Milton Steinberg Portrait Of A Rabbi:

Milton Steinberg Simon Noveck, 1978 Agony in the Pulpit Marc Saperstein, 2018-06-15 Many scholars have focused on contemporary sources pertaining to the Nazi persecution and mass murder of Jews between 1933 and 1945 citing dated documents newspapers diaries and letters but the sermons delivered by rabbis describing and protesting against the ever growing oppression of European Jews have been largely neglected Agony in the Pulpit is a response to this neglect and to the accusations made by respected figures that Jewish leaders remained silent in the wake of catastrophe The passages from sermons reproduced in this volume delivered by 135 rabbis in fifteen countries mainly from the United States and England provide important evidence of how these rabbis communicated the ever worsening news to their congregants especially on important religious occasions when they had peak attendance and peak receptivity A central theme is how the preachers related the contemporary horrors to ancient examples of persecution Did they present what was occurring under Hitler as a reenactment of the murderous oppressions by Pharaoh Amalek Haman Ahasuerus the Crusaders the Spanish Inquisition the Russian Pogroms When did they begin to recognize and articulate from their pulpits an awareness that current events were fundamentally unprecedented Was the developing cataclysm consistent with traditional beliefs about God's control of what happened on earth No other book length study has presented such abundant evidence of rabbis in all streams of Jewish religious life seeking to rouse and inspire their congregants to full awareness of the catastrophic realities that were taking shape in the world beyond their synagogues PORTRAIT OF A RABBI-HISTORIAN: How Did We Get Here? Rabbi Lance J. Sussman Ph.D., 2025-01-08 There is no information about the book as of this time Jewish Theology and Process Thought Sandra B. Lubarsky, David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 This collection constitutes the first extended discussion of the relationship between Judaism and process thought In the last half century the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne have become important sources for contemporary theological reflection Recently a number of Jewish thinkers have examined process thought as a potentially valuable resource for postmodern Jewish theology This book brings together many Jewish thinkers who have pioneered this discussion Jewish thinkers who have found process thought to be a useful framework for contemporary Jewish thought discuss issues that are primarily theological such as God's transcendence and immanence the problem of evil the idea of revelation Also included is a dialogue between Jewish and Christian thinkers on the appropriateness of process thought for their religious traditions Critical reflection on the continuities and discontinuities between Judaism and the process model is also covered Portrait of an American Rabbi: In His Own Words Rabbi Lance J. Sussman Ph.D., 2023-06-14 It is important to bear in mind that Sussman has also been a true credit to the Reform rabbinate He has taught thousands of congregants over the decades He imparted his love for the Jewish people and its past from the pulpit under the marriage canopy and even at the funeral bier These attainments must never be minimized or overlooked One of Isaac Mayer Wise's students memorialized a noteworthy incident that occurred during a class that Wise was teaching Wise suddenly began to feel ill and decided to end the class early As Wise began to step down from his teaching platform a well meaning rabbinical student jumped up from his seat grabbed his teacher s arm and said May I help you down Doctor The famous rabbi shifted his glance and said in a voice loud enough for the rest of the class to hear Never help a person down my boy a rabbi must always help people up This is how Rabbi Dr Sussman has led in the various communities he served over the past four decades He has been a learned rabbi who never lost sight of his obligation to help people up Rabbi Dr Gary P Zola Executive Director Emeritus American Jewish Archives Ackerman Family Distinguished Professor HUC JIR From To The Readers written for the AJA Festschrift in honor of Rabbi Dr Lance J Sussman 2024 The American
