Mind The Gaps Singapore Business In China:

Mind the Gaps Sree Kumar, Sharon Siddique, Yuwa Wong, 2005 Provides an analysis of how to be successful in China especially for the Singapore business community Singapore-china Relations: 50 Years Yongnian Zheng, Liang Fook Lye, 2015-11-06 Showcasing the substantive and multi faceted Singapore China relationship this book examines the political economic socio cultural people to people and even military exchanges between the two countries It also highlights flagship projects and other key private sector led projects that have become hallmarks of bilateral cooperation The book argues that the current level of cooperation is built on the earlier foundation laid by Lee Kuan Yew and Deng Xiaoping In a way the bilateral relationship is a unique one For one Deng Xiaoping had singled out Singapore as a model for China's reforms and China today continues to find Singapore's experience relevant Singapore is also learning from China in the process The two countries also have a number of bilateral institutional mechanisms that have become more important in reviewing existing cooperation and identifying new ways of working together Rather than simply provide an overview of bilateral relations the book highlights the unique or distinguishing features of the Singapore China relationship The Oxford Handbook of Business Groups Asli M. Colpan, Takashi Hikino, James R. Lincoln, 2010-08-06 Business groups large diversified often family controlled organizations with pyramidal ownership structure such as the Japanese zaibatsu the Korean chaebol and the grupos economicos in Latin America have played a significant role in national economic growth especially in emerging economies Earlier variants can also be found in the trading companies often set up in Britain which operated in Asia Africa and Latin America Business groups are often criticized as premodern forms of economic organization and occasionally as symptomatic of corrupt crony capitalism but many have shown remarkable resilience navigating and adjusting to economic and political turbulence international competition and technological change This Handbook provides a comprehensive analysis of business groups around the world It examines the adaptive and competitive capabilities of business groups and their evolutionary dynamics 16 individual country chapters deal with business groups from Asia to Africa the Middle East to Latin America while overarching chapters consider the historical and theoretical context of business groups With contributions from leading experts The Oxford Handbook of business groups provides a comprehensive empirically and theoretically rich guide for scholars and policy makers Southeast Asia in China Ying-kit Chan, Chang-Yau

Hoon, 2022-11-28 As part of China's south Southeast Asia has historically assumed a peripheral position when juxtaposed against the power of the Chinese state In the existing scholarly literature the power asymmetry is reflected in the ostensible bias where most studies are about China's presence in or engagement with Southeast Asia rather than the reverse studies on the presence or influence of Southeast Asia in China have been a marginal enterprise The present volume aims to fill this void by exploring the historical entanglements and contemporary engagements of Southeast Asians in China through a Southeast Asian perspective As China seeks to understand Southeast Asia's presence in the country on its own terms it is also engaged in a process of self discovery and defining where and how it should stand in relation to the region Departing from the discourse of China as the a priori center dominating the scholarship on China Southeast Asia relations the present volume hopes to subvert such power relations in order to bring fresh perspectives on the historical and contemporary contributions of Southeast Asia ns in China

Japanese Firms in Contemporary Singapore Hiroshi Shimizu, 2008 This pioneering work discusses the role of Japan in the economic development of Singapore since 1965 by looking at the nature and extent of the value added activities of Japanese multinational corporations MNCs in the manufacturing construction and retailing sectors Japan s economic presence and influence were very strong in Singapore during this period The city state was a major recipient of Japanese foreign direct investment in Asia and was also an important overseas customer for Japanese manufacturing and construction firms In this book Hiroshi Shimizu examines the value added activities of Japanese multinational corporations in Singapore drawing on case studies of leading companies such as Minebea Pokka Corporation Kikkoman Bridgestone and Isetan He uses this information to analyse Japanese foreign direct investment in Singapore as part of an Asian or global strategy explaining competition and co operation between Japanese MNCs and local firms and evaluating various factors that led to a decline of Japan and the rise in the importance of China in Singapore particularly since the late 1990s

Transnational Communities Marie-Laure Djelic, Sigrid Quack, 2010-05-20 Transnational communities are social groups that emerge from mutual interaction across national boundaries oriented around a common project or imagined identity This common project or identity is constructed and sustained through the active engagement and involvement of at least some of its members Such communities can overlap in different ways with formal organizations but in principle they do not need formal organization to be sustained This book explores the role of transnational communities in relation to the governance of business and economic activity It does so by focusing on a wide range of empirical terrains including discussions of the Laleli market in Istanbul the institutionalization of private equity in Japan the transnational movement for open content licenses and the mobilization around environmental certification These studies show that transnational communities can align the cognitive and normative orientations of their members over time and thereby influence emergent transnational governance arrangements

