Museum Watching:

Museum Watching Elliott Erwitt, 1999-10-19 An entertaining collection of images of people photographed unawares in museums Elliott Erwitt: Museum Watching Elliott Erwitt, 2015-03 Describing himself as a professional photographer by trade and an amateur photographer by vocation the ever popular Elliott Erwitt b 1928 prizes his personal snaps above all his work When otherwise idle in New York or with spare time on his hands during his frequent travels Erwitt indulges himself at museums and art exhibitions contemplating works of art watching people and taking pictures In Museum Watching Erwitt presents his visual observations on the museum together for the first time in book form including photographs from the late 1950s through to 1999 In this affectionate wry and personal album illuminated by his own text Elliott entertains us by means of his conversation with art making visual puns tweaking a few noses and occasionally passing more serious comment As museum visiting establishes itself as far more popular than attending sports events and with the big art show becoming serious business Erwitt's gentle humour provides not only the perfect antidote but a subtly perceptive insight into the relationship between people and art and people and their own selves Museum Marketing and Strategy Neil G.
