and c) make recommendations concerning future steps toward mainstreaming gender in the World Bank. Although the origins of the review relate to needs specifically identified by ESSD, the issues raised go beyond social development and are relevant to all Bank staff concerned with mainstreaming gender and development into World Bank lending and nonlending operations at the policy, program and project level. Mainstreaming Gender in World Bank Lending Author, Evaluating a Decade of World Bank Gender Policy, 1990-99, 2005-01-01 Annotation As part of the Bank's poverty reduction mandate, the Bank's 1994 Operational Policy on Gender Dimensions of Development aimed to reduce gender disparity and increase the participation of women in the economic development of their countries. This evaluation examines the relevance and results of this policy. World Bank Lending for Lines of Credit Laurie Effron, 2006-01-01 This review of World Bank support for lines of credit channeled through local financial institutions in client countries finds that the Bank's own guidelines have not been followed and outcomes are poor. Putting Social Development to Work for the Poor, 2005 This publication examines the effectiveness of aid agency projects in relation to social development work which are based on four key concepts of social sectors: safety nets, inclusion, equity and empowerment, and social relations. The report draws on recent and ongoing OED evaluations supplemented by other data including a portfolio review, a literature review, individual surveys and a review of country assistance strategies. Four main recommendations are made to improve policy outcomes, including the need to ensure that stated Bank or policy priorities receive adequate treatment across regions and countries with better strategic planning to address current skills and monitoring and evaluation gaps. Power for Development Fernando Reyes Manibog, Rafael Dominguez, Stephan Wegner, 2003-01-01 This publication evaluates the performance of the World Bank Group (WBG) during the 1990s in promoting private sector development in the electric power sector in 80 countries. Main findings include that where countries showed a commitment to advancing reforms in promoting private sector development and where programmes were properly implemented, the expected benefits were delivered. However, quality of outcomes depended on the objectives pursued and on types of assistance provided, with most countries remaining in the early stages of reform. Maintaining Momentum to 2015?, 2005-01-01 This report addresses the issue of what publicly supported programs and external assistance from the Bank and other agencies can do to accelerate attainment of targets such as reducing infant mortality by two thirds The evidence presented here relates to Bangladesh a country which has made spectacular progress but needs to maintain momentum in order to achieve its own poverty reduction goals The report addresses the following issues 1 What has happened to child health and nutrition outcomes and fertility in Bangladesh since 1990 Are the poor sharing in the progress which is being made Tunisia Fareed M. Eriksson,2001-01-01 Results based conceptual frameworks Stakeholder views and related findings Country context and measuring aid coordination quality 2000 Annual Review of Development Effectiveness William Battaile,2001-01-01 This Annual Review of Development Effectiveness ARDE builds on previous reviews i e the 1998 review released in a hostile environment of financial crisis concluded that improvements in project performance cannot be enough that improvements at a higher plane of program and country performance should also be present and the 1999 review inscribed within the Comprehensive Development Framework dilemmas and challenges identified practices for dealing with those challenges namely to be based on country commitments to poverty reduction and sustainable growth The ARDE 2000 finds that progress was solid on a broad front but that further progress is likely Portfolio performance is likely to exceed the Strategic Compact target of seventy five percent satisfactory outcomes and sustainability and institutional development ratings reflect improvements Though progress is commendable this review examines four tensions the Bank faces learning to reconcile client and corporate priorities adapting global prescriptions to local conditions balancing country performance and poverty incidence in allocating its resources and achieving efficiency selectivity seeking to implement a holistic vision of development Bank strategies should acknowledge client needs judicious adaptation to institutional social and political fronts should be pursued and an approach to poor performing countries should be addressed 2001 Annual Review of Development Effectiveness William Battaile,2002-01-01 This is the fifth annual review which explores long term development effectiveness trends and analyses the choice of lending and non lending instruments and activities to achieve World Bank development objectives The 2001 review confirms a significant improvement in the outcomes of the Banks lending performance It finds that selecting the right combination and sequence of activities for a particular objective can make the difference between success and failure whether at individual project level for country assistance programmes or for global sectoral and thematic priorities At each level there is unexploited potential to maximise strategic selectivity and this is especially important in countries with a poor policy framework or acute institutional development needs Mainstreaming Gender in Debt and Development Resource Management Dinesh Dodhia,Tina Johnson,2005 This handbook highlights the linkages between debt and gender and discusses policies and action taken by international agencies and bilateral donors to promote and integrate gender issues in the provision of development assistance Jordan Fareed M. A. Hassan,Djelloul Al-Saci,2004-01-01 This evaluation prepared in collaboration with the Islamic Development Bank looks at the effectiveness of World Bank assistance to Jordan during the 1990s from three perspectives an analysis of the World Bank s services and products development impact and the contribution of the Bank and its development partners to development outcomes The World Bank s strategy since 1990 based on wide ranging and influential analytic and advisory activities was to support macroeconomic stabilization and pro market structural reforms to foster growth The increased focus on the social sectors was aligned with the Millennium Development Goals MDGs The strategy was relevant to the government s priorities outlined in a series of five year economic and social development plans The Bank s programs in particular were successful in promoting policy reforms Substantial tariff trade and financial sector reforms together with the removal of disincentives for investment and the privatization of government enterprises were achieved Bank assistance also contributed to significant progress in the agriculture water and social sectors With Bank support Jordan made excellent progress in almost all areas covered by the MDGs and is likely to meet the target levels by 2015 However these gains have been achieved in an inefficient manner and the cost in terms of public expenditures has been relatively high Recommendations outline much needed public sector reform for despite some public expenditures being curtailed the country s vulnerability to external shocks remains high and the potential for regional instability is also considerable Future Bank assistance should focus on public expenditure restructuring enhanced water management and conservation and poverty reduction Women and Gender Equity in Development Theory and Practice Jane S.