Public Space In Urban Asia William Siew Wai Lim, 2013-12-16 Over the past few decades rapid urbanisation has threatened to erode public space especially in emerging economies Market forces that prioritise profit generation are allowed to construct venues of consumption in its place Though their physical appearance may resemble traditional public space in reality they are greatly restrictive and diminished in affordability accessibility and social meaning It is in this context that William SW Lim chairman of Asian Urban Lab has brought together architects designers historians sociologists and urbanists from the region to discuss public space in selected Asian cities Part One contains essays from participants from Chongqing Hong Kong Jakarta Kuala Lumpur Singapore and Taipei and observations from commentators Several essays by William SW Lim on the subject round off the discussion in Part Two The thoughtful essays in Public Space in Urban Asia emphasise how engaging with the present actuality of cities and public awareness of spatial justice in cities are crucial for it is the achievement of spatial justice that will help create a greater level of happiness across societies in our increasingly urbanised world

Multinational Companies from Emerging Economies A. Goldstein, 2007-04-17 This comprehensive study of the rise of multinational corporations from emerging economies explores the basis of their success Andrea Goldstein argues that the history of multinational business offers valuable lessons for the present and shows how emerging multinationals are embedded in dense political social and ethnic networks

Southeast Asia Sree Kumar, Sharon Siddique, 2008 In Lieu of Ideology Kee Beng Ooi, 2010 Born in Malacca in 1918 Dr Goh Keng Swee reached maturity at a time when European colonialism was breathing its last By the time this keen eyed Malayan Became self governing Singapore s first Minister of Finance in 1959 he had made a name for himself s the colony s foremost social scientist having carried out groundbreaking surveys on urban poverty and housing He immediately initiated pioneering projects that laid the ground for the island s economic success When Singapore separated from Malaysia in 1965 Dr Goh took charge of building an army from scratch

New Dimensions Of Economic Globalization: Surge Of Outward Foreign Direct Investment From Asia Rajiv Kumar, Ramkishan S Rajan, Nicola Virgill, 2008-05-27 The phenomenon of South South FDI flows particularly those arising from multinational companies from China and India has generated considerable interest among policymakers academics and the popular press in recent times This phenomenon raises several questions such as What is behind the rise of such intra regional investment flows What is the magnitude of such flows and can they be expected to persist accelerate over time What are the challenges faced by emerging market multinationals and the future prospects of intra Asian FDI flows This book written by top scholars from academia international organizations as well as think tanks consists of a set of papers focusing on these issues The book is unique in its coverage focusing on China India and Southeast Asia rather than limiting itself to a sub regional or country specific focus The chapters in this book highlight important policy issues but are supported with relevant data and empirics with rigorous empirical analysis being applied to important practical policy issues The book also provides pertinent overviews of recent research on the questions explored While the chapters have been crafted to be able to stand up to academic scrutiny they are also written in a manner that makes them easily accessible to all policymakers students and business financial journalists who are interested in Asia and in the emergence of South South FDI flows

International Perspectives on the Belt and Road Initiative Sidh Sintusingha, Hao Wu, Wenqi Lin, Sun Sheng Han, Bo Qin, 2021-05-31 International Perspectives on the Belt and Road Initiative investigates the most significant global scale international trade expansion and capital investment programme since the Second World War This book focusses on the multi national perspectives of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI in order to interrogate the Chinese government s representation of it as a symbol of peace cooperation development and mutual benefit With specific focus on the interrelationship between geopolitics infrastructure investments and urban regional development the book reflects on 12 countries experiences in depth including those of Iran Pakistan Brazil Thailand Indonesia Japan and Ethiopia specifically to their economic development levels political systems power dynamics and socio environmental issues The book clarifies and contributes new knowledge on the nature of BRI concerning its relationship to globalism neo colonialism the notion of developed vs developing countries and their institutions and macro micro benefits and impacts In doing so the book offers a balanced account of the antagonistic geo political narrative of socio political conflict and the collaborative framework of real socio economic flows and development The book will appeal to academics researchers and policy makers with an interest in the BRI and its impacts on politico economic development and urban regional and spatial systems in the Indo Pacific and beyond

Journal of Economic Literature, 2005-12 The Dragon Looks South Bronson Percival, 2007-06-30 Analyses the role and relative importance of the various components of China s comprehensive strategy for Southeast Asia including the political economic and soft power dimensions of China s multifaceted relationships both with individual states and the region as a whole This book also looks at American interests in Southeast Asia

Asian Port Cities Sharon Siddique, 2015 Although the term port city has fallen out of favour there are good reasons why it should be revived Ports are reclaiming their role in the life of the city A comparative study of some of Asia s port cities Singapore Hong Kong Shanghai Tianjin Tokyo Jakarta and Johor Bahru PTP demonstrate a complex dynamic and symbiotic relationship between these ports and their cities Port city form is dynamic and ever changing Twenty first century Asian ports have expanded constantly adapting to new technology rapid growth trajectories and the forces of globalization Ports have shifted moving from space adjacent to the city centre to the periphery This in turn allows for the expansion of the waterfront which is once more a focal point for people oriented activities and displays The vibrancy of the city centre is reflected in the exuberance of the high rise buildings plazas malls and public spaces Ports retain their traditional hinterlands but for many the hinterland has expanded to embrace the globe The essence of twenty first century Asian port city form is the uniting of land and water worlds Page 4 of cover
